MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

MONETARY.

NEW ORLEANS REPUBLICAN OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 5, 1876.

We noticed a slight increase in the offerings for discount at several of the banks, but no change in the demand on the street. Under the fluctuations at New York gold showed more irregularity and only a moderate movement. Foreign exchange also was quiet, and after some fluctuations closed at previous rates. The movement in New York sight was quite limited and rates were unchanged. Only a few sales of stocks were reported. A liberal business was done in State consols, but at lower rates, with the market closing at a decline of ¾@1 per cent from yesterday. City bonds exhibited but little animation and were quoted lower.

The Carrollton railroad has declared a dividend of 2½ per cent from the profits for the past three months and made a satisfactory addition to its surplus. We learn that in future it will continue to divide quarterly in which will make the stock more attractive to those who depend upon dividends to meet current expenses.

We continue to quote exceptional commercial paper at —@8 ⅌ cent ⅌ annum discount; Al do at 9@10, and second grade at 12@13; first class mortgage paper at 9@9½, and second grade entirely nominal.

COMMERCIAL.

COTTON—The sales to-day (not including 50 and 500 additional yesterday, when the actual business was 2600 bales), embraced 1900 bales at irregular and easier prices, requiring a pretty general reduction in our quotations of ⅛c. We give also the figures and report of the Exchange, as below:

AMERICAN STANDARD OF CLASSIFICATION.

The market continued inanimate throughout the day, and in order to effect sales, factors were compelled to make further concessions, requiring the reduction in our quotations noticed above. In fact exceptional transactions occurred at a still greater falling off, without which sales could not have been pressed. At the same time, some brokers were unable to execute special orders at the ruling rates. The dispatches reported Liverpool with a downward tendency, but without any quotable falling off, and with sales of 8000 bales, and New York dull at previous rates, for spots, and 1-32@⅛c lower for futures. Sterling showed some irregularity, but closed at previous rates.

The Exchange gives the amount on shipboard not cleared (before to-day exports), 87,491 bales, embracing 42,272 for Liverpool, 24,096 for Havre, 9356 for the North Sea, 9168 for Bremen, 1083 for Spain, and 2517 for coastwise ports, leaving in presses, agreeably to its account at 12 M., 159,123 bales. If we deduct from this the amount sold but not yet delivered, the balance will be about 134,000 bales to represent the quantity unsold, a large part of which is withheld from the market, in transit or not yet sampled.

The Exchange reports: "Sales 2400 bales. Market irregular." Its quotations are reduced ⅛c in all grades except low ordinary and good middling. Its sales are computed from 3 P. M. yesterday to 3 P. M. to-day.

State consols were rather irregular and closed at 66¼ bid, and 66¾ asked, against 67¼@67⅛ yesterday, a decline of ¾@1 ⅌ cent. The only sale not reported at the Exchange was $20,000 at 66¼.

Only a moderate business was done in city bonds, and the market showed a marked falling off from yesterday's quotations. At the close premium issues were quoted at 36¾@36½; old currency sevens, 35@35½; new do 37¾@37⅛; gold bearing sevens, Administration series, 37½@38; and do drainage, 38¼@39. No sales were reported except at the Exchange.

No sales of city scrip were reported, except at the Exchange, and no Metropolitan Police warrants or State warrants.

COMMERCIAL.

The market continued inanimate throughout the day, and in order to effect sales, factors were compelled to make further concessions, requiring the reduction in our quotations noticed above. In fact exceptional transactions occurred at a still greater falling off, without which sales could not have been pressed. At the same time, some brokers were unable to execute special orders at the ruling rates. The dispatches reported Liverpool with a downward tendency, but without any quotable falling off, and with sales of 8000 bales, and New York dull at previous rates, for spots, and 1-32@⅛c lower for futures. Sterling showed some irregularity, but closed at previous rates.

The Exchange gives the amount on shipboard not cleared (before to-day exports), 87,491 bales, embracing 42,272 for Liverpool, 24,096 for Havre, 9356 for the North Sea, 9168 for Bremen, 1083 for Spain, and 2517 for coastwise ports, leaving in presses, agreeably to its account at 12 M., 159,123 bales. If we deduct from this the amount sold but not yet delivered, the balance will be about 134,000 bales to represent the quantity unsold, a large part of which is withheld from the market, in transit or not yet sampled.

The Exchange reports: "Sales 2400 bales. Market irregular." Its quotations are reduced ⅛c in all grades except low ordinary and good middling. Its sales are computed from 3 P. M. yesterday to 3 P. M. to-day.
