Mickey Free.

This new Irish comic drama, first presented last night at the St. Charles Theatre will be produced again to-night, with Mr. Dominick Murray in the cast as Mickey Free. It is one of the most humorous productions that has been put on the New Orleans stage this season, and an hour's enjoyment from ten to eleven o'clock to-night will make those who witness the play feel cheerful all over.

Brutal Murder.

A Dubuque, Iowa, dispatch of the twenty-fourth instant says:

One of the most brutal and unprovoked murders on record was perpetrated at Monona, Iowa, at a late hour Saturday night. It appears that Blagbeen, a noted desperado and keeper of a saloon, had among his customers Luman Ingalls, a young man esteemed and respected by all. Blagbeen turned him out of doors after he had succeeded in making him very drunk.

Ingalls was trying to re-enter the saloon, pounding on the door for admission, when Blagbeen took a gun and made for the door, saying, "this will quiet you," with which he fired. The ball penetrated Ingalls' heart, coming out at the neck and killing him instantly. The affair created intense excitement, and there was loud talk of lynching the man, but better counsel prevailed. Blagbeen was hurried off to Elkador, where he was locked up. The funeral of Ingalls took place Sunday, and was largely attended.

In a sermon on the crime and punishment of Foster, last Sunday, Henry Ward Beecher made the alarming prevalence of crime in the community at present the subject of his discourse, selecting his text from Ecclesiastes iv, 22: "Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the hearts of men are fully set in them to do evil."

A Tiffinville father, who sold his oil before hard times struck the region, and who has a quartette of beautiful daughters, has worn out the toes of four pairs of boots this winter helping the young men down the icy steps of his residence who have called to chat with the girls.

A colored woman in Providence was called to the witness stand in court with a baby in her arms. Not wishing to testify in the case, she secretly pinched the baby, until she was suffered temporary absence from the room to soothe its wailings, when she trudged off beyond recall.

Elegant, sweet, light and wholesome bread, rolls, biscuits, corn bread, muffins, buckwheat and other griddle cakes, and pastry and cakes, with Dooley's yeast powder. Sold by grocers.

Monetary--Commercial.

MONETARY.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN, FRIDAY EVENING, March 28, 1873.

We noticed more animation in the money market to-day, the demand for discounts being liberal, both in bank and on the street. The reported transactions on the latter were a shade higher for short paper, but nothing transpired to justify any change of our quotations. We therefore continue to quote first class paper, with or without collaterals, 9@10 ⅌ cent ⅌ annum, A1 12@—, second class —@18, first class mortgage paper 9@10, and second class 12.

Gold opened at 115⅛@115¾, against 115⅝ at New York, and after an active business closed at 115¼@115¾ against 116⅛ in that market, where it touched 116⅝. The sales summed up $116,000, embracing $1500 at 115¼; $10,000 ($3000, $3000 and $4000) at 115⅜; $1000 at 115⅝; $10,000 ($1000, $2000, $5000 and $2000) at 115½; $80,000 at 115⅜@115⅝; $5000 at 115⅝, and $10,000 at 115¾.

No sales of silver were reported. American half dollars are still quoted nominal at 110½@111½, and Mexican dollars at 2½ ⅌ cent premium, gold, for new and 5 for old.

The movement in sterling exchange was quite limited, and the market closed at an advance of about ¼ ⅌ cent. The sales amounted to £43,000, comprising £5000 bill of lading at 124¾; £5000 do at 124@124½; £1500 A1 clear at 124½; £3000 bill of lading and £4000 and £10,000 A1 clear at 124⅝; £12,000 bill of lading and A1 clear at 124½@124¾; £3000 bill of lading at 121¾; £2000 bank at 125⅛, and £2500 do at 109 gold.

The sales of francs included 25,000 commercial at 4.61¼, and 25,000 and 25,000 do at 4.60.

At the close sterling bills were quoted at 124¾@124¾ for bill of lading and A1 clear, and —@125½ for bank, and francs at 4.61¼@4.60 for private, and 4.57½ for bank.

The offerings of domestic exchange were of fair extent, and rates were without quotable variation. The sales covered $280,000, embracing $10,000 commercial sight on New York and $15,000 and $80,000 private bankers' at ⅛ ⅌ cent discount, $30,000 commercial at 9-32; $20,000 commercial and $10,000, $15,000, $20,000, $20,000, $25,000 and $25,000 private bankers' at 5-16, and $10,000 on Providence at ½.

The banks continued to check on New York at par, and commercial sight was still quoted at ¾@5-16 ⅌ cent discount.

The only sale reported in stocks was 50 shares Ammonia Propelling Company at $7 25. Several other stocks were offered without meeting a buyer.

The movement in bonds appeared to be confined to city gold bearing 7 ⅌ cents, of which the sales and resales were quite large, summing up $129,000, and embracing $5000 at 61½; $10,000, $10,000 and $10,000 at 61¾; $5000 and $10,000 at 61⅞; $15,000 at 61 15-16; $7000 and $2000 at 62; $7000 at 62⅛; $28,000 (resales) at 62¼, and $2000 at 62½. They were quoted at the close at 62@—.

Metropolitan Police warrants were quoted at 86@87, showing a falling off of 1 ⅌ cent. The sales included $2200 at 87.

City appropriation certificates were quoted at 65@66, but no sales were reported.

The sales of old State warrants included $2000 at 36½, and $13,000 and $18,000 at 37. They were quoted at the close at —@38.

There were but few sales of legislative warrants reported, and they were variously quoted at the close, act No. 50 being quoted by some authorities lower than acts Nos. 24 and 38, and by others at the same, say about 75. The sales included $2000, act No. 50, at 75, and $1500 and $6000 small, of acts No. 24 and 38, at 80.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY EVENING, March 28, 1873.

COTTON—The sales to-day summed up 4000 bales at steadier and firmer prices, requiring an advance of ⅛c in our inside figures for good ordinary and low middling, and an omission of the inside for middling. We give also the Exchange figures, which are for average lists according with its types, while ours present the proper range of the market for average lists, but with the outside figures for low middling, good ordinary and ordinary given as the outside for strict of those grades:

NEW ORLEANS CLASSIFICATION, ASSIMILATED TO THAT OF LIVERPOOL.

	General quotations.	Exchange quotation.
Low ordinary	12 @12	—
Ordinary	13⅛@14½	13½
Good ordinary	16⅞@17⅝	17⅝
Low middling	18 @18½	18
Middling	@19	19
Strict middling	19⅛@19½	—
Good middling	20⅛@20½	20½

Dusty and sandy cottons sell at from ⅛ up to ¼c, according to conditions, and slightly dusty at ¼@⅜c under the figures for clean of their respective grades. The market opened with a fair inquiry, but buyers being met by more stringent pretensions on the part of factors, the business during the morning was of moderate extent, mostly at previous rates, but partly at rather higher prices than were realized yesterday, after which parties came together more freely, and the movement exhibited increased animation, resulting in the full business noted above. All good cottons were held with increased firmness, and the medium grades could no longer be purchased at yesterday's extreme inside figures. We have no other change to notice, although an advance of ¼ ⅌ cent in foreign exchange and of 1-16d at Liverpool were favorable to a more marked improvement.

The sales of the past three days sum up 15,800 bales (6400 on Wednesday, 3200 yesterday and 6000 to day), making an aggregate for the week of 35,100 bales, not including 800 on Friday after 4 P. M., against 39,000 last week and 31,000 the week before. Week's receipts 25,614 bales, embracing 1412 from other delivery ports (of which 899 from Mobile and 508 from Texas), and 24,202 proper, against 25,249 proper last week and 17,433 last year. Total proper since August 31, 1,016,833 bales, against 851,008 last year—increase 165,827 bales.

The week's exports comprise 36,306 bales, embracing 12,400 to Liverpool, 3785 to Havre, 3266 to Genoa, 6120 to Falmouth for orders, 719 to Hamburg, 925 to Antwerp, 1118 to Boston, 1805 to New York and 6 to Philadelphia, to which we have added 751 by rail, of which 750 to fill a ship at Galveston.

The Exchange telegrams make the receipts at all the ports to-day 10,121 bales, against 10,378 on last Friday, and 5005 last year, and since Friday 55,666 bales, against 74,559 last week, and 40,195 last year. Total since August 31, 3,001,769 bales, against 2,408,341 last year—increase 593,428 bales.

Exports from Friday to yesterday inclusive, to Great Britain 32,436 bales, against 52,906 last week, and to the continent 10,807, against 16,005 last week. Stocks at all the delivery ports made up to 12 M., 596,388 bales, against 538,731 last week, 423,290 last year and 614,625 the year before.

The amount on shipboard not cleared, going on board and engaged for shipment was set down at the opening this morning at 79,000 bales, embracing 36,000 for Liverpool, 13,000 for Havre, 1000 for Spain, 9000 for Bremen, 4000 for Cork and a market, 12,000 for the North Sea and 4000 for the North, which, when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement last evening, leaves 122,500 bales to represent the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

The Exchange reports: "Market strong; sales 6000 bales; week's sales 36,200, against 37,200 last week."
