At a Grange celebration in Limestone, East Tennessee, on the fourth of July, an attempt was made to pull down the American flag. There is no mention made of shooting on the spot. At Lynchburg, Virginia, on the same day, a Confederate flag was displayed at the masthead of a yacht owned by a prominent member of the bar.

A Brooklyn young woman, who abandoned her old husband, says: "He was too soft. I couldn't be hugging and kissing him all the while; it isn't my disposition. I couldn't bear to be obliged to sit on his lap and cuddle him every time I wanted a cent."

MONETARY.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY REPUBLICAN, FRIDAY EVENING, July 17, 1874.

The money market continues quiet with a fair demand for discounts at the banks, and moderate offerings on the street. At the same time, while there is no material change, we notice a slight hardening in the rates of commercial paper, but without quotable variation. We continue to quote selected signatures, with or without collaterals, at 8 ⅌ cent per annum; first class at 9@10; A1 at 11@12, and second grade at 12@14½ ⅌ cent per month. First class mortgages rule at 10 ⅌ cent per annum, and second grade entirely nominal.

We learn that at a meeting to-day of the board of liquidation of the State debt, it was resolved that no bonds or obligations in litigation shall be funded until their validity is decided by the Supreme Court of the State. This resolution, it is understood, was passed as an evidence that the board is determined to do justice to all parties in the premises. We also learn that the disagreements between the State Fiscal Agent and the State Treasurer are in a fair way of adjustment and that it is anticipated they will no longer defer the funding of the State debt.

The demand was limited throughout the day, and the market exhibited no new feature, the lower grades exhibiting great irregularity, with a general tendency to increased weakness, and factors compelled to make liberal concessions when they force off small lots to close consignments, while the medium and better qualities were weaker without any material variation.

The sales for the past three days sum up 2400 bales (1650 on Wednesday, 450 yesterday, and 300 to-day), making an aggregate for the week of 3400 bales, against 5700 last week, and 6000 the week before.

Week's receipts 1626 bales, embracing 217 from other delivery ports (of which 191 from Mobile, 25 from Florida and 1 from Texas), and 1409 proper, against 2140 proper last week and 1939 last year. Total proper since August 31, 1,211,486 bales, against 1,223,691 last year—decrease 12,205.

The week's exports comprise 4543 bales, embracing 1229 to Liverpool and 3319 to New York, to which we have added 34 by rail.

The Exchange telegrams make the receipts at all the ports to-day, 1570 bales, against 1846 on last Friday and 3447 last year, and since Friday 8599 bales, against 9722 last week and 14,251 last year. Total since August 31, 3,729,620 bales, against 3,527,829 last year—increase 201,791.

Exports (Friday to Thursday inclusive) to Great Britain 3701 bales, against 14,199 last week and 21,376 last year, and to the continent —— bales, against 1279 last week and 2206 last year.

Stocks at all the delivery ports, made up to 12 M. 209,210 bales, against 220,506 last week and 192,020 last year.

The amount on shipboard, not cleared, going on board and engaged for shipment was set down at the opening this morning at 8500 bales, embracing 5000 bales for Liverpool, 1500 for Spain and 2000 for the North, which, when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement yesterday evening, leaves 21,500 bales to represent the quantity at the landing and in presses, unsold or awaiting orders.

The Exchange reports: "Sales 300 bales. Market quiet and irregular." Its quotation for good ordinary is reduced ⅛c; with no other change.
