Local Intelligence.

OFFICIAL MORTUARY REPORT.—Dr. S. C. Russell, secretary of the Board of Health, reports that the whole number of deaths in this city for the week ending Sunday evening at six o'clock was 129. Eight died of apoplexy, 1 of asthma, 1 of bronchitis, 4 of burns or scalds, 1 of catarrh, 1 of cholera infantum, 1 of congestion of bowels, 17 of consumption, 5 of adult debility, 2 of diarrhea, 1 of chronic diarrhea, 2 of dropsy, 1 of dropsy of brain, 2 of dysentery, 1 of disease of brain, 1 of diptheria, 1 of epilepsy, 4 of congestive fever, 1 of scarlet fever, 1 of malarial fever, 2 of fracture of skull, 2 of hemorrhage of lungs, 3 of heart disease, 1 of enlargement of heart, 1 of inflammation of brain, 1 of insanity, 1 accidentally killed, 1 of lockjaw, 2 of old age, 1 of paralysis, 6 of pneumonia, 2 of typhoid pneumonia, 1 of rheumatism, 10 stillborn, and 1 of gunshot wounds. Nineteen were interred from public institutions, and twenty on certificates of Coroners.

THEY HAVE COME AGAIN.—Lizzie Owens and Sarah Jane, a part of whose record we published last week, were arrested once more Sunday night; same old charge—robbery. Titus Reiber, a man unused to the depravity of Dryades street, was induced to enter their den, when they robbed him of fifty dollars, a pistol, and a bank-book good for three thousand dollars. The victim walked off as if quite satisfied that he was served right, but he soon made his complaint to Special Officer Malone, who proceeded to the house, where he found a portion of the money on Lizzie, and the pistol in a trunk. The bank-book is lost. Louisa Henderson, Caroline Simmons and Marie Louise were also arrested as implicated in the robbery. This will perhaps prove the last of these creatures for about six months.

A VAGRANT ACT IN FORCE.—Governor Warmoth yesterday signed "An act relative to vagrants," No. 99. All who are curious to read it will find the law promulgated in another portion of to-day's issue. The law is comprehensive, and is regarded as just the thing needed. The Workhouse will now thrive or else our population will decrease. St. Charles street sharpers, and all persons of bad repute should peruse this document with great care—they will be deeply interested.

REPORTED BRUTALITY OF A PATROLMAN.—A Man Badly Beaten in the Third Precinct.—Between seven and eight o'clock Sunday evening a large number of people assembled at the corner of Royal and Toulouse streets, congregated around the apparently lifeless form of a man, who was bleeding freely. The statement is that special patrolman L. Rainey, having arrested a man and taken him to the Jackson square station, was there instructed to take him to the Charity Hospital, as he was suffering from bruises. The officer departed with the man, and had got to the locality named when the difficulty occurred. Several citizens state that they saw the officer clubbing the poor fellow without mercy. Rainey was then taken to his station, and a narration of the affair made. Sergeant Butler ordered the man back to his beat. By this time a physician had examined the wounded man and thought his skull was fractured. He was sent to the Charity Hospital. Half a dozen gentlemen handed in their names as witnesses, and they intend to prosecute the officer in any event.

EXPLOSIVE ACCIDENTS.—The free use of fireworks and fire-arms, on Saturday Sunday and Sunday, could not but result in some accidents.

Losses Paid—
On Fire risks.....
On Marine risks.....
On River risks.....

Taxes.....
Reinsurances and Premiums.....

Ally, a lad, Third District, lacerated his hand with powder so badly that it was necessary to amputate one finger.

Henry Queen's eye was nearly put out by some fire-poppers, at the corner of Julia and Magazine streets.

There were many other accidents from the use of explosives.

There is some consolation in knowing who did not perpetrate the Camp street robbery. The men now in the Parish Prison on the Rochereau burglary are easy in their minds, for they are above suspicion in this.

MALICIOUS.—Soon after dark Saturday evening flames were discovered in an unoccupied house, at or near the corner of Live Oak and Constantinople streets, Sixth District. The building is owned by John Weber. The fire was readily extinguished. On the following morning another attempt was made to burn the tenement, but the attempt was not successful. Coal oil had been poured on the wall and floor. There is no insurance.

THE NEW GRAND JURY.—The following Grand Jury, to serve for January, February and March, was empanelled: Isaac Randolph, foreman; Thos. Dailey, James T. DeMahy, P. O. Devezi, Nic. Mellinger, Joseph Drouet, P. Coffey, B. Welleing, W. T. Healy, J. A. Lemaitre, Henry Brown, Robert Smith, Julien Gabriel, Joseph Lanoix, Jules Domingo, A. Tervallon.

THE PISTOL.—A few minutes after ten o'clock Sunday morning, a man named Cayetana Roussa, while standing on Old Levee street, was shot in the right breast by an unknown man, who escaped. The ball came out back of the right shoulder. The sufferer was conveyed to the drug store at the corner of Main and Chartres streets, where his wounds were dressed, and he was afterward sent to his residence on Old Levee street, between Main and St. Philip. A man named Belleda Vincenzo was arrested, charged with concealing the pistol with which the shot was fired.

THE KNIFE.—Just before seven o'clock Sunday evening two men engaged in a fracas at the corner of Elysian Fields and Old Levee streets, and one of them was so badly used up that he was unable to tell his name. The other escaped.

A POCKET PICKED OF TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.—Mrs. Bell, recently from the country, was in Poydras Market making some purchases. She had $2500 in her pocket, as she was afraid to leave the money at home, fearing that thieves would break in and steal. Some one must have been aware of the fact that she carried so much treasure, for when she was about to pay a bill, she discovered that some one had been there before her and stolen the entire roll.

A queerly inclined person set fire to the spectators' stand on the Fair Grounds yesterday, perhaps thinking to thereby hereafter save the lives of several persons. The woodwork was old and rotten. Only a portion was destroyed.

Sergeant Skerrett was arrested in the seventh precinct, charged with attempting to take the life of Mr. P. Sheehy, telegraph operator in the station. The Sergeant wounded himself accidentally, with his pistol, last week.

A. S. Badger, Superintendent of the police of New Orleans, is at the Galt House, en route to New York on business.

This bit of news we found in the Louisville Commercial of last Saturday. As we saw the gentleman on that day, the day following and yesterday, we are inclined to think that the above statement is incorrect in two instances, namely, that he is not en route for New York, and that he is not in the Galt House. Otherwise the paragraph may be correct.

The alarm of fire given at three o'clock last evening was caused by the burning of some grass, in the yard of No. 167 Josephine street. Boys had been firing off poppers. Had not the firemen arrived promptly, a terrible conflagration would have taken place.

Fred Stanton, cardriver, was arrested for running his car over a lad, at the corner of Canal and Dryades streets.

A SHARK.—Daniel Blacher was arrested last evening, charged with stealing a diamond pin worth one hundred and fifty dollars, from Mr. Keefe, Claiborne street.

ELECTION BY FIREMEN'S CHARITABLE ASSOCIATION.—The annual election held by this body resulted as follows: I. N. Marks, president; G. H. Braughn, vice-president; Alfred Bellanger, treasurer; C. Flanagan, secretary; Thomas O'Connor, chief engineer; John Brugnions, first assistant engineer; Paul Lacour, second assistant engineer; William Swan, third assistant engineer; Isaac Glidewell, fourth assistant engineer; I. N. Marks, Frank Rawle, Michael Lardner, William Manning, G. H. Braughn, board of commissioners.

FIRE ALARMS LAST NIGHT.—The alarm sounded at three minutes past ten o'clock was turned in by a policeman, who saw a bright light across the river, just above Algiers, caused by the burning of the steamboat Travis Wright.

The alarm at twenty-three minutes past ten o'clock was sent from No. 18½ house, on Thalia street, and was unnecessary.

That makes eight alarms sounded in two days, one a general alarm. A good beginning for the new year, and if continued many days will wear out our firemen and their machines.

S. W. M.—The annual meeting of the Grand Conclave of this State was held last night at Ætna Hall. Twenty-six conclaves were represented. The following named officers were elected and installed for this year:

Grand Archon—A. J. Lewis, of Crescent Conclave No. 13.

Grand Chancellor—V. Grosjean, of Aurora 14.

Grand Provost—J. B. Williams, of Ætna 15.

Grand Scribe—J. H. Hardy, of Gem 22.

Grand Financial Scribe—James Butler, of Washington 20.

Grand Treasurer—H. P. Walker, of Oliver 16.

Grand Inspector General—O. S. Babcock, of Gem 22.

Grand Prelate—M. A. Calongne, of Ionia 11.

Grand Guide—Auguste Weil, of Deborah 25.

Grand Guard of the T.—David Spingler, of Schiller 6.

Grand Archon William Woelper, presiding, read his annual report, showing the order to be in a flourishing condition throughout Louisiana.

He recommended the erection of a temple in some central location in this city.

The subject of a public celebration on the eleventh of April, the nineteenth anniversary, was discussed.

A charter for a new conclave in New Iberia was granted.

EXCESSIVE COLD IN THE PARISH OF ST. BERNARD—A Hunter Frozen to Death.—News from our neighboring parish is unpleasant. On the twenty-sixth ultimo Jose Roberts, a native of the parish, returning from a hunting expedition, was about to land at his home when he slipped, his pirouge capsized and he fell into the water, expiring almost instantly from excessive cold.

Fish in the interior bayous rose to the surface frozen to death, and were gathered up by wagon loads, many of them brought to this market, and were of fine flavor. This has not occurred before in twenty years.

The orange trees near the river do not appear to be particularly injured.

The sweet potato crop is a complete failure, as an insect nearly ruined it, and the remainder was frozen.

As a consequence the poorer class of people must suffer. Indeed, destitution is already visible.

Many of the principal planters are grinding, and are greatly pleased with the quality of the sugar and molasses. In several instances cane which had been frozen turned out a fair quality of sugar, contrary to all expectations and previous supposition.

THE FOURTH WARD SCHOOLS—We learn from the members of the Fourth Ward School Board that they will not assume control of the schools in their ward for the present, nor make any appointments of teachers. The board prefers to wait until the questions connected with the subject shall have been definitively settled, either by the enactment of a new law, or by a decision under the old one by the Supreme Court.

This decision of the board will leave matters in the Fourth Ward just as they were at the close of the schools.

MEDICAL.

Burning ALBERS,

Last night, a [illegible] STERATO STREET were illumined wi[illegible] Pontoulas Street, ingly large conflagratio[illegible] rang loud and long, and [illegible] from a farm telegraph gave warning from the corner of Levee and Julia streets. This led many to believe that another fire had broken out among the river tonnage, and hundreds hurried to the wharf to witness the scene. However, the fire was limited to one steamer, the Travis Wright, which was lying at Algiers, waiting for business. The Wright was a sternwheel steamer, about fourteen months old, and was valued at about $15,000. She was built for the lower tributary trade, and was owned in this city. Her ownership nor her insurance we can not positively state, but we suppose she was insured in home offices for nearly one-half her value.

It is not yet known how the fire originated. The upper works of the boat were consumed, but the hull was uninjured, except the larboard bow was slightly burned. The fire was soon overcome by the pump tug Tyler, the Nellie Ward and the Fern, which all went to the rescue. The steamer Arkansas and the John Kyle were lying near the burning boat, but were saved by the exertions of the Tyler and the two other boats.

The police reports, at one o'clock this morning, that the Travis Wright was burned to the water's edge. No particulars as to the cause of the fire, amount of loss or insurance could be obtained.

OUR NATIONAL GAME.

Montgomery vs. Lone Star—A Victory for the Stars—Score Twenty-nine to Twelve.

The Montgomery Club made its first appearance in this city Sunday, at the Park, the occasion being their return game with our own Lone Stars. About one thousand persons witnessed the contest, which, although showing some first-class play, yet exhibited many errors on either side. From the start it was apparent that our visitors were destined to suffer defeat, the score at the end of the fourth inning standing twenty to seven in favor of the Stars, and they gradually increased their lead until the close, scoring the handsome victory of twenty-nine to twelve. Had the chances been taken which were offered, the figures would have been eight to one. The umpiring was first-class. The following is a detailed report of the game:

FIRST INNINGS.

Montgomery—Wentworth was the first to face Leonard, and not liking the pitching, trotted to first on three balls; Owens met an early death at first; Benton sent Redon a fly, and rested; Winters struck out—whitewash.

Stars—Condon quickly opened play by going out on foul fly; Wright hit a corker for three bags; Oby took first on muff; Wright home; Barnes died at first; Tracy hit for one base, sending Oby home; Leonard took a life on muff; Tracy in; Redon perished at first—three runs.

SECOND INNINGS.

Montgomery—Brady made three strikes, and took first on slow handling by Barnes, but was put out stealing to third; Reignolds captured at first; Murphy struck out—whitewash number two.

Stars—Tebault to first on wild throw; Scott ditto on three balls; another wild throw sent Tebault in; Condon made safe hit, bringing Scott home; Wright out at first; Oby took one base on safe hit; Condon in; Barnes again a victim at first; Tracy got a bag on muff; Oby home; Leonard a life on a muff, but was run out by Winters; Tracy scoring—five runs.

THIRD INNINGS.

Montgomery—Three balls sent Holt to first; Walker out at first; Holt getting home on passed ball; Wentworth and Owens victims to Barnes on foul bound—one run.

Stars—Redon made safe hit; Tebault vicitimized by Walker; passed ball gave Redon his run; Scott took one bag on muff, but was out stealing home; Condon hit well, but was caught napping—one run.

FOURTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Benton a prey to Condon; Winters earned one base, and came home on a wild throw; Brady sent Condon a fly, which was not taken; Oby did the same thing for a fly from Reignolds—wild throws gave both players their runs; Murphy hit well for one base; Holt gave Tracy a chance to fly him, and lived. Murphy coming home; Holt in on passed ball. Walker to base on three balls; Wentworth slaughtered by Condon, Walker getting in; Owens flied by Oby—six runs.

Stars—Wright to first on poor throw; Oby to first on three balls; Barnes, in luck, took first on poor throw; Wright in; Tracy and Leonard followed with fine hits for two bases each, Oby, Barnes and Tracy scoring; Redon earned one bag; Leonard home; Tebault flied by Wentworth; Scott hit a corker for two bases, bringing Redon home; Condon and Wright followed with safe hits; Scott in; Oby struck three times, and took first on wild throw, Condon and Wright tallying; Barnes again a victim at first; Tracy, by a fine crack, cleared two bags, sending Oby in, and coming in himself on overthrow; Leonard hit safely, but was left as Redon was sacrificed at first—eleven runs.

FIFTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Benton out on foul bound to Barnes. Winters flied by Wright. Brady to first on three balls. Reignolds to first on muff by Oby. Murphy out at first—whitewash.

Stars—Tebault out on called strikes. Scott hit a heavy one for three bases and came home on two base hit by Condon. Wright to first on three balls, but was caught napping. Oby struck out—one run.

SIXTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Holt, Walker and Wentworth all fell victims to Condon at first—no runs.

Stars—Barnes, out of luck, also out at first; Tracy earned one bag; Leonard flied by Murphy; Redon sent Tracy home by a fine two base hit, but was himself left; Tebault being taken on the fly by Winters; a fine catch—one run.

SEVENTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Owens struck to Leonard, and was run out; Benton struck three times, and run out by Barnes; Winters flied by Tracy—goose egg number five.

Stars—Scott to base on poor stop by Winters; Condon to first on three balls; Wright by a fine two base drive, sent Scott and Condon home; Oby earned one bag, sending Wright in, but was forced out at second by Barnes, who came home on good hit by Tracy; Leonard muffed by Owens, but caught napping at first; Redon died at first—four runs.

EIGHTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Brady captured by Condon. Reignolds to first on three balls; wild pitch sent him in. Murphy held his base on poor throw by Tracy. Holt out on called strikes. Passed ball gave Murphy his run. Walker a victim to Condon—two runs.

Stars—Tebault, having struck his bad day, struck out. Scott to first on error, getting in on wild pitch. Condon and Wright were immolated at first—one run.

NINTH INNINGS.

Montgomery—Wentworth out on fly to Oby; Owens earned one base. Benton met his fate at first. Winters, by a good hit, brought Owens home. Tracy's wild throw gave Brady his first, and let Winters in. Reignolds hit well, sending Brady home, but was himself put out stealing third—three runs.

Stars—Oby led off with a stunner for three bases. Barnes again a victim, this time on the fly to Walker. Tracy served in the same manner by Reignolds. Leonard to first on good hit. Oby in. Redon sent Leonard home by safe hit, but was out stealing home—two runs.

The following is the score:

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Montgomery.....	0	0	1	6	0	0	0	2	3	12
Stars.....	3	5	1	11	1	1	4	1	2	29

MISCELLANEOUS.

A. E. BRUNSON, [illegible] Paer's opera, in one act, "Chapelle," and "Le Chalet," one act, by Adam. The entertainment will conclude with a vaudeville [illegible] act, "Les Fortaits de Pipermans." [illegible] Having [illegible] ance. Nets for the opera can be obtained at Grunewald's music store, No. 129 Canal street.

St. Charles Theatre.

The popular burlesque of "Sindbad, the Sailor," which drew crowded houses Sunday evening and last evening, will be repeated this evening, with the following cast: W. B. Cahill as Sindbad; Minnie Walton as Koh-i-noor; M. W. Fiske as Ali; Miss Kelsey as Hazé; Miss Heathcote as Selim; Miss Arnott as The Sultan; Miss Wheatleigh as Alaska, and J. W. Buntone as The Gory Pirate.

Academy of Music.

The new play of "Ixion," is handsomely produced at the Academy of Music, and proves to be more popular than ever. It is one of the best burlesques that has ever been brought out in this city, and can not fail to attract good houses. The Olio entertainment which opens the evening, is sparkling, brilliant and laughable.

Masonic Hall.

Mrs. Marie Wilkins, late of the Varieties theatre, and so unfortunately thrown out of her engagement for the season by the destruction of the Varieties, will give another select reading at the Masonic Hall next Thursday evening. It need not be concealed that Mrs. Wilkins was left almost penniless by the disastrous conflagration, and that a large audience Thursday evening will gladden her heart, and confer a real benefit on a talented and meritorious lady.

Lyceum Hall.

Last evening Lyceum Hall was crowded by our citizens to pay their respects to Bulford's Panorama of New York City. It is well worthy of the liberal patronage it is receiving. We are glad to see it attracting such overflowing houses. It also shows that our citizens patronize liberally works of real merit. It is truly a magnificent affair, and well worth the price of admission. Everything is represented to the life, and any person at all acquainted in New York city will readily recognize objects of interest as they pass in review before him. The lecturer has a happy faculty of pleasing his audience in his delineation of character and transpiring events, and his inimitable style of relating anecdotes is of itself worth hearing. Our readers will miss a rare treat if they fail to attend.

The panorama exhibits every day and night this week at two and half-past seven o'clock.

Marine Hospital at Louisville.

Dr. T. J. Griffiths, surgeon in charge of the United States marine hospital at Louisville, transmits to us the following report for the month of November last:

Number of patients remaining last day of November—Whites, 51; colored, 44. Total, 95.

Admitted during the month—Whites, 81; colored, 46. Total, 130.

Number of patients remaining and admitted, 225.

Discharged during the month—Whites, 60; colored, 33. Total, 93.

Died during the month—Whites, 3; colored, 2. Total, 5.

Remaining on the last day of the month—Whites, 77; colored, 50. Total, 127.

Dr. Griffiths furnishes the public with these points of information, which are especially interesting to those who are employed on river steamers:

Every person, white or colored, who is employed in the navigation of the river, or lake, or sea, when disabled from any cause and rendered unfit for duty, is entitled to care and treatment in a United States marine hospital, free of charge. To gain an entrance into the hospital, it is only necessary that such seaman shall have a certificate of his occupation from the officer of the boat on which he is employed, or any other proof of his occupation. This certificate, presented to the surveyor of the port, will insure his admission into the hospital until fit for duty.

Foreign Commerce of the Principal Nations.

Joseph Nimmo, Jr., Chief of the Tonnage Division of the Treasury Department, has prepared an illustrated chart graphically representing the foreign commerce of the twenty principal nations of the globe. It gives the total of both imports and exports, together with the relative percentage of each nation's trade to the aggregate for the year 1869, as follows:

Great Britain.....	$2,577,180,286
France.....	1,471,051,040
United States.....	921,606,829
Hanse Towns.....	571,832,858
Holland.....	508,339,532
Italy.....	316,923,360
Russia.....	301,711,070
Austria.....	276,502,128
Belgium.....	267,314,617
Brazil.....	160,688,721
Spain.....	139,318,939
Prussia.....	65,752,628
Sweden.....	57,107,662
Chile.....	48,317,072
Argentine Republic.....	38,433,399
Portugal.....	18,211,564
Greece.....	16,125,385
San Salvador.....	4,194,266
Guatemala.....	3,755,246
Costa Rica.....	3,343,277

From the above it will be seen that the percentage of Great Britain is one-third of the entire amount, France about one-fifth and the United States one-ninth.

That old and popular salt house at the corner of Gravier and Tchoupitoulas streets, Messrs. Jackson & Anderson, it will be observed upon reading the advertisement, published in another column, has undergone no change in name by the retiracy of their former senior, as Mr. David Jackson, long identified with the house, continues in the firm. In the years long past and up to the present this house stood in the front rank, and we feel assured that it will continue to hold its own so long as commercial integrity and business talents can retain such a place.

Spotted Like Dominoes.—The teeth soon become speckled if every dentifrice is not removed from them every twenty-four hours. To do this effectually, there is nothing like Sozodont. It literally renders the enamel impervious and indestructible.

For Sergeant-at-Arms—Mr. Jefferson Stokes, the polite and efficient chief porter of the House of Representatives, is announced as a candidate for the office of Sergeant at Arms of the new House. Mr. Stokes has served faithfully and gratuitously filled with satisfaction the office of Sergeant at Arms to the several parish and State conventions which have assembled in the city since 1868. He has also, without pay, served the various Republican committees which have from time to time met in the Mechanics' Institute. His uniform, kind and obliging disposition has secured for him a large circle of friends, and perhaps there could be no more appropriate recognition of appreciation of his services than by electing him Sergeant-at-Arms of the new House. We commend him to the consideration of the House. de31 4t
