AN ACT

Making an appropriation of one hundred and fifty eight thousand dollars out of the general funds in the State treasury, or received in the treasury during the year 1875, for the payment of the mileage and per diem of members, salaries of officers and employes and contingent expenses of the General Assembly of Louisiana, for the regular session of 1875; directing the Auditor of Public Accounts to issue warrants to the chairman of the Contingent Expenses Committee of the House, and to the chairman of the Committee on Auditing and Supervising the Accounts of the Senate on the Treasurer, and making such warrants receivable for State licenses; directing the Treasurer of the State to receive such warrants in settlement with tax collectors, and to provide for the disbursement of the amount appropriated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly convened, That the sum of one hundred and fifty-eight thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury to the credit of the general fund, or that may be received in the treasury to the credit of the general fund, not otherwise appropriated, for the payment of the mileage and per diem of members, salaries of officers and employes and contingent expenses of the General Assembly, during its regular session or 1875, said sum to be appropriated as follows, to wit: To pay mileage and per diem of members, salaries of officers and employes of the House of Representatives, seventy two thousand dollars; to pay contingent expenses of the House of Representatives, including furniture, etc., for the use of the House of Representatives, twenty-eight thousand dollars. To pay mileage and per diem of members, salaries of officers and employes of the Senate, thirty-nine thousand dollars; to pay contingent expenses of the Senate, including furniture, etc., for the use of the Senate, nineteen thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That it shall be the duty of the Committee on Auditing and Supervising the Expenses of the State, and the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the House of Representatives to issue, when demanded, and upon presentation of the proper evidence, a certificate certifying the amount due to each member of their respective houses for his mileage and per diem, and to each of the officers and employes of their respective houses his salary, which certificate thus issued shall be approved on the part of the Senate by its presiding officer, and on the part of the House of Representatives by the Speaker thereof; and the Auditor of Public Accounts shall and is hereby directed and required to issue his warrants for the amount of said certificates on the Treasurer, and the Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the said warrants, and the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the House, and the Committee on Auditing and Supervising Accounts of Senate shall issue no certificate in excess of the amount appropriatad by this act, and that no warrants, legislative vouchers or other evidences of indebtedness issued prior to January 1, 1875, shall be paid out of the appropriation made in this act.

SEC. 3 Be it further enacted, etc., That the chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the House, and the chairman of the Committee on Auditing and Supervising Accounts of the Senate shall draw a certificate in their own favor, approved by the presiding officers of each House, on the Auditor of Public Accounts, for the amount of the appropriation made in section one of this act for contingent expenses, and the Auditor shall issue his warrants in such sums as the respective chairmen shall indicate, and the chairmen of said committees shall issue a certificate to each contingent creditor, which shall be approved by the presiding officers of the Senate and House, and the said chairmen will then pay such certificate out of the contingent funds in their hands; and be it further enacted, that the warrants issued in accordance with section two of this act are hereby made receivable for all licenses due the State during the year 1875, and the several tax collectors throughout the State are hereby directed to receive the same in settlement for licenses, and the State Treasurer shall receive the said warrants as cash in making settlement with tax collectors.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, etc., That the certificates issued by the chairman of the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the House, approved by the Speaker of the House, and the certificates issued by the Committee on Auditing and Supervising the Accounts of the Senate, approved by the presiding officer of the Senate, in accordance with section two of this act shall be considered by the Auditor of Public Accounts of the State as full and final evidence of a legal debt against the State, and the Auditor shall, upon presentation of such certificate, immediately issue a warrant on the Treasurer of the State for the amount of the certificate or certificates so presented, the warrants to be drawn on the funds appropriated in section one of this act.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, etc., That at the next session of the General Assembly the Auditor of Public Accounts shall present to the said General Assembly a detailed, itemized account of every warrant issued by him for the mileage and per diem and salary of the officers of the present General Assembly, and the Committee on Auditing and Supervising the Accounts of the Senate, and the Committee on Contingent Expenses of the House shall, at the next session of the General Assembly, present to their respective houses a detailed, itemized account of each and ever voucher issued by them respectively, the number, amount, in whose favor drawn, and the person drawing said voucher; and that said itemized accounts, after said presentation, shall be compared with the books of the Auditor of Public Accounts and of said committees and reported back to both branches of the General Assembly.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, etc., That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act take effect from and after its passage.

AN ACT

Changing the venue in the case of the State of Louisiana versus Alexander W. Kinchen from the Superior Criminal Court, parish of Orleans, to the Sixth Judicial District Court, in and for St. Tammany parish, and instructing certain officers in regard to said change.

WHEREAS, Alexander W. Kinchen was indicted in the Sixth Judicial District Court for the parish of Livingston for the crime of murder; and

Whereas, The venue in said case was changed to the Superior Criminal Court of the parish of Orleans, where it has been pending more than one year; and

Whereas, The witnesses, both for the State and for the defendant reside in Livingston parish, are poor and unable to afford the expense of attending the trial of said cause in New Orleans, on which account there has been great delay in trying said cause; and

Whereas, St. Tammany parish is the same judicial district with Livingston parish, and the witnesses in said cause could easily attend the trial in St. Tammany parish; now therefore SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana in General Assembly convened, That the venue in the case of the State vs. Alexander W. Kinchen, now pending in the Superior Criminal Court of the parish of Orleans, be and the same is hereby changed to the Sixth Judicial District Court in and for St. Tammany parish, there to be finally tried and disposed of according to law.

SEC. 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That the clerk of said Superior Criminal Court and the criminal sheriff of the parish of Orleans are directed and commanded forthwith to send and transmit to the clerk of the district court of St. Tammany parish the record in said case, and that the said clerk is directed to receive said record and enter said case upon the docket of his court.

SEC. 3. Be it resolved further, etc., That this joint resolution take effect from and after its passage.
