SPECIAL ORDER.

The President directed the Secretary to read the veto message, as follows:

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Executive Department, New Orleans, January 4, 1875.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate:

I return without my approval a bill originating in the Senate, to limit the fees of the district attorney of the parish of Orleans. This was one of a series of reform measures reducing the expenses of the city which I submitted to the last Legislature. Had they all passed, this bill would have received my approval with the rest, and would have then been fair and just; but as the Legislature refused to reduce the fees of the civil sheriff, amounting to nearly $100,000 a year, in cash, and the fees of the criminal sheriff, amounting to about the same sum in city scrip, I think, under these circumstances, to reduce the fees of the district attorney, which do not exceed $7000 a year, would be an act of injustice to a faithful and efficient officer.

This view was concurred in by the late City Council, to whom I submitted the bill.

WILLIAM P. KELLOGG, Governor.

On motion of Mr. Blunt the veto message was postponed till 1 P. M.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Mr. Allain submitted the petition of Hon. John Gair, contesting the seat in the Senate of Hon. John E. Breaux.

The same was read and referred to the Committee on Contested Elections.

By Mr. Young:

Of a bill to be entitled an act empowering the committing magistrates of the parish of Orleans to issue warrants on Sunday for the arrest of persons violating the laws of the State of Louisiana.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The following veto message of the Governor was taken up and read in part:

STATE OF LOUISIANA, Executive Department, New Orleans, January 4, 1875.

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate:

I veto an act originating in the Senate entitled an act to revive, amend and re-enact sections one and two of No. 19 of 1873, entitled an act to amend sections seven, eight and seventy, to regulate the conduct and maintain the freedom and purity of elections.

The changes made by this act in the election law are, in my judgment, not such as would maintain the freedom and purity of elections.

WILLIAM P. KELLOGG, Governor.

Mr. Burch moved that the further reading of the veto message and bill be dispensed with, and that the same be postponed until Saturday, the thirtieth day of January, at 1 P. M.

Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Wharton, the resolution and amendment was laid on the table.

The following resolution was taken up and read:

Resolution fixing a day of sine die adjournment of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, In view of the disturbed and unsettled condition of affairs in this State, and the poverty and inability of the taxpayers to settle their dues; and

Mr. Burch made the point of order that the motion to commit was pending.

The President sustained the point of order.

Mr. Blunt moved to amend by instructing the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform to report, by bill or otherwise, what reform measures they may deem necessary.

Mr. Sypher raised the point of order that the motion to commit must be disposed of before the motion to amend could be entertained by rule sixteen.

The President decided the amendment was not germain, that the resolution was the only thing to be referred to the committee, upon which they were to report. That such instructions are entirely new matter, and have no relation to the resolution.

The resolution was referred to the Committe on Retrenchment and Reform.

The following resolution was taken up and read:
