DR. WHITE IS CALLED TO PASTORATE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HERE

HAS BEEN PASTOR OF ATLANTA CHURCH FOR MANY YEARS

HAS RESIGNED ATLANTA PULPIT

Committee Hopes to Have Eminent Divine's Acceptance by Next Sunday.

The Rev. John E. White, D. D. pastor of the Second Baptist church of Atlanta, Ga., was extended a unanimous call Sunday morning by the congregation of the First Baptist church to succeed as their pastor.

DR. JOHN E. WHITE Who has resigned the pastorate of the Second Baptist church of Atlanta to accept the pastorate of the First Baptist church of this city.

congregation that a special committee go to Atlanta to consult with Dr. White, and this committee, consisting of Messrs. Charles Sullivan, J. A. Brock and D. A. Ledbetter, called on him last week and were delighted when they learned that he looked well favor upon the call.

After the sermon Sunday morning Dr. Vines suggested that Mr. C. B. Earle come forward and take charge of the meeting. Many insisted that Dr. Vines remain and preside but he again stated that he thought it would be best for him to retire and he was allowed to do so.

The meeting Sunday morning Dr. Vines suggested that Mr. C. B. Earle come forward and take charge of the meeting. Many insisted that Dr. Vines remain and preside but he again stated that he thought it would be best for him to retire and he was allowed to do so.

Who Mr. Sullivan had concluded the report Mr. Thomas Allen moved that the report be accepted and that the committee be directed to invite Dr. White under the terms outlined in the report. The motion was seconded by Dr. A. L. Smethers. Mr. Brock, a member of the sub-committee, explained Dr. White's situation in Atlanta, and explained why it was necessary to give him until September 1st to make his arrangements to come to Anderson.

John Ellington White, born December 19, 1858, in Clayton, N. C., a few miles from the city of Raleigh. His father was a well-known Baptist minister and teacher, and his mother was of the prominent family of Ellingtons in that State. He was educated at Wake Forest College, studied law, and entered the ministry in 1883. He held short pastorates in Wilson and Edenton, N. C., in 1885, at the age of twenty-four, he was elected a leader of the North Carolina Baptists to succeed Dr. Columbus Durrum, who had died. For five years Dr. White was an aggressive force in North Carolina and was known from one end of the State to the other. In 1909 he was called to the Second Baptist church, Atlanta, Ga., where he has been for fifteen years in a great pastorate, during which more than twenty-five hundred people have been received into this church and $300,000 contributed to its work.

In 1892 Dr. White was married to Miss Effie Guess, of Carey, N. C.; daughter of the well-known railroad official, Capt. H. P. Guess, now residing in Cheraw, S. C.

At the conclusion of his sermon Sunday morning, Dr. John E. White read his resignation to the Second Baptist church.

It came as a great shock to his congregation, as his church is thoroughly devoted to him. The city of Atlanta, respectively of church connections, has known him and honored him for years.

Some of the leading citizens of Atlanta are prominent in its membership as follows: Ex-Governor Joseph M. Brown, Judge George Hillyer, Judge B. D. Evans, Judge W. D. Ellis, F. J. Paxon, Henry Durand, Boykin Turman, Dr. E. L. Connally, Dr. William Hurd Hillyer, F. J. Day, E. L. Harling, Walker W. Brooks, George S. Lowndes, Charles A. Smith, James T. Wright, John S. Spalding, H. M. L. Brittain and others.

Dr. White is the fourth pastor of the church he has had in fifty years. It is a church of long pastorate.

Dr. White became pastor of the Second Baptist church January 1, 1901, succeeding Dr. Henry McDonald, who had held the pastorate for nineteen years. During Dr. White's pastorate the church has grown greatly in membership and in organized activities in the city of Atlanta.

Under Dr. White's leadership, more than 2,500 people have been received into its membership, and more than $300,000 has been raised for all purposes in the church. He has been a leader in Atlanta and Georgia in aggressive reforms, but with sympathy and kindness toward those who differ from his advanced views of reform.

Dr. White is on many boards of his own denominational and inter-denominational organizations. He is trustee of the Southern Seminary at Louisville, Ky., and the home mission board; trustee of Mercer University and Morehouse college; trustee of the Georgia Baptist hospital and Orphan's home, director Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Associated Charities; chairman of the Atlanta Baptist association committee and home mission committee directing the Baptist schools in the mountains of the south; trustee of the Georgia State sanitarium at Milledgeville; president of American Inter-church College for Training Social Workers, at Nashville, Tenn.; first vice president of the Southern Sociological congress; life member of the International Sunday School association; member of the Ten Club of Atlanta and other societies of religious and literary purpose. He is one of the publicity committee of five that has prepared the Men and Religion bulletins.

He goes to a great church in Anderson, S. C., with 1,400 members, in a city of 15,000 people, being the only large Baptist church in the city. The American church contributes $1,000 annually to home and foreign missions.

Dr. White said last night that he would devote himself to his study and pulpit and to waiting in his new charge, where he will be freed from the multiplicity of engagements in which his position here involved him.

He said, laughingly, "All the cynics that I am going to Anderson because the salary is smaller than in Atlanta." The information is that Dr. White's salary in the Anderson church is $500 a year. His salary at the Second Baptist church was $5,000 a year.

His resignation came as a surprise and a shock yesterday morning. Two people were overcome by tears. Walter Dunson, Judge W. D. Ellis and others made earnest appeals protesting against Dr. White's leaving Atlanta. On motion, the whole congrega-

Keep the Children Bright and Happy

Happy youngsters must be healthy. The digestive organs of children get out of order as readily as do those of their elders, and the result is equally distressing.

The next time your child is cross and unhappy without apparent reason, try giving it a mild laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild, pleasant tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, and is especially recommended for children because of its freedom from all opiate or narcotic drugs and its gentle action.

Dr. White's Resignation. Dr. White's written resignation follows: "To the Members of the Second Baptist Church: Dear Brethren and Sisters—I have long contemplated that the period of fifteen years might mark the conclusion of my pastorate of the Second Baptist church. I am now led to anticipate this measure of service as your pastor by a few months, and therefore I present to you my resignation to take effect September 1, 1915. I have given honorable assurance that I would assume the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Anderson, S. C., on that date.

"This will afford you ample time without emergency to take the proper steps in securing my successor here. "Only a very deep conviction that this is the will of God for me and this church could have been powerful enough to overcome the resistance of my own heart, my wife's, and yours, to the separation it involves. On account of this strong conviction of what I ought to do I have not felt able to confer with any brother or friend whatever, seeking counsel for my course. I regret this and that my resignation must come as a surprise to all.

"At another time I shall try to tell you how grateful I am for what you have been to me, and of what this church has meant to my life. I will give you also the considerations which have moved me to the clear conviction that this course was the path of my duty. Now I will only say that I am leaving the Second Baptist church, the city of Atlanta, and the state of Georgia in the comfort and the pain of believing that nobody wants me to go. You will let me abide, I beg, in your hearts alone with Dr. Brantley, Dr. Spalding and Dr. McDonald, as you do in your great work under the One Master, who never leaves but ever leads you. I ask that my resignation be referred to the deacons or other committee for such form of motion, accepting the same as the church may later desire to adopt."

Mr. Clement C. Hall, Anderson County Boy, to Serve as Local Reporter.

Mr. Clement C. Hall, an Anderson county boy, son of Mr. Milford A. Hall, of Iva, has joined the staff of The Intelligencer as local reporter.

He comes to the paper well prepared to carry on his work. He finished at the Anderson High school, class of 1908, after which he attended Wofford college for two years. After teaching for a year, he returned to college, attending Trinity college, Duham, N. C., for two years.

After his college course Mr. Hall went to Aiken, where he was connected with the Aiken Journal and Review, one of the newspapers of that town. After serving that paper for some time he resigned and accepted work as Aiken correspondent for a number of New York papers, reporting the "doings" of the millionaire tourist colony who annually infest the town of Aiken. Mr. Hall served as correspondent for The New York Times, the New York Herald, The Spur Magazine, and Town and Country magazine.

The coming of Mr. Hall to The Intelligencer adds the second Anderson boy to the paper, and in this respect this is a fortunate for the publication, as it is a custom with papers generally to have as many of the local staff as possible "home" boys, as they are familiar with the customs and traditions of the community, know the people and are known by the people to a greater extent than a stranger could hope to be under quite a while.

Mr. Hall is a bright and affable young and ambitious to succeed in his chosen work, and any courtesies or assistance extended him will be appreciated both by himself and The Intelligencer.
