CHARLES DIAMOND ET AL. VS. ROBERT R. DIAMOND ET ALS.

SALE IN PARTITION.

Second District Court for the Parish of Orleans—No. 36,566.

BY THE SUCCESSORS OF C. E. GIRARDEY & CO.—Nicholas J. Hoey, Auctioneer—Office No. 17 Exchange place.—SATURDAY, April 4, 1874, at twelve o'clock M., at the Merchants and Auctioneers' Exchange, on Royal street, by virtue of a judgment in partition rendered in the above entitled matter on February 24, 1874, by the Hon. A. L. Tissot, judge of the Second District Court for the parish of Orleans, will be sold by public auction, in order to effect the partition so decreed, the following valuable real estate, to wit—

1. THE LOUISIANA HOTEL, in the First District of this city, fronting the St. Mary Market, in the square bounded by Tchoupitoulas, St. Joseph, Delord and Foucher streets; the ground is designated as lot A on a sketch by Paul C. Boudousquie, architect, annexed to an act before Robert J. Ker, notary public, dated eighth March, 1869, and measures according to said sketch about 44 feet front on Tchoupitoulas street, about 150 feet 2⅞ inches on the lower side towards St. Joseph street, and thence on a diagonal line to Delord street about 122 feet 5 inches 4 lines, on which Delord street it has a front of about 81 feet 1⅞ inches, and on the upper side line towards Delord street it has a measurement of about 95 feet in depth, extending across a common alley 10 feet wide which opens on Delord street, and thence it has a measurement along said common alley and parallel to Foucher street of about 94 feet 1 inch 3 lines, and joins the said front line on Delord street. The improvements comprise all the buildings now known and used as the Louisiana Hotel, being a large three story brick building fronting Tchoupitoulas street, with solid granite bases and columns and double iron verandas in front, and a three-story brick rear building adjoining, the yards well flagged; on the Delord street front is a two-story building, brick front, used as a wash house, etc., with rooms above; along the common alley is a two-story building, three sides brick, with four ten pin alleys and conveniences below, and a centre hall and two rows of bed rooms above, a large yard and cistern. This comprises the Louisiana Hotel proper, an establishment which has commanded and received the liberal patronage of our Western and river friends for almost the past half century. Fronting the St. Mary Market, and the great clear space formed by the junction of Tchoupitoulas and Annunciation streets, adjacent to all the great depots of Northern, Southern and Western railroads, and on the line of two of our city railroads, within ten minutes reach of Canal street, seldom has such an opportunity offered to capital or individual enterprise.

2. THE THREE STORY BRICK BUILDING adjoining the above, and known as No. 217 Tchoupitoulas street, measures about 27 feet 4 lines front on Tchoupitoulas street, about 18 feet 1 inch 6 lines in rear, by about 65 feet in depth in the lower line, and about 85 feet 3 inches in depth on the upper side line, and designated on the sketch above referred to as lot "C." The improvements consist of a three story brick building, with separate walls and two story rear buildings, iron veranda front, and may be used for extension of the Louisiana Hotel.

3. THE THREE-STORY BRICK BUILDING, No. 225 Tchoupitoulas street, corner of Delord street, in the same square, and designated on the sketch above referred to as lot B, and measures about 21 feet 6 inches 1 line front on Tchoupitoulas street, about 19 feet two inches in rear and front on the common alley opening on Delord street, about 86 feet 4 inches front on Delord street, by about 85 feet 11 inches 2 lines front on the lower side line, this property forming the corner of Tchoupitoulas and Delord streets, iron balcony and awning fronts. Was latterly known as Dr. Hyde's drug store, and no better stand for business or a like purpose can be obtained.

4. THE TWO STORY BRICK DWELLING, No. 25 Poeyfarre street, in the First District of this city, in the square bounded by Poeyfarre, Delord, Annunciation and Foucher streets, the lot is designated by the No. 47, and measures 25 feet 9 inches 6 lines front on Poeyfarre street, by a depth of 124 feet 8 inches 1 line on the side line next to Annunciation street, 124 feet 3 inches on the side line next to lot No. 46, and bounded in the rear by a common alley 10 feet wide, on which it has a front of 25 feet 10 inches. The house is retired from the street, with front and side balconies and space for garden front, and from the conveniences surrounding and ready access to business presents a rare chance to small means to secure a good home so near the city centre.

All the above described property will be sold to the highest and last bidder for whatever it will bring, in order to effect the partition decreed.

Terms of Sale—One-third cash on the spot, at the moment of adjudication, the remainder on a credit of one and two years, in notes of the purchasers, divided into coupons if required, bearing interest of eight per cent per annum from date of sale until final payment, with the penal clause of five per cent attorneys' fees in event of suit to enforce payment on any of the said notes, the improvements to be kept fully insured and policies transferred to the holders of the notes, the whole to be secured by special mortgage and vendor's lien on the property sold, and purchasers to assume payment over and above the amounts of their bids of all taxes on said properties for the year 1873 and up to the day of sale.

Acts of sale, at the expense of the purchasers, before Marcel T. Ducros, Esq., notary public.
