ELECTION NOTICE.

STATE OF NEW YORK.
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.
Albany, July 29, 1913.

To the Custodian of Primary Records of the County of New York.

Sir: Notice is Hereby Given that, at the General Election to be held in this State on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November next (November 4th), the following officers may be lawfully voted for, to wit:

A Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the place of Edgar M. Cullen.

An Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the place of John Clinton Gray, whose term of office will expire on the last day of December next.

Two Justices of the Supreme Court for the First Judicial District, in the place of Eugene A. Philbin and Bartow S. Weeks, whose term of office will expire on the last day of December next.

A Senator for the 21st Senate District, composed of part of the County of Bronx and part of the County of New York, to fill an unexpired term ending December 31st 1914.

30 Members of Assembly, and one from part of Bronx County and part of New York County.

A Judge of General Sessions, in the place of Warren L. Foster.

A Register, in the place of Max S. Grifenhagen.

A Sheriff, in the place of Julius Harburger.

A County Clerk, in the place of William F. Schneider.

A District Attorney, in the place of Charles S. Whitman.

A Justice of the City Court, in the place of Robert L. Luce.

All whose terms of office will expire on the last day of December next.

At the said General Election there will be submitted to the people for approval the following proposed amendments to the constitution:

ABSTRACT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

At the said General Election there will be submitted to the people for approval the following proposed amendment to Article One of the Constitution, hereinafter designated as Amendment Number One, in relation to the method of ascertaining compensation on taking private property for public use, and empowering the Legislature to authorize municipalities to condemn property in excess of the amount actually needed for public parks, streets and places.

AMENDMENT NUMBER ONE.

Amending Section Seven of Article One of the Constitution.

Section 7. When private property shall be taken for any public use, the compensation to be made therefor, when such compensation is not made by the state, shall be ascertained by a jury, or by the supreme court with or without a jury, but not with a referee, or by not less than three commissioners appointed by a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. Private roads may be opened up in the manner to be prescribed by law; but in every case the necessity of the road and the amount of all damage to be sustained by the opening thereof shall be first determined by a jury of freeholders, and such amount, together with the expenses of the proceeding, shall be paid by the person to be benefited. General laws may be passed permitting the owners or occupants of agricultural lands to construct and maintain for the drainage thereof necessary drains, ditches and dykes upon the lands of others, under proper restrictions and with just compensation, but no special laws shall be enacted for such purposes.

The legislature may authorize cities to take more land and property than is needed for actual construction in the laying out, widening, extending or relocating parks, public places, highways or streets; provided, however, that the additional land and property so authorized to be taken shall be no more than sufficient to form suitable building sites abutting on such park, public place, highway or street. After so much of the land and property has been appropriated for such park, public place, highway or street as is needed therefor, the remainder may be sold or leased.

ABSTRACT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

At the said General Election there is also to be submitted to the people for approval the following proposed amendment to Article One of the Constitution, by adding a new section to be known as Section Nineteen, hereinafter designated as Amendment Number Two, providing that there shall be no constitutional limitation upon the power of the Legislature to enact laws for the protection of the lives, safety or health of employees; for the payment of compensation for injuries to or death of employees resulting from such injuries; and for the adjustment of issues arising under such legislation.

AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO.

Adding Section Nineteen to Article One of the Constitution.

Section 19. Nothing contained in this constitution shall be construed to limit the power of the legislature to enact laws for the protection of the lives, health, or safety of employees; or for the payment, either by employers, or by employers and employees or otherwise, either directly or through a state or other system of insurance or otherwise, of compensation for injuries to employees or for death of employees resulting from such injuries without regard to fault as a cause thereof, except where the injury is occasioned by the wilful intention of the injured employee to bring about the injury or death of himself or of another, or where the injury results solely from the intoxication of the injured employee while on duty, or for the adjustment, determination and settlement, with or without trial by jury, of issues which may arise under such legislation; or to provide that the right of such compensation and the remedy therefor shall be exclusive of all other rights and remedies for injuries to employees or for death resulting from such injuries; or to provide that the amount of such compensation for death shall not exceed a fixed or determinable sum; provided that all moneys paid by an employer to his employees or their legal representatives, by reason of the enactment of any of the laws herein authorized, shall be held to be a proper charge in the cost of operating the business of the employer.

ABSTRACT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

At the said General Election there is also to be submitted to the people for approval the following proposed amendment to Section Fourteen of Article Six of the Constitution, hereinafter designated as Amendment Number Three, providing for an increase of two in the number of county judges in Kings County; also providing that the Legislature may increase the number of county judges in any county not to exceed a total of one judge for every 200,000 population or major fraction thereof; prescribing the time of election of additional county judges, and providing that the term of all county judges shall begin on the first day of January following their election.

AMENDMENT NUMBER THREE.

Amending Section Fourteen of Article Six of the Constitution.

Section 14. The existing county courts are continued, and the judges thereof now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms. In the county of Kings there shall be [two] four county judges. The number of county judges in any county may also be increased, from time to time, by the legislature, to such number that the total number of county judges in any one county shall not exceed one for every two hundred thousand, or major fraction thereof, of the population of such county, [and the additional county judges shall be chosen at the next general election held after the adoption of this article.] The additional county judges in the county of Kings shall be chosen at the general election held in the year after the adoption of this amendment. The additional county judges whose offices may be created by the legislature shall be chosen at the general election held in the first odd-numbered year after the creation of such office. [The successors of the several] All county judges, including successors to existing judges, shall be chosen by the electors of the counties for the term of six years and including the first day of January following their election. County courts shall have the powers and jurisdiction they now possess, and also original jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money only, where the defendants reside in the county, and in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars. The legislature may hereafter enlarge or restrict the jurisdiction of the county courts, provided, however, that their jurisdiction shall not be so extended as to authorize an action therein for the recovery of money only, in which the sum demanded exceeds two thousand dollars, or in which any person not a resident of the county is a defendant. Courts of sessions, except in the county of New York, are abolished from and after the last day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-five. All the jurisdiction of the court of sessions in each county, except the county of New York, shall thereupon be vested in the county court thereof, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts of sessions shall be transferred to said county courts for hearing and determination. Every county judge shall perform such duties as they may be required by law. His salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. A county judge of any county may hold county courts in any other county when requested by the judge of such other county.

ABSTRACT OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR.

At the said General Election there is also to be submitted to the people for approval the following proposed amendment to Section Seven of Article Seven of the Constitution, hereinafter designated as Amendment Number Four, providing for the use by the State of not to exceed three per centum of the forest preserve lands for the construction and maintenance of State-controlled reservoirs for municipal water supply, for the canals of the State and for the regulation of the flow of streams, and imposing regulations for the apportionment between property and municipalities benefited of the expense thereof.

AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR.

Amending Section Seven of Article Seven of the Constitution.

Section 7. Forest preserve. The lands of the state, now owned or hereafter acquired [] constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. They shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, or be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed. But the legislature may by general laws provide for the use of not exceeding three per centum of such lands for the construction and maintenance of reservoirs for municipal water supply, for the canals of the state and to regulate the flow of streams. Such reservoirs shall be constructed, owned and controlled by the state, but such work shall not be undertaken until after the boundaries and high flow lines thereof shall have been accurately surveyed and fixed, and after public notice, hearing and determination that such lands are required for such public use. The expense of any such improvements shall be apportioned on the public and private property and municipalities benefited to the extent of the benefits received. Any such reservoir shall always be operated by the state and the legislature shall provide for a charge upon the property and municipalities benefited for a reasonable return to the state upon the value of the rights and property of the state used and the services of the state rendered, which shall be fixed for terms of not exceeding ten years and be readjustable at the end of any term. Unsanitary conditions shall not be created or continued by any such public works. A violation of any of the provisions of this section may be restrained at the suit of the people or, with the consent of the supreme court in appellate division, on notice to the attorney-general at the suit of any citizen.

Given under my hand and seal of office of the Secretary of State, at [Seal.] the City of Albany, this twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

MITCHELL MAY,
Secretary of State.
