TENNYSON'S JUBILEE ODE.

THE LAUREATE'S TRIBUTE TO THE QUEEN.

ENUMERATING THE TITLES OF THE QUEEN AND EMPRESS AND THE NAMES OF RACES SUBJECT TO HER SWAY.

LONDON, March 29.—Tennyson's jubilee ode is published to-day. It is entitled "Carmen Saeculare," and is in alternate three and eight line blank verse stanzas. The first and second stanzas are as follows:

I.

Fifty times the rose has flowered and faded,
Fifty times the golden harvest fallen,
Since our Queen assumed the globe, the sceptre.

II.

She beloved for a kindliness
Rare in fable or history,
Queen and Empress of India,
Crowned so long with a diadem
Never worn by a worthier,
Now with prosperous auguries
Comes at last to the bounteous
Crowning year of her jubilee.

Of the next five stanzas, the short sing the attributes of the Queen and the long enjoin the Nation to celebrate the jubilee with illuminations, festivals, charities, etc. The subsequent stanzas are as follows:

VIII.

You, the patriot architect,
Shape a stately memorial.
Make it regally gorgeous—
Some imperial institute,
Rich in symbol, in ornament,
Which may speak to the centuries
All the centuries after us,
Of this year of her jubilee.

IX.

Fifty years of ever broadening commerce,
Fifty years of ever brightening science,
Fifty years of ever widening empire.

X.

You the mighty, the fortunate,
You, the lord territorial,
You, the lord manufacturer,
You, the hardy, laborious,
Patient children of Albion,
You Canadian, Indian,
Australasian, African,
All your hearts be in harmony,
All your voices in unison
Singing hail to the glorious,
Golden year of her jubilee.

XI.

Are there thunders moaning in the distance?
Are there spectres moving in the darkness?
Trust the Lord of Light to guide her people
Till the thunders pass, the spectres vanish,
And the light is victor, and the darkness
Dawns into the jubilee of the ages.

FIRST MORTGAGE 6 PER CENT

5.20 YEAR GOLD BONDS.

INTEREST JANUARY AND JULY.

PAYABLE AT THE FARMERS' LOAN AND TRUST CO., NEW-YORK.

DUE 1907.

THESE BONDS, ISSUED AT ONLY $5,000 PER MILE, ARE A FIRST AND ONLY LIEN ON THE ROAD AND EQUIPMENT, AND IN ADDITION ARE GUARANTEED, PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST, BY THE ORANGE BELT INVESTMENT CO., WHICH OWNS LARGE MILLS AT LONGWOOD THAT ARE EARNING OVER $40,000 A YEAR NET; BESIDES WHICH THE COMPANY HAVE VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AND OTHER PROPERTY, ESTIMATED IN ALL, WITH THE MILLS, TO BE WORTH $300,000, AND WHEN THE ROAD IS FINISHED TO POINT PINELLAS IT IS ESTIMATED THAT THE INVESTMENT COMPANY'S PROPERTY WILL BE WORTH AT LEAST $1,000,000, NOT INCLUDING THE RAILROAD AND ITS FRANCHISES.

The company reserves the right to redeem these bonds AT PAR at any time after five years, and it is believed that they will be able to retire them all in five years, as it is for the interest of the guarantors to do so, they being the owners of 75 per cent of the stock, which, with the 25 per cent we offer, will own the road after these bonds have been retired and will be the only lien upon the railroad equipment and franchises.

We look upon this security as a good investment, and with 25 per cent of stock bonus offered with the bonds they should command the attention of the investing public.

To the Preferred and Common Stockholders of the LAKE ERIE & WESTERN R. R. CO.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Monday, March 28, 1887, the corrected certificates for the Preferred Stock of The Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company will be ready for delivery at the Central Trust Company of New-York, when all unpaid calls will be due and payable.

NOTICE IS ALSO GIVEN that the transfer books of the company will be closed on Saturday, April 2, 1887, at 3 o'clock p. m. and the stockholders of record on that day will be entitled to subscribe, on or before Tuesday, April 5, 1887, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the Central Trust Company of New-York, as follows:

The holders of the preferred stock will be entitled to subscribe to the amount of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) per cent of their holdings in new preferred stock at fifty (50) cents on the dollar, payable one-half in cash at the time of subscription and the remaining one-half on or before May 5, 1887 when the new preferred stock will be delivered.

Holders of common stock will be entitled to subscribe to the amount of thirty-seven and one-half (37½) per cent of their holdings in new common stock of the company at twenty cents on the dollar, payable one-half in cash at the time of subscription and the remaining one-half on or before May 5, 1887, when the new common stock will be ready for delivery.

These issues of stock, together with an issue of one million six hundred and twenty thousand dollars ($1,620,000) of the company's First Mortgage Bonds, have been made by the company in payment for the railroad and property formerly known as the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago Railway, one hundred and sixty-two (162) miles in length, of main line, from Indianapolis to Michigan City, Ind., and include about forty (40) miles of side-track, and all that company's extensive terminals in the City of Indianapolis, and on Lake Michigan, as well as its equipment and other property free from Car Trusts or any other liens.

Stockholders must avail themselves of their privileges promptly on the dates named, as any amounts not taken have been otherwise placed in order to meet payments on the properties purchased.

Payments to be made at the Central Trust Company, New-York.

DAYTON, a special Master, appointed by said Court, will offer for sale and by each of the decrees above referred to, will expose for sale at Public Auction, on WEDNESDAY, THE 20TH DAY OF APRIL, 1887, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the steps of the Court House of the County of Sussex, in the State of New-Jersey, in the town of Newton, in said County and State, and will then sell at Public Auction as aforesaid—

All and singular the railroad franchises and property mentioned in and conveyed by a certain mortgage, bearing date the first day of September, 1881, and made and executed by the Pennsylvania, Slatington and New-England Railroad Company to the above-named plaintiff, the Metropolitan Trust Company of the City of New-York, and in said mortgage described as follows, viz.:

All and singular the entire line of railroad of the Pennsylvania, Slatington and New-England Railroad Company, extending from its terminus at or near the village of Slatington, in the County of Lehigh, and State of Pennsylvania; thence, in a northeasterly direction, to and through the County of Northampton, in the State of Pennsylvania, crossing the Delaware River near the Water Gap; and thence, through the Counties of Warren and Sussex, in the State of New-Jersey, to its terminus at or near Pine Island, in the State of New-York, as the same is or shall be laid down, designated and described in and upon a map or maps, or profiles or drawings thereof, or of parts thereof, filed or to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of New-Jersey, together with all and singular the franchises, including the franchise to be a corporation, equipment, property, tolls, issues, road-bed, rolling-stock and profits, all rights of way, lands, buildings, bridges, easements, fixtures, machinery, goods and chattels connected with or used in running and operating of said railroad, appurtenant thereto, and all its rails, ties, road, fencing and erections, and all its cars, engines, tools, all rents, reservations and reversions of every nature and kind whatsoever, including all the property between said terminal points hereinbefore mentioned and also, the right to maintain and use said railroad, and trains, to pick and carry and convey persons and all property thereon; and to receive for safe-keeping, and to store merchandise and property, and to receive tolls and charge for such transportation and storage; also all property, real, personal and mixed which said Pennsylvania, Slatington and New-England Railroad Company had at the time of executing said mortgage, or has thereafter acquired, either in law or in equity, and all other like estates, structures, tunnels, culverts, superstructures and equipments; all matters and things pertaining at the time of executing said mortgage aforesaid to said Railroad Company, or thereafter acquired, or otherwise vested in, or belonging to said Railroad Company; and also all other estates, real, personal or mixed of any of the foregoing descriptions, or of any other kind, nature, or description acquired by the said Railroad Company after the execution of said mortgage, and used or intended to be used by it in the construction and operation of the said railroad.

The said premises, property and franchises will be sold subject to all sums due for taxes, and to any and all such liens and claims as have been referred to me as Special Master in and by the above-mentioned decrees, or either of them, and as shall be found and reported by me in conformity with the provisions of said decrees in that behalf contained to be liens upon said premises and property, and entitled to priority over the aforesaid mortgage of said complainant, and so much of the said premises, property and franchises, subject to the lien of said mortgage bearing date the first day of July, 1880, and made and executed by the Pennsylvania and New-England Railroad (New-Jersey Division) to William H. Guzmer and George M. Wright, as trustees, will be sold subject to the lien of the bonds issued thereunder, and at the date of said sale remaining outstanding and unpaid.

The following are the conditions under which the sale aforesaid will be made:

(1) Of the whole of the purchase money bid at said sale not less than thirty thousand dollars shall be paid in cash to the Master at the time of sale, and the purchaser shall at the same time assent to and agree in writing to be bound by these conditions.

(2) At the time of the delivery of the deed such further sum of the total purchase money shall be paid in cash as shall be necessary (in addition to the said sum of thirty thousand dollars) in order to discharge all the costs, fees, compensation and allowances (including Counsel fees) of the complainant, and also all costs, fees, compensation and allowances of the Receiver heretofore appointed in this action and all indebtedness incurred by him in the performance of his duty as such Receiver, whether represented by Receiver's certificates, notes or open accounts, and all unpaid claims of any of the employes of such receiver, and of all others for supplies furnished to him for the preservation of the railroad and property in his charge from the time of his appointment up to the time of the delivery of the said deed; and also, all costs, fees, allowances, compensation and expenses which shall be incurred by the said complainant in the premises, and to be allowed by the Master in the decree above mentioned, as well as the costs, fees and allowances of said Master in executing said decree.

(3) For the remainder of the purchase money, after the payment of the sums hereinbefore required to be paid in cash, the said Master may receive any of the past due coupons and any of the bonds secured by the aforesaid mortgage to the complainant, each of said coupons and bonds being received for such sum as the holder thereof would be entitled to receive under the distribution covered in said decrees.

(4) The time and place for the delivery of the deed shall be fixed by the Master at the time of the sale, and such time shall not be less than two nor more than six weeks after said sale.

(5) In case the purchaser shall fail to comply with these conditions the complainant, in the actions above stated, may either take proceedings to enforce compliance with the same, or may cause the Master to readvertise the premises and to sell the same in the same manner and with the same effect as if they had never been offered for sale. And such defaulting purchaser shall, as liquidated damages for his failure to comply with these conditions, forfeit to the said complainant, as trustee, the full amount of the cash payment of thirty thousand dollars to be made by the purchaser at the time of said sale as hereinabove provided for; and shall likewise be and become liable to said complainant, as trustee, for such other amount in addition to said thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) as may be necessary in order to defray the expenses of re-advertisement and resale; and, in case the said railroad franchises, premises and property shall upon such resale realize a less amount than that bid by such defaulting purchaser, he shall, in addition to the forfeiture and liability above provided for, also pay to the said Master the difference between the amount of his bid and the amount realized at such resale, together with interest thereon from the time fixed upon by said Master for the delivery of the deed to him until the time of the said payment.

WILLIAM L. DAYTON, Special Master.

Legal Notices.

HENRY FRANCIS COLEY, deceased. Pursuant to the Statute 22d and 23d Vic., chap. 35, entitled "An Act to further amend the law of property and to relieve Trustees," Notice is hereby given that all persons claiming to be Next of Kin according to the Statutes for the distribution of Intestates' Estates, Creditors and other persons having any claims or demands against or claiming any interest in the estate of Henry Francis Coley, late of No. 17 Cambray, Cheltenham, Esquire, who died on or about the 24 February, 1886, a Bachelor and Intestate, and to whose personal estates and effects Letters of Administration were granted to Richard Coley out of the Principal Registry of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice on the 18th day of March, 1886, are hereby required to send in full particulars and proofs of their claims upon the estate of the said Henry Francis Coley to Messrs. Tichhurst and Sons, of Essex Place, Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester in England, the Solicitors for the said Administrator, on or before the 1st day of May, 1887, or in default thereof the said Richard Coley, the Administrator, will at the expiration of that time proceed to administer the estate and divide or pay over the assets of the deceased to the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he, the said Administrator, shall then have had Notice. And further take Notice that he will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so divided or paid over to any person or persons of whose claim or demand he shall not then have had Notice.

It is believed that two Cousins of the said Henry Francis Coley, namely Richard Coley Jones, who was born about the year 1809, and Edward Jones, who was born about 1812, may have some claim on the estate of the Intestate, if they survived him.

Dated the 1st day of March, 1887. TICHHURST & SONS, of Essex Place, Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, in England. Solicitors to the said Administrator.
