cinnati; G. W. Baker, of Cincinnati; R. J. Moore, of Rosewood, Indiana.

The following are known to be lost: Miss Lizzie Garmer and Jacob Garmer, of Madison, Indiana; Miss Eichenrock; one German lady, not identified; one child found floating on a mattress, dead, not identified; Charles Bissinger, striker; J. R. Steward, of Madison; Charles Dittman, pilot, thought to be drowned; also Jacob Munzbacher and Rudolph Drucker. Eleven passengers and five of the crew can not be found.

Later accounts report that Professor Plato and D. N. White, of Louisville, were both drowned. Thirty-seven of the forty-five saved passengers came to Cincinnati; some of the most seriously injured are cared for at Aurora, the citizens of that place doing all they can for the distressed. To-morrow the river will be dragged to recover the bodies of the lost. The living occupy the care of the citizens to-day.

River pirates in skiffs are hovering around the wreck fishing up what they can to-night. The boat burned near the shore, the flames enveloping the shore side of the vessel. The passengers who jumped over on that side were nearly all lost, or badly burned. None who used life preservers are known to have been lost, and two ladies were saved without the use of preservers. Many sank by clinging to each other.

The scene of the wreck is thirty miles below here by river, and was above Loughrey Creek and a mile and a half below Aurora. The fire was discovered at about 4:40 A. M.; all the passengers were asleep. The crew don't know much about it. Heartlessness and heroism were displayed in awful contrast. The officers exerted themselves nobly to save the passengers. A man who claims to be the last to leave the boat says the last object he saw was a child three year old beyond his reach, alone, naked, dancing with pain, crying and shouting, the flames burning it. Not one of six small children aboard was saved. Two men were brought ashore dead. Four women, who were afterward saved, stood on the hurricane deck and shouted till hoarse imploring a river pirate on the Kentucky shore to come over and help them, but he refused. A brave man came down the river later, barely in time to save them, at his own great peril. One young man, Robert Moore, says a woman came to him with a child in her arms, and begged him to save them. He threw a mattress in the river, told her to jump. Half a dozen men seized the mattress. The woman rushed away half frantic and bewildered, and Moore lost sight of her. He thought she was burned with the boat. Captain David says the officers were awakened promptly, and ran at once to the rooms of the passengers and tried to save them. The following is the insurance on the boat against fire: Etna, $3000; American, $3500; Farmer's, Kenton, Louisville, and Merchants', $2500 each; Commercial, Eureka and National, $5000 each; Enterprise, $6000. Total, $37,500.

POLITICAL

Election Excitement at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, August 5.—There is more excitement over the election to-morrow than for years, the civil rights issue being squarely made. Both parties are apparently sanguine. Extra police have been ordered on duty to preserve order, and all saloons are ordered to be closed. No rioting is apprehended, though party feeling runs very high.

Throughout Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, August 5.—The approaching county elections throughout the State are causing a great deal of excitement, party lines in many counties being closely drawn on account of the civil rights bill.

The contest in this county between the Conservative nominees on one side and the Independents on the other, will, it is believed, cause both parties to have Unionists and ex-Confederates on their tickets.

The Democratic Majority in Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, August 5.—The Democrats carry Kentucky by 50,000 majority.

Nominated for Congress.

Hon. B. J. Robinson, of Decatur county, Indiana, was to-day nominated for Congress from the fourth district of the State.

FOREIGN.

The Americans Beat the English at Cricket.

LONDON, August 5.—The Americans beat the English at cricket, 107 to 105, with several American wickets standing.

Disraeli's Prediction.

During the discussion on the public worship regulation bill in the House of Commons, Disraeli, referring to the strife between the Church and State on the continent, expressed the conviction that, however tranquil might be the general state of Europe, there were agencies at work preparing a period of great disturbance.

The Budget Approved.

PARIS, August 5.—The Assembly to-day voted the entire budget, and President Buffet declared the session closed.

French Troops on the Frontier.

PARIS, August 5.—It is said the French troops guarding the Spanish frontier have been reinforced, and rigorous measures are ordered to prevent uniformed Carlists from crossing the boundary.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Excitement on 'Change—Forged Cotton Receipts.

ST. LOUIS, August 5.—There was a good deal of excitement on 'Change to-day, caused by the report that Alexander Dorman & Co. had forged cotton warehouse receipts to the amount of from $100,000 to $150,000 and that two or three banks of this city had been victimized to the extent of $40,000 or $50,000. Dorman and one or two other members of the firm have been arrested, and an investigation will be made this afternoon.

Stolen Hides.

GALVESTON, August 5.—A News Brownsville special says one of the mules which was stolen from the military reservation recently was in possession of the police in Matamoras yesterday. Stolen hides come back to Texas by mistake. The hides of some cows skinned in Brownsville have been reclaimed by the inspector. Within the last year several thousand hides stolen from Texas have been shipped from Matamoras to Bagdad, thence to Europe.

From the Sea.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 5.—The United States steamer Dispatch, with the Congressional Naval Committee, passed up this morning and spent the day at the Norfolk navy yard. She reached here at 4 P. M. and the party spent a couple of hours visiting the fort, after which they sailed for Philadelphia.

The ship St. Peter encountered heavy weather off Cape Horn, lost her main topgallant mast and upper yards.

Hailstorm in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, August 4.—The northwestern part of Minnesota was visited last evening by a violent hail storm, which did great damage to the crops in Meeker county. A dispatch says the destruction of the crops is total along the line of the storm. At Frontenac, on Lake Pepin, the Baptist Church was struck by lightning and destroyed.

The Franklin Savings Institution of Providence.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., August 5.—The managers of the Franklin Savings Institution, which was crippled last fall, by the Sprague failure, have decided to allow the Institution to go into the hands of a receiver, and be closed up. Complications arising from the death of Edwin Hoyt, in New York, have precipitated this result.

Railroad Works Burned.

RICHMOND, August 5.—The round house of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at Staunton was burned this morning. A number of engines at the time in the house were all got out but two, which were completely destroyed. The others were somewhat injured by the heat. The loss is estimated at $50,000. The fire originated in the blacksmith shop.

The Indians in Wyoming.

MARKETS.

Domestic Markets.

NEW YORK, August 5.—The Post's financial article says the Wall street market continues quiet to-day and generally firm. Reports in regard to the revival of trade and the steady recovery of the great industries from the depression of the panic are assuring. Government bonds are steady and firm, and prices generally a fraction higher than yesterday. State bonds at the first board were strong, with sales confined to Tennessees, Missouris and North Carolina sixes issued to North Carolina railroad companies. Railroad bonds are also strong and moderately active.

Money 2@3 for call loans; 5, 5½ and 7 for prime mercantile paper; gold paper 5/26 ₱ cent; time loans of money on approved collaterals are quoted as follows: 60 days 4 ₱ cent, up to December 1, 6 ₱ cent, and up to the close of the year 7 ₱ cent. At these rates no difficulty is experienced in getting almost any amount. Banks are stronger now than they have been for several years, and there is every reason to believe that the money market will work at least comfortably for borrowers during the remainder of the year.

Gold opened at 109⅞, and has sold at 109⅞@109¾. On gold loans the rates have been 2 ₱ cent for carrying. Foreign exchange is quoted for business at $4 87¼@4 87½ and $4 90 for prime bankers' bills on London. The stock market opened irregular, but in the main prices were higher. During the first hour there was an advance of 1¼@1¾ ₱ cent, except Wabash, St. Paul and Pacific Mail, which were highest at or near the opening. Since one o'clock prices have declined, and as we write are at the lowest of to day.

Death of a Washingtonian.

Colonel J. H. Darling, of this city, formerly of New Orleans, died suddenly at Harrisonburg, Virginia, on the twenty-ninth ultimo, of Bright's disease of the kidneys. He arrived there on last Tuesday night, on his way to Taylor Springs. He stopped at the Effinger House, and was so weak from the fatigue of traveling that he had to be assisted to his room. Unknown and unattended he retired to bed. About two hours after a servant passing his door was attracted by a noise within, and notified two of the guests of the house, who, on going to his room, found him bleeding from the mouth, in violent convulsions, and in a comatose condition. After medical relief was called he rallied, and communicated to his attendants who he was, etc., and presented a card of introduction to Dr. Gordon, from Dr. Walsh, of Washington City. After remaining conscious about an hour, he again fell in a stupor, in which condition he remained until about half-past four o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when quietly and without a struggle he breathed his last, surrounded by a number of persons who had shown a great deal of sympathy for him by many acts of devoted kindness, and who had cheerfully done all they could to relieve his sufferings.

Colonel Darling was about forty-four years of age. He was well known and highly esteemed and respected. He was a Master Mason, and his body was taken charge of by Rockingham Union Lodge, of Harrisonburg, to await the arrival of his friends.—Washington Chronicle.

Good Appointment.

We are pleased to learn that Major J. W. Wheaton has received the appointment of clerk of the court of the Tenth Judicial District. Major Wheaton is an old and highly respected citizen of Shreveport, and, moreover, is thoroughly competent for the position. Considering the amount of pressure brought to bear upon him, Governor Kellogg deserves great credit for the able and satisfactory selection he has made.—Shreveport Southwestern Telegram.

The New South, published at Natchez, Mississippi, speaking of the Louisiana insanity, says: "This White League business convinces us that all of the fools did not get killed in the recent war. We have a few of them in this State, but most of them, we think, are residents of Vicksburg."

With more encouraging telegrams from Liverpool and New York, the market opened with more inquiry, but the movement was checked by the scant supply offering, particularly of the kinds most in request, and in many cases factors asking above the limits of the pending orders, and in fact above the ruling rates. The sales during the morning were consequently confined to a little over 200 bales, but later in the day the movement became more animated and the entire business summed up the amount noted above. We find rather more disagreement with regard to classification, some factors being more rigid than others, and varying in their judgment, according to the market for which they are filling orders. Good ordinary sold at 14¾c; low middling at 15¾, 15⅝, and even as low as 15½c, and middling, high style, at 16¾c. Owing to the limited number of buyers, factors who wish to close consignments are generally compelled to accept inside figures, while a large part of the limited supply offering is held at outside rates or even a fraction more, which buyers are sometimes compelled to pay in order to fill their orders. Hence the wide range in quotations.

The stock on shipboard, not cleared, going on board and engaged for shipment was set down at the opening this morning at 6000 bales, embracing 4000 bales for Liverpool and 2000 for the North, which, when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement yesterday evening, leaves 14,390 bales to represent the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.

The Exchange reports: "Sales 650 bales; demand good." Its quotations are reduced ⅛c on all grades except low ordinary.
