MONETARY.

NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN OFFICE, MONDAY EVENING, December 21, 1874.

The money market continues quiet and easy, with moderate demand for discounts at the banks, limited offerings on the street, and without quotable variation in rates of commercial paper. We continue to quote first class paper and general loans of sixty days at 8@9 ⅌ cent ⅌ annum, while nothing is reported at that rate, on which to base quotations.

The following were to-day elected directors of the New Orleans City Railroad Company: Messrs. Moore, J. F. Coulon, J. M. Demarest, H. Gally, J. Beck, P. Irwin, James Jackson, Charles Maurian, M. O'Brien, Thomas Simms, J. H. Stauffer and J. Wintz.

We opened at 111⅛@111½, against 111⅛ at New York, and, after a fair business, closed at 111⅝, bid, against 111⅝ in that market. The sales footed up $52,000, embracing $2000 at 111⅛; $10,000 and $20,000 at 111⅜; $8000 at 111⅜@ and $5000 at 111⅝.

No sales of silver were reported. American half dollars are still quoted at 108@108½, while Mexican dollars now rule 97@97½ gold.

Under the influence of the advance in gold the ruling exchange was about 1 10 ⅌ cent higher. The movement was of liberal extent, amounting to $34,500, comprising £35,000 bill of lading at 5; £1500, £2000 and £3000 do at ⅌ $5 25½; £3000 and £5 25¾; £5000 bill of lading and £30,000 do at ⅌ $5 25¾; £2000 and £3000 At clear sight at ⅌ $5 25@26 36; £2000 At clear sight at ⅌ 39; £1500 At clear at —, and £2000 bank at ⅌ —.

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY EVENING, December 21, 1874.

COTTON—The sales to-day (not including 1400 of late on Saturday) embraced 4350 bales at irregular and easier prices, without requiring any change in our quotations, except a slight modification in strict ordinary, good ordinary and good ordinary tinging. We give also the figures and full report of the Exchange, as below:

There is nothing in the dispatches to stimulate the trade, and the market opened without animation and continued quiet throughout the day, buyers being willing to go on unless at further concession, and factors reluctant, in the face of the market being off at the receipts, to give way. Under these circumstances prices exhibited considerable irregularity with a general tendency to inside rates, but without requiring any change in quotations, except the slight modification noted above. Strict middling sold at 13⅞ and 13½c. Good staple cotton appeared to be in only moderate request, but it could hardly be bought unless at outside figures or more.

The amount on shipboard not cleared, going on board, and engaged for shipment, was set down at the opening this morning at 102,000 bales, embracing 39,000 for Liverpool, 27,000 for Havre, 4000 for Spain, 2000 for the Mediterranean, 7000 for Reval, 20,000 for the North Sea and 3000 bales for the North, which, when deducted from the stock on hand by our running statement Saturday evening, leaves 101,100 bales to represent the activity at the landing and in presses unsold or pending orders.

The Exchange reports: "Sales 5100 bales, including 1350 after 3 P. M. on Saturday. Market easier." The quotation for good ordinary is reduced ⅛c.
