Sessions Court to End Work Today

BUT TWO CASES ON THE DOCKET YET TO BE TRIED

A RESUME OF ITS ACTIVITIES

Twenty-Two Cases Disposed of to Date—Seventeen Convictions—The Record

Court of sessions resumed trial yesterday in the Son Gambrell case. Arguments and the judge's charge were heard, after which the matter went to the jury, who remained out for quite a while. They finally returned with a verdict of not guilty.

The plea in this case was an alibi. Gambrell, it shown by 15 or more witnesses, was in Belton at the time of the assault on Dr. E. H. Parks.

The next case taken up was that of J. Ben Mitchell, charged with violation of the dispensary law. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500. This sentence was suspended on the payment of $25 of the fine.

J. H. Bowden, charged with malicious injury to trees, was found guilty. This case was a very peculiar one. Mr. Bowden having cut the trees off a certain plot of land, thinking at the time that the land was his own, or that he had a perfect right to cut the trees if he so desired. He was found guilty, but upon motion of his attorneys he has not yet been sentenced.

Jake Scott, charged with house-breaking and larceny, was found guilty on the second count of the indictment. Scott was charged with having stolen two shoulders of meat from Henry McGowan and having sold them to a local butcher. The case seems to be complicated and the appeal for a new trial was heard and granted.

Luther Lawson pleaded guilty of disturbing religious worship and was sentenced to 30 days imprisonment. Frank Burner was tried on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill. He was found guilty of assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature, but was recommended to the mercy of the court. The attorney for the defense was not in the court room at the close of the session and this man was not sentenced.

No Second Week Court. On account of the rapid disposition of cases it has been decided not to hold the second week of court. At present there are but two more cases to be tried, those of Curran Alexander and Marion Webb. Both of these cases will be tried today. Judge Seane announced on Friday afternoon that the second week jury need not report. The cases have been disposed of far more rapidly than it was supposed they would be.

Two Cases Today. The Alexander murder case is to come before the court today. This is a very serious case and is the most interesting of the entire docket. Another minor case will be tried after this one is finished.

Resume of Session. While the court has not had a very long session this term, it has been a busy one. The work of the court has been as follows: Robert Bowie, assault and battery with intent to kill, guilty to assault and battery of high and aggravated nature. Sentenced 3 years.

Grady Evans, housebreaking and larceny, pleaded guilty, sentenced 1 year. Remus Harris and Ester Morris, burglary, pleaded guilty, sentenced five years each.

Flanders Sanders, larceny, pleaded guilty, sentenced 15 months. Frankie Williams, larceny, pleaded guilty, 1 year.

Lee Robertson, murder, pleaded guilty to manslaughter, 7 years. Sam Blackwell, murder, guilty of manslaughter, new trial asked, refused, 12 years.

Curtis Armstrong, murder, directed verdict of not guilty. Cooley Groves, assault and battery with intent to kill, pleaded guilty, 18 months. Case reconsidered, 5 years.

Floyd Ellison, violation of dispensary laws, guilty, not yet sentenced. Clyde Bevin, assault and battery with intent to kill, mistrial.

A. Chur Brownlee, Walker, Latimer, Lawson, pleaded guilty of disturbing religious worship, 60 days for first two, 30 days for last.

J. B. Mitchell, violation of dispensary laws, pleaded guilty, $500 of 3 months. Upon payment of $25 sentence is suspended.

Mat Henderson, housebreaking and larceny, not guilty. Pink Sanders, larceny, guilty, 2 years six months.

J. G. Bowden, malicious injury to trees, guilty, new trial. Cornelius Gambrell, assault and battery with intent to kill, not guilty.

H. C. Stansel, Ira Stansel and Will Franklin, violation of dispensary law, pleaded guilty, $100 or three month each.

John Scott, obtaining goods under false pretenses, not guilty. Jake Scott, housebreaking and larceny, guilty, new trial.

George Callahan, assault and battery with intent to kill, 8 months, or $150.

This makes a total of 22 cases with 17 convictions. In one case there was a directed verdict of not guilty. There were acquittals and a mistrial. The two cases for today will conclude this session of court in Anderson.

GERMANY'S ANSWER EAGERLY AWAIATED BY ENTIRE WORLD

tended to impress upon Germany that there should be no misapprehension at Berlin of the firm purpose of the United States to safeguard its rights by any means necessary.

The final sentence says the "imperial government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word, or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercises and enjoyment."

White house officials today adopted a policy of silence. It was felt that any discussion of the situation at this time would be useless and inopportune. Inasmuch as the question is now before the German government.

The president will leave late today on the yacht Mayflower for New York to review the Atlantic fleet there next week. During which he will be kept in touch with every development.

Anxiety in New York. New York, May 14.—Thousands of persons gather before dawn today outside the newspaper offices waiting for editions containing the text of the United States' note to Germany.

Owing to the government's restriction against its publication before 5 o'clock, the hour corresponding to that at which it is to be delivered to the German foreign office at Berlin, newspapers were unable to print the note in the customary early morning editions. Special editions carrying it were greeted with intense enthusiasm.

Praised in Paris. Paris, May 14.—Unofficial version of President Wilson's note to Germany is highly praised by this morning's newspapers.

Figaro says it shows the "era of banal protests is over and Germany must give formal guarantees that she will not permit similar crimes in the future. If she breaks these promises America will proceed to act."

Gray Hair Becomes Dark, Thick, Glossy

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Year ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Chautauqua Joy Night to Be In Charge of Ralph Bingham, Well Known Southern Humorist

JOY night of Chautauqua week, with its fun and freedom from care, will be in charge of Ralph Bingham, widely known humorist and a prince of entertainers. Mr. Bingham is a southerner—in fact, is one of the few remaining southern humorists of national fame—and the south delights to honor him as one of its favored sons.

Mr. Bingham has been upon the platform for more than thirty years, beginning as a boy orator. It is doubtful if any man can speak for the Lyceum and Chautauqua in any more representative sense than Mr. Bingham. He founded the International Lyceum Association, backed by a little group of lecturers and bureau managers, and was its first president. Today this organization has a membership of nearly 1,000 and includes senators, governors and platform celebrities in many lines.

Mr. Bingham was just recently made a member of the famous Lambs Club in New York, which is considered the greatest club of distinguished actors, authors, composers and artists in the United States.

In the Joy Night festivities Mr. Bingham will be assisted by the Christine Giles-Bingham Company of four members, who play the piano, violin, cello and flute. Mme. Christine Giles-Bingham headed her own company in the Lyceum and Chautauqua before she became Mrs. Bingham. She is the possessor of a lyric soprano voice of unusual sweetness and sympathy and an attractive personality.

In addition to her popularity as a singer, she is a violinist of marked ability. A most unique feature of her performance is the playing of her own violin obligato while she sings.
