FIRE TUESDAY NIGHT.—About half-past nine o'clock Tuesday night a fire originated on Laurel, between Marengo and Constantinople streets, in an unoccupied one-story frame house owned by Mrs. Coppersmith, which was totally destroyed.

The flames extended to the adjoining one-story frame house, owned and occupied by Mrs. M. Wilson, which was also destroyed. The first dwelling was stated to be not insured, while the second was covered by a policy of $425 in the Merchants' Mutual Company.

The flames communicated to the one-story frame house adjoining, owned and occupied by Mr. Charles Kost, which was damaged to the extent of about $200, fully covered by an insurance in the Teutonia Company. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Great praise is awarded the Jefferson fire department for its exertions in preventing the further destruction of property.

DROPPED DEAD.—A colored, man by the name of Edward Crichler, about thirty-five years of age, died suddenly at the saloon corner of Perdido and Baronne streets, about six o'clock yesterday evening. He leaves a family and children. The coroner was notified.

BRIEF MENTION.—The different fire companies of this department will soon enter into their annual elections.

The first precinct police station will probably be moved over to its new quarters next Saturday.

The person who finds Metropolitan Police warrant No. 210, for the month of October, for $8 21, should return it to the first precinct police station, as it belongs to J. P. McArdle.

He has come again. Oscar Salaun turns up once more. A warrant sued out by J. M. Cressy, brought the young man from close quarters in the Parish Prison, for obtaining goods by fraudulent pretenses. Oscar was looked at in a severe tone of voice by Judge Gernon, and then remanded to private apartments where nary a bail bond will touch him.

A trunk marked S. C. Wilkerson can be found at the first precinct station, the chief engineer of a push cart having failed to find a proper place to deliver the aforesaid.

Charles Keefe, a tailor, was arrested at No. 471 Camp street for making too much shrinkage in a certain transaction with S. E. Daniels.

Overcoats and thick clothing were in order yesterday. Dusters came in handy, especially to persons on the levee, where clouds of dust looked like fog.

Only six fires Tuesday.

The fierce wind Tuesday night suspended many street gas lights.

The police found only a dozen stores open Tuesday night.

Tony Lang, a cooper, was arrested in Judge Staes' court, charged by Mme. Mathiels with assault and battery and wounding with intent to commit murder. He was placed under bonds.

Numa Cowen was arrested in Judge Staes' court on a warrant, charged by M. A. Bernard with obtaining money under false pretences. He was arraigned and remanded under bonds.

Irene Ryder and Mary Fredericks were arrested on Baronne street, near Philip, in the sixth precinct, charged by Catherine George with kidnapping. The arrest was made on a warrant, and they were locked up.

Algiers indulged in the luxury of a false alarm for fire Tuesday.

In consequence of hard times several barrooms intend to put the price of bald-headed drinks down to ten cents per dose.

The alarm of fire at eight o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the burning of the roof of an old kitchen at No. 167 Franklin street. Damage slight.

August Hilton, a painter, accidentally fell from the second story of a building on Chartres, near St. Peter street. The injuries were such that he died in a few hours.

Weak knees, old chimneys and fluttering signs went down during Tuesday's big blow.

There is a recruiting station for the United States army on Magazine, near St. Joseph street.

Burglars raided the residence of Mr. Louis Sigaurrs, on Dorgenois street, Tuesday night, and stole money and valuables amounting to $600.

Mrs. Joanna Sorgese, alias Mrs. Hart, is one of the women who is charged with robbing Francois Poyen Dauphine street Monday night. Charles Austin was run in on the same charge.

John St. Blanco, a dealer in junk, was arrested on the suggestion of Auguste Dural, who hints something about stolen property and larceny. Judge Staes will investigate.

Numa Corne worked his way into the third precinct calaboose without grip or password, at the instance of M. A. Bernard, for obtaining money through fraudulent representations.

A Manilla cable, fifty fathoms, was found by a policeman at the head of Calliope street. It was taken to the harbor station.

FINE STORESKEEPER.—Judge Staes, Second Municipal Court, handed in to the city treasury the sum of $200, collections for the past three weeks. Judge Long collected $145 for three weeks.

LICENSE LAW FOR 1874.—Our city fathers will to-day sit in judgment on the license law for next year. It has already been determined not to call on manufacturers for anything, which important fact should be generally known. Professions, etc., which must pay $10 or more, will be allowed a material reduction if payment be made promptly. A short delay will forfeit this privilege, and all interested parties should visit the City Hall as soon as the law is promulgated and post themselves concerning the advantage. Any of the Administrators will cheerfully furnish the required information, and in due time the REPUBLICAN will publish all the items.

New Orleans Medical and Surgical Journal.

The admirable advantages offered by our city for medical instruction and clinical observation, renders it also a suitable location for a magazine devoted to the general medical and pharmaceutical departments of the medical profession. Accordingly we are not surprised to see the Medical Journal filled with original, well written and instructive contributions to curative science. Turning its pages with that general interest which a non-professional sciolist is expected to manifest in every subject, we find some communications from our own physicians, upon questions of general and specific interest. Perhaps from having sympathized with some little sufferer from that most painful affliction, the hip-joint disease, we pause to read the result of observations in the New York hospitals, by Dr. Formento, one of our physicians of largest practice and most scientific reputation among us. We know nothing more sad than the report of a patient and even cheerful boy condemned to restrict the activity of youth to the precarious use of crutches, and looking forward to little more than the same agency during his whole life. So when we learn that this terrible affliction has been relieved by an American invention which restores the action of the joint by relieving the articulation from the pain of friction, and even from the weight of the body—when we see that necrosis and even consolidation of the muscle and tissues are not hopeless, but that exsection of the hip joint has been effected with a comparative degree of safety, we are gratified to hope that this calamity may be by surgical service deprived of much of its deplorable consequences. We must refer the reader to the valuable journal itself for a full narration of these and other important improvements in the great science of relief to pain, and commend the excellent magazine as worthy the patronage of our medical profession.

Free Cuba.

The preliminary arrangements for the Cuban mass meeting in Exposition Hall Friday night have all been completed and will be announced to-morrow. The movement has attracted the attention of a large number of our very best citizens who call daily at General Quesada's headquarters. Hundreds of sympathizers throng his rooms and offer assistance of all kinds. Five hundred letters are received by each day's mail from parties in all portions of the country. Full particulars of the proposed meeting will be published to-morrow morning.

An Apology.

The Herald was hardly fair in its paragraph yesterday headed "Slightly Blasphemous," in asserting that Senator West uttered such nonsense as—

We know that Louisiana was Republican in November, and we have faith that our Redeemer liveth.

Any one can see that the fault was caused by the carelessness or neglect of the reporter, and not of the speaker, and the former takes this method of apologizing to the Senator for thus spoiling the comparison intended.

Supreme Court.

In this court yesterday two cases, involving the validity of levee bonds of 1870 and the bonds issued to the Mobile and Texas road in 1871, were argued and submitted by Messrs. Fellows and Cotton, for the State, and Kennard, Howe and Prentiss, for bondholders.

AMUSEMENTS.

St. Charles Theatre.

"Camille" was enacted at this theatre last night, Miss Ada Gray appearing as the heroine. Her acting of the part is not unlike that of Mrs. D. P. Bowers in the same character, with but little attempt to elaborate the scenes in the first act depicting what has always been objectionable in the play—the life of the woman of the world; but strong in the more natural and pathetic phases of the character. The support rendered the star by members of the company deserves no special comment. Mr. John Davis plays all parts well, and, of course, gave a correct representation of M. Duval, the father. Mr J. G. Steele is an ambitious and rising young actor, but is not yet equal to the requirements of Armand. To-night Miss Gray will appear in "Little Goldie," and on Friday evening will play Mimi in the sensational drama called "French Women." The favorite Irish comedian, Mr. Joseph Murphy, will appear at this house on Monday evening, in "Help."

The Opera.

To-night Donizetti's grand opera in four acts, "La Favorite," will be presented, with a cast of characters the equal of which has not been here in many, many years. Mlle. Denain makes her debut, appearing as Leonore. M Gueymard will appear as Fernand, M Devoyed as Alphonse, and M. Mayan as Balthazar. An exceedingly strong cast of an opera that has ever been popular in this city.

Saturday noon we are to have the first matinee. The theatrical company enacts "Frou Frou." In view of the fact that the play has been lately produced at one of our American theatres, much curiosity is manifested to witness a French troupe in the same drama.

Academy of Music.

"Dick the Chevalier" received its final representation at the Academy last night. This evening will be produced one of the best of burlesques, "Lucretia Borgia, M. D., or the Grand Doctresse," in which Miss Elise Holt will appear as Genarro, her best character, supported by Mr. Harry Wall, J. P. Kilbourne, Miss Alice Harrison, and other favorites. Little Minnie Maddern will also appear in songs and dances. A favorite farce will be added to the burlesque. On Monday evening the young American actor, Mr. E. T. Stetson, will make his first appearance in this city in his sensational drama called "Neck and Neck."
