Monetary--Commercial.

MONETARY.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN, TUESDAY EVENING, November 28, 1871.

The money market proper is without any quotable change. There is a good healthy demand for accommodations at bank, but, as most of the approved paper is taken, very little is left for negotiation on the street. We quote street rates at 10@12 per cent per annum for all notes with unquestionable collaterals, and 12@15 for second grade. 11@12 per cent per annum for first class business paper, without collaterals, and 15 for second grade. Mortgage paper rules at 10 per cent per annum for A1 and 12@15 for second grade.

Gold opened at 110⅞@111¼ (against 110⅞ at New York) and closed at 111@111⅛ (against 110⅞). The demand was quite active, and with somewhat of a pressure for cash gold, the market closed relatively stiffer than New York. The sales included $3000 at 110⅞; $2000, $5000 and $7500 at 111; $2000, $5000, $10 000, $10,000 and $13,000 at 111¼; $30,000 at 111⅛@111⅜, and $2000, $2500 and $10,000 at 111⅜. The United States sub-treasury offered $50,000 at 111⅛, but the New York market declining shortly after, it did not sell. Yesterday, not reported, the government sold $60,000 at 111⅛.

In silver $500 in American half dollars sold at 109¾. We quote these at 109½@109¾. Mexican dollars are nominal.

Foreign exchange was quite active, the sales of sterling aggregating up £65,000, of which £20,000 clear at 119⅞; £2500 bill of lading and £2500 clear at 119½; £1300 bill of lading at 119⅞@119¾; £2000 and £4000 bill of lading at 119⅝; £1300, £2000, £3000 and £3500 A1 clear and £10,000 A1 bill of lading and clear at 119¾; £3000 A1 bill of lading and clear at 119⅞@119⅞; £1300 A1 clear at 119⅞, and £1000 ship's bill, £1000 A1 bill of lading and £2500 A1 clear at 120.

Operations in francs embraced 325,000 commercial, including 125,000 (bill of lading) at 4.91⅛, and 200,000 at 4.90@4.89¾. We quote sterling at 119½@119¾ for good to A1 bill of lading and clear, and —@120½ for bank.

Domestic exchange was firmer. The banks drew on New York for remittance at ⅛ per cent discount, and the sales included $30,000 private bankers' New York sight at ⅛ discount; $40,000 bank at 5 16@⅜; $30,000 commercial, $19,000 $20,000 and $25,000 private bankers' and $35,000 bank at ⅜, and $12,000 on Providence at ⅜.

The bank remittance rate for New York gold checks is ⅛ per cent discount.

The movement in stocks included the following: 25 shares Ammonia Propelling Company at $19 50, 20 and 50 New Orleans National Banking Association at $96 50; 100 Louisiana Levee at $2 75; 100 do at $2 87½, and at auction (by G. de Ferriet, auctioneer), 1 State National Bank at $101; 20 New Orleans Gaslight Company at $147; 24 do at $147 25; 100 New Orleans National Banking Association at $96 75, and 47 City Railroad at $175.
