THE PEOPLE'S PARISH CONVENTION.

Pursuant to call, this body convened yesterday at eleven o'clock at Lyceum Hall. Colonel J. D. Hill called the meeting to order, stating that the convention was ready for permanent organization, and nominated W. C. Raymond, Esq., for president, and called upon Messrs. Schneider, Keller and Hinck to escort him to the chair.

Mr. Raymond, on assuming the chair, made a few brief remarks, stating that this was a position he had not sought, but still it had been forced upon him. My purpose is, he said, as the chairman of this convention, to preside over these deliberations in such a manner as shall be creditable to ourselves, and result, as far as my efforts can, to secure to them a happy issue.

It, perhaps, devolves upon me to say how it is that this convention has been called. Its origin springs from a combination of circumstances. I may say that perhaps that which brought forth this convention, that which was the strongest motive for us to act in this capacity, was that as the Reform party and as the Reform Parish Executive Committee, in our efforts to secure the fusion of all political parties of the city of New Orleans in the nomination of candidates for office there were apparently insuperable obstacles.

I think I can speak on behalf of the gentlemen representing the Reform party in that convention—or rather in that convention of fusion committees—that our efforts were directed solely to one leading purpose, and that was to present to our fellow-citizens in New Orleans candidates for office against whom not a breath of suspicion would lie—men whose characters were unimpeachable; men whose proclivities were such that every man could say, as his name appeared before the community as a candidate, that is an honest and true man. Our next purpose was that we wanted competent men.

We failed in these efforts to secure fusion. There were several reasons why. It became known to us as members of the parish executive committee that the other two leading political parties of the city were about to call conventions for themselves. We then thought that without referring to the old form and party manner of selecting delegates, that the best way for us to give expression to public sentiment was to go out in the wards of the city of New Orleans and call you, gentlemen, as the representative men of the city unpledged to party, men whose purposes and interests demand that the representatives that you might select as your standard bearers before the people would be such that the whole people would accept as honorable and capable men.

Now, I refer this whole subject to the solemn and clear position of our fellow-citizens. I would ask if we have not acted in such a manner as to bring together the representative elements of the city of New Orleans. You stand in this convention occupying that position from all classes of society, from all trades and positions. You sit here as the representatives of your fellow-citizens from the different wards, and to you is now committed the great question of the selection of candidates for office as to present a ticket to the people in such a manner as that they may recognize in it a strength and moral force which even the other political parties can not gainsay, and I may hope can not even resist.

Our purpose will be to take candidates from all the parties, and we claim here to put our hands upon the best men of every party, and say that he shall be our standard bearer; and when we claim that right as fellow-citizens, honestly impressed with the purpose which is above our party, we demand that those we nominate as candidates shall serve the people of New Orleans in the high object we have in view—that of rescuing New Orleans from the incubus and curse of bad government.

Mr. Raymond announced the convention ready for business.

Mr. A. W. Stewart was chosen secretary of the convention, and Mr. Theobald Forstall assistant secretary.

A list of delegates was called, as prepared by the parish executive committee, as follows:

First ward—W. C. Black, John T. Moore, N. A. Baumgarden, N. Burke, S. K. Russ, J. H. Burmeister, J. B. Fox.

Second ward—John Geddes, Perry Nugent, Jacob Ott, Thomas Woodin, W. W. Carre, W. D. Weaver, W. W. Walker, P. Farley, Alexander McNeil.

Third ward—J. D. Hill, William Hart, S. A. Gilmore, G. Townsend, J. C. O'Hara, W. T. Brown, Dr. A. Mercier, P. A. Finney, A. Chapsky, George Doll, Thomas Egan, B. S. Twitchell.

Fourth ward—Jules Aldige, Louis Dufilho, Dr. R. A. Porter, Jacob Van Winkle, M. Berwin.

Fifth ward—V. Benit, E. Rousset, P. F. Schneider, W. T. Fry, R. M. Davis, Ernest Miltenberger, H. Gilly, B. Nautre, J. J. Tormey.

Sixth ward—Louis Barnett, John T. Pollock, George Bupre, Edgar Hincks, F. A. Gonzales, Valentine Seher.

Seventh ward—S. Maxwell, C. Gouzy, H. Chiapella, A. D. Saucier, J. E. Michel, Arthur Garic.

Eighth ward—James Phillips, E. D. White, Aug. Stuart, George F. Bartley, Charles Zeigler.

Ninth ward—Edward Sweeney, M. E. Garvey, W. C. Raymond, B. Onorate, A. Laine, J. Albrecht.

Tenth ward—H. S. Buckner, Charles B. Singleton, Patrick Coyle, J. H. Keller, Wash. Marks, Louis Schneider, James Keating, Ed. Conery, Sr., Ed. Meagher.

Eleventh ward—Robert Huyghe, Richard Flower, Alfred Moulton, Walter G. Robinson, J. William Davis, Charles Kummell.

Twelfth ward—Frederick Wintz, Theobald Forstall, J. T. Aycock.

Thirteenth ward—D. A. Blanchard, C. F. Buck.

Fourteenth ward—E. Sullivan, F. Ernest.

Fifteenth ward—J. O. McLean.

Nearly all of these gentlemen answered to their names.

On motion of Mr. Davis, R. B. Foreman was admitted as proxy for Alfred Moulton, of the eleventh ward.

The president declared the meeting organized and ready for business.

Mr. C. B. Singleton announced that a committee from the bar was present with a report, which they desired to submit to this meeting, and moved that a committee be appointed to escort them to the stand.

The motion was carried, and Messrs. Singleton and Hill appointed said committee.

These gentlemen retired, but shortly returned, escorting the bar committee, James Brewer, Esq., chairman.

Mr. Brewer was introduced to the convention, and in a few brief remarks explained the purpose of the recent meeting of the bar. In conclusion, he handed to the president a copy of the Picayune, containing a list of the nominations made at that meeting.

The committee then withdrew.

Mr. Aycock moved to go into nomination of Mayor, but a motion that a committee of five on platform and resolutions took precedence.

The chair announced Messrs. Foreman, Gilmore, Aldidge, Hincks, Garvey and Aycock as the committee.

A motion that the convention go into a nomination for city officers prevailed.

The secretary was requested to read a list of candidates prepared on the preceding evening, with a view of having other names added thereto that any delegate might suggest.

Upon calling the names of candidates for the nomination for Mayor, Mr. W. Marks moved to close nominations and proceed to a ballot.

Mr. J. D. Hill opposed this motion, desiring that all the nominations should be first made before any names were finally agreed upon, to afford a proper interval for the interchange of opinion, and upon his motion, after some debate, Mr. Marks' motion was laid on the table.

The list was then announced as follows:

For Mayor—C. J. Leeds, Hugh McCloskey, J. Ad. Rozier, John G. Fleming, Louis Schneider, J. F. Sturcken, J. C. Van Winckle, M. B. Brady, Chris. Mehle, J. C. Denis, George G. Garner, N. E. Bailey, Louis A. Wiltz, T. S. Williams, B. Biscoe, I. H. Stauffer.

For Clerk of the Eighth District Court—Judge Thomas H. Kennedy, Joseph D. Taylor, S. Jamison, Jr., J. R. A. Gauthreaux.

On motion of Mr. Hill, the secretary was ordered to have the list printed for the use of the members, and that after adjournment the delegates from districts and wards convene by themselves and prepare nominations for local officers and members of the Legislature, to be presented to-morrow, when each candidate will be balloted for.

Mr. Garvey moved that the press be invited to copy the list of names in the morning papers.

Mr. Singleton thought the press needed no such suggestion, and on motion of Mr. Blanchard, Mr. Garvey's motion was tabled.

Mr. Foreman moved to adjourn until eleven o'clock to-day. Carried.

Second Ward Liberals.

There was a large meeting of the Liberals of the second ward last night at their wigwam, corner of Delord and Carondelet streets, for the purpose of nominating candidates for delegates to the parochial convention, to be voted for at the wigwam between the hours of 7 A. M. and 9 P. M. Accordingly, a number of gentlemen were nominated, and the nominations were, on motion of Mr. Flood, closed.

A communication was received from the Liberal Parish Committee, announcing that the resignation of Mr. D. M. Kelley, as a member of the committee from the second ward, had been accepted.

Thereupon Mr. Manuel C. Royes was nominated, and unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. Sharkey, was adopted:

Resolved, That no delegate elected from this club to the Parish Convention shall be eligible to nomination for any office in the gift of the convention.

For New York by Sea.

The steamship General Meade, Captain A. W. Sampson, and the steamship Cortes, Captain Kemble, will leave this port for New York to-morrow morning at eight o'clock. The Temperature.

The thermometer at Louis Frigerio's, No. 50 Chartres street, yesterday stood as follows: At 8 A. M., 69°; at 2 P. M., 81°; at 6 P. M., 77°. Lowest point during the night of October 2, 69°.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music.

The drama of "On Hand" was presented again last night to a very fair audience, and Johnny Thompson in his multifarious characters delighted all who were there. This evening farewell benefit of Johnny Thompson, when the new drama of the "Wandering Dutchman" will be presented; To-morrow noon last Thompson matinee. Sunday an immense bill, and Johnny Thompson in three pieces. Monday evening first appearance of Oliver Doud Byron, in his great California success of "Ben McCullough." In the cast of the "Wandering Dutchman," to-morrow night, will be F. G. Cotter, George Morton, Roland Reed, J. F. Pike, J. T. Craven, L. F. White, L. M. McCormick, J. Burnett, S. Norman, J. R. Ryan, Robert Griffith, Mark Reed, Miss Louisa Hawthorne, Miss Ella Mayer, Miss Fannie Francis, Mrs. Sydney Wilkins.

Varieties Theatre.

Next Monday evening at the Varieties Theatre, benefit of Mrs. C. G. Pearce, one of the most popular and talented of our amateur actresses, and a lady who is held in high esteem. The sentimental two act drama of the "Husband of An Hour," and the musical extravaganza of "Jenny Lind At Last," will constitute the entertainment of the evening. Mrs. Pearce will be assisted by the Shakespeare, Orleans Dramatic and Variety clubs, Miss Lulu King and Miss Esther Blumenthal. Little Sadie Vivian will appear in a favorite song and dance.

People Wanted.

The New Orleans correspondent of the St. Louis Globe, in a racy letter published in that paper of Sunday last, makes some excellent suggestions. We quote a portion of his letter:

You capitalists of the North, some of you who think a good deal about going West, this is the country for you. Come this way, and spin out a few more railroads as you come. This is the healthiest place in the world whereat to live—there has been no yellow fever here for years, there has been no sickness here this summer; this is the most beautiful place in the world for you to spend the remainder of your days in. Bring your families with you and fill up our empty schoolhouses, and build new ones. Bring laborers and start into life our deserted factories, and build new ones. There are great investments to be found. There is richness in the soil, and there are quantities of hard cash hoarded away that nobody dreams of.

New Orleans is very similar to Paris; she is the Paris of America, and like the Paris of France she is rife with wonders. Her merits are greater than her evils, and underlie them; she knows not how to parade her merits, and so you learn of her evils first. Our people are fossilized; their money lies beneath them; stir them up and untold wealth will be evolved. Impress upon them the importance of a financial obligation, and they will meet it with the astounding ease which characterized the recent settlement in France.

It is unpardonable superficiality to say the South is "demoralized" or "impoverished." We have better morals than are accredited to us, and we have more money than we know what to do with. We can't buy your thousands of able-bodied men, and we don't understand how to persuade them to come here; consequently millions of our productive acres run waste, while our coffers open in but one direction.

Not knowing how otherwise to use their money, our people pour sparkling showers of it into politics, and the result is politics are corrupt.

Death of commerce is the wages of selfish politics, and vice versa.

We want new people to come among us and start enterprises which will work up in us a spirit of emulation. We need strangers to come here and divert the stream of wealth which we are squandering at the political game, and guide it into its legitimate course, the channel of trade.

Then will our morals become healthy, and our politics purified, and our immense resources be put in a shape to benefit ourselves and all the world.

Manufacture Statistics of the United States.

The inventor of "spoon" fishing is said to be an old man named De Castle, who for twenty-two years has been lock master on the canal around the Morrisburg rapids on the St. Lawrence river. He had been fishing off one of the islands below the town with little success, and, looking down from his boat into the clear, green water, could see the fish moving lazily about. In taking a pinch of snuff from his vest pocket he pulled out a silver sixpence, which, falling into the river, went wavering down through the water. The glitter attracted a large pickerel, which dashed for the sixpence and swallowed it. The sportsman pondered over the matter, and on his return home confiscated his wife's brass kettle, and cutting a piece out of it, soldered it to a hook, and set out with this new bait. He had not been long on the water before he had a very fierce strike. After a struggle of an hour he succeeded in landing the largest fish he had ever caught, a muscalonge, weighing forty-eight pounds.

British Claims Commission in Session—What Seized Cigars and Cigarettes are to be Destroyed—United States Court in Western North Carolina—No Provision for a Marshal.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—The British claims commission is again in session here.

Cigars and cigarettes seized for a violation of customs regulations, and which do not bring the value of the necessary stamps, will be destroyed.

Congress at its last session, established a United States court for the western district of North Carolina, but failed to make any provision for the appointment of a United States marshal. There could be no court without a marshal, and the marshal of the eastern district could not act, because his jurisdiction is limited to the counties not embraced in the western district. No grand or petit jury could be summoned without a marshal, and no money could be drawn from the treasury to pay the expenses of the court. In the absence of such an officer, to meet this unexpected emergency, Marshal Carrow is appointed a disbursing agent of the department of justice, and, under this appointment, has just drawn from the treasury $20,000 to pay the court.

The American-British mixed claims commission was in continuous session to-day from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M., and transacted a large amount of business. After closing the proofs in a large number of cases on the part of claims and extending the time in others, the following cases were disposed of: In the claim of Charles Mayhew vs. the United States, No. 172, on motion of the United States counsel to dismiss, a decision was rendered, as follows: The acts complained of not having been committed between April 13, 1861, and April 9, 1865, the memorial is dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

The following claims on demurrer by the agent and counsel of the United States were disallowed: Thomas Grant vs. United States, No. 241; Samuel and Richard Roberts vs. United States, No. 344; Thomas N. Cross vs. United States, No. 350; Elizabeth S. Warrenford vs. United States, No. 351; Thomas H. Hollson vs. United States, No. 358; Robert Atkins vs. United States, No 475.

The commission then adjourned to meet to-morrow at 10 A. M., being an hour earlier than heretofore, in order to still further expedite the business.

GEORGIA.

The State Carried by the Democracy—Full Vote Polled—Poll Taxes.

AUGUSTA, October 3.—Election returns are coming in slowly. Partial returns from the following counties give Smith, Democrat, over 15,000 majority: Barlow, Bibb, Baldwin, Cobb, Cotoosa, Clay, Clayton, Chatham, Dougherty, Floyd, Fulton, Gordon, Henry, Lee, Lowndes, Monroe, Mitchell, Morgan, Muscogee, Murray, Pierce, Richmond, Spaulding, Stewart, Troup, Terrell, Talbot, Whitfield, Wilkes and Warren.

An official count of Chatham gives the Democrats 2940 majority. The Republicans carried Decatur county by 300 and Thomas county by 150. North Georgia has gone Democratic. It will be impossible to give anything more satisfactory this morning, but there appears to be no doubt that the Democrats have carried the State by 50,000 majority, as a full vote has been polled in every county.

ATLANTA, October 3.—Thirty-four counties heard from give Smith a majority of 19,631.

But one county so far gives Walker (Radical) a majority of 456.

Some of the strongest Radical counties have been heard from.

SAVANNAH, October 3.—Money, which was sent here from Washington to pay the poll taxes of the negroes, was appropriated by the white Radical managers, who gave the negroes bogus receipts. This swindling deprived a large number of negroes of their votes. Great indignation is manifested by the negroes. Money was also collected from the negroes to pay the poll taxes and the same bogus receipts given.

ATLANTA, October 3.—The official majorities, as specially reported to the Atlanta Constitution, are for Smith (Democrat), Taliaferro county 309, Wilkes 1071, Muscogee 700, Hancock 200, Pulaski 770, Richmond 745, Whitfield 186, Dougherty 321, McDuffie
