TUESDAY EVENING, September 15, 1874.

COTTON—The movement was entirely suspended to-day, at least not a sale was reported. The Cotton Exchange was closed at 1 P. M. "as a mark of sympathy with the movement to establish the legitimate government of Louisiana." During the morning there was no inquiry and it was supposed that something might be done, but factors were unwilling to uncover their samples or name a price and buyers withdrew.

The sales of the past three days were confined to 550 bales (300 on Saturday and 250 on Monday) against 1100 for the corresponding time last week and 700 the week before.

Receipts since Friday evening 1028 bales, embracing 832 from other delivery ports (of which 473 from Mobile and 359 from Texas) and 2496 proper, against 1131 last week, and 2222 last year. Total proper since August 31, 5957 bales, against 5291 last year—increase 666 bales.

The exports have been confined to 1273 bales to New York.

The amount on shipboard not cleared, going on board and engaged for shipment was set down at the opening this morning at 20000 bales, embracing 1500 for the North and 500 to Havre, which when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement yesterday evening, leaves 13,200 bales to represent the quantity at the landing and in presses unsold or awaiting orders.
