less than a year ago, and has been training but six months.

CLEVELAND, O., July 23.—Great excitement exists among horsemen in reference to the coming meeting here between the celebrated horses Judge Fullerton and Camors. Fullerton is a New York horse, Camors is owned in Boston. Each horse has the same record,—2:17¼; Camors at Prospect Park last September, Fullerton at Saratoga in October, each having defeated the other.

Goldsmith Maid, American Girl and Lucy are named for free for all, and speculation is rife in reference to the second place in this race. It is conceded that this meeting has brought together the finest field of horses ever known in America.

DETROIT, July 23.—Today was the second day of the Rametauck Park races. The first race was for horses that had never beaten 2:35; eight entries; six started. Chestnut Billy won, and quicksilver second. Time—2:36, 2:37, 2:37¼.

The second race was for horses that had never beaten 2:30. Thirteen entries; ten started. The race was hotly contested, and was not finished at dark. It will be finished to-morrow.

THE CHOLERA.

Cincinnati—Wheeling—Evansville—Mount Vernon—Lagrange.

EVANSVILLE, July 23.—Two cholera deaths reported at Cairo, Illinois. The disease is reported to be smoulding near Princeton, Indiana.

At Mount Vernon the panic is over. Two deaths reported to-day, but no new cases.

Stores are being opened, business resumed, and a more cheerful state of affairs prevails.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—Lagrange has had eighteen deaths from cholera within three days.

Only one death from cholera reported at the health office here to-day.

WHEELING, Va., July 23.—One cholera death to-day.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Mexico—Capture of Lozada—Suppression of the Rebellion in Jalisco—The Polaris at St. Johns—Death of J. W. Hill, the Actor—Enterprise of the Atlanta Herald—Fire at Cleveland.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 23.—The Columbus and Indiana Central Railroad Company has entered suit against United States Collector Walcott to recover over $57,000, the amount of United States tax claimed to have been erroneously assessed against the company by the government. The Columbus and Hocking Valley railroad has entered a similar suit, claiming over $6000.

MATAMORAS, July 23.—An official telegram from General Ceballos to the military commander of this city, dated at Tepic on the seventeenth instant, announces the complete defeat of the revolutionists in the State of Jalisco, and the capture of the leader, the famous cheftain Lozada, who has for the last fifteen years refused to submit to the authority of the federal government and has headed a band of malcontents in armed hostility nearly all that time.

ST. JOHNS, Newfoundland, July 23.—The United States expedition in search of the Polaris arrived here this morning. All on board are well. She will coal here.

ST. LOUIS, July 23.—John Wesley Hill, the actor, is dead. He was stage manager at the Academy of Music, New Orleans, last season. He had been in bad health for some time.

ATLANTA, July 23.—The Atlanta Herald, imitating its New York namesake, to-day chartered a special train from Atlanta to West Point to carry its daily mail in advance of other city papers by twenty-four hours.

CLEVELAND, July 23.—A fire to-day at Fries' distillery, caused by an explosion, destroyed a five-story brick block, occupied exclusively by that firm. On account of so much inflammable material, the fire spread with great rapidity. It is said that a large quantity of fine wines and liquors were destroyed.

It was a Democratic Texas Congressman who justified his vote on the back pay bill by alleging his inability to support his family in Washington in proper style without it.—New Orleans Republican.

That is a plumb lie. Matt Carpenter is the man who made that defense.—Shreveport Times.

Hancock, of Texas, out-Carpenters Carpenter and out Butlers Butler. He recently declared, in a public speech at Austin, that he "would be d—d" if he would represent his constituents at Washington if he was to be "excluded from all the fashionable entertainments and associations of the national capital."—New Orleans Times.

Monetary--Commercial.

MONETARY.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN,
WEDNESDAY EVENING, July 23, 1873.

The money market is very quiet. The demand for discounts at the banks continues moderate, and the offerings on the street are light. No transactions worthy of note have been reported. First class paper is still quoted at 9@10 ₱ cent ₱ annum, with or without collaterals. All at 12, and second class at —@16, first class mortgages continued to take at 9@10, and second class at 12.

Total last week	5,510,959 34	1,141,949 72
Total week before	7,062,199 61	790,156 79

Gold opened at 13[illegible]@115½, against 115¼ at New York, and after a very limited business closed at 115¼@115½, one lower than yesterday, against 115¼ in that market. The sales amounted up only $13,000 embracing $1000 at 115¼, $6000 at 115⅜, $2000 at 115½, $4000, and $1000 at 115¾.

No sales of silver were reported. American half dollars were quoted at 1[illegible]@107½, and Mexican dollars at 2 ₱ cent premium in gold for new and 4 for old.

Sterling exchange, under the course of gold at New York, declined ¼ ₱ cent from yesterday's figures, and the movement was confined to only $2,000 sixty-day long at $[illegible] bill of lading at 126¼, and $2,000 bank sight at 121½.

The only case of francs reported was $9,000 commercial at —.

At the close sterling bills were quoted at 126@126½ for bills of lading and 121@121¼ for bankers, and francs at 4.36@4.35 for private and 4.34¼ for bank.

Domestic exchange continued scarce, the offerings light, and the rates without quotable variation. The sales covered $130,000 sight on New York, comprising $16,000 and $15,000 commercial at ¼ ₱ cent premium; $5,000 60 at 5-16, and $30,000 and $30,000 bank at 11-32.

The banks continued to check on New York at ¼ ₱ cent premium, and private sight was still quoted at 5 16.

In stocks we noticed sales of 5 shares New Orleans National Banking Association at $21; 4 New Orleans Mutual Insurance Association, a few days since, at $30; 100 St. Charles Street Railroad Company, at Auction by Messrs. C. E. Gardner & Co., at $73, and 100 new Southern Bank at $60. Yesterday the sale of 100 shares of Germania National Bank at $147 50 was intended by the broker who reported it for 100 shares of Germania Insurance Company, a $47 50. The last sale of Germania National Bank was 5 shares ex-dividend, at $150.

There was quite an active movement in city seven per cent gold bearing bonds, which opened weak at 62½ and closed at about 63½. The sales and resales summed up $107,000, embracing $4000 and $15,000 at 63¼; $7000 at 62¾; $1000 and $6000 at 63; $5000 and $5000 at 63¼; $500 at 63⅞; $4000 and $4000 at 63½; $5000 at 63¼; $5000, $1000, $10,000 and $16,000 at 63¼, and $10,000 at 64.

We also noticed sales of $5000 old Louisiana State sixes, with July coupon, at 46½, and $1000 new city seven per cents at 50.

No sales of city appropriation certificates were reported, they were still quoted at 5@5½.

Metropolitan Police warrants were quoted at the close at 55@56. The sales included $600 at 54½, $1500 at 55½, $1000 at 55¾, and $5000 at 56.

Graham warrants continued nominal at 44.

The sales of Clinton State warrants included $2000 at 55½, and $10,000 at 56. They were quoted at the close at 55@56.

COMMERCIAL.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, July 23, 1873.

COTTON—The sales to-day embraced 1246 bales, at prices requiring no other change in our quotations than an advance of ⅛c in the outside figures for strict low middling. We give also the Exchange figures, which are for average lots according with its types, while ours represent the proper range of the market for average lots but with the outside figures for low middling, good ordinary and ordinary given as the outside for strict of those grades:

NEW ORLEANS CLASSIFICATION, ASSIMILATED TO THAT OF LIVERPOOL.

	General quotations.	Exchange quotation.
Inferior	7 @8½	—
Low ordinary	9½@10½	—
Ordinary	11½@11¾	12
Good ordinary	14¼@15	15
Low middling	17¼@17½	17¾
Middling	18½@19	18¾
Strict middling	19½@—	—
Good middling	19¾@20	19¾

The market opened dull at previous rates, factors, however, asking very full prices for strict good ordinary and the higher grades, after which buyers came forward more freely, and the sales summed up the amount noted above at previous rates for the lower grades, which continued irregular but with no quotable change, while the better qualities were scarce and still, factors refusing to sell unless at very full prices. Some low middling sold at 17¾, and 18c, and strict low middling at 18¼ and 18¾c. Seven brokers participated in the business, one of them taking 441 bales.

The amount on shipboard not cleared, going on board and engaged for shipment was set down at the opening this morning at 41,000 bales, embracing 7000 for Liverpool, 3000 for Havre and 3000 for the North, which, when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement last evening, leaves 19,300 bales to represent the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

The Exchange reports: "Market unchanged. Sales 12[illegible] bales."
