THE PEOPLE'S PAPER. ONLY METROPOLITAN DOLLAR WEEKLY. THE NEW YORK SUN FOR 1869, CHARLES A. DANA, Editor. A first-class journal, independent but not neutral in politics, publishes three editions—Daily, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly, at $6, $4, and $1 per year. NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE. THE WEEKLY SUN is prepared with special reference to the wants of Country Readers. News of the week, from all parts of the globe, is condensed for it by experienced and skilful editors. A selection from the most interesting editorial articles of THE DAILY SUN will form one of its constant features, while the most instructive and entertaining miscellany will also occupy a large portion of its columns. Its CATTLE, PRODUCE, AND GENERAL MARKET REPORTS will be found all that can be desired. As a general FAMILY NEWSPAPER, it will aim to be particularly acceptable. It will also furnish accurate and fresh reports of all matters of importance to THE FARMER AND GARDENER. This department is under the supervision of Mr. ANDREW S. FULLER, the well-known horticulturist, who will notonly write on the subjects in question, but will also attend to the meetings of the FARMERS and FRUIT-GROWERS' CLUBS, and will daguerreotype their proceedings for the benefit of our subscribers. Mr. FULLER, who is a hearty lover of his profession, makes to his readers the following LIBERAL PROPOSITION: "To every subscriber who sends one dollar for the WEEKLY, or two dollars for the SEMI-WEEKLY SUN, we will forward by mail, post-paid, any one lot of the following named vines or plants (many of which sell at retail at about the price charged for the paper), as gifts, as soon as the ground opens in the spring. In selecting the Gifts it will only be necessary to mention the Number as given below. 1. Two Concord Grape vines. 2. Two Hartford Prolific Grape vines. 3. One Delaware Grape vine. 4. One Iona Grape vine. 5. Two Early Wilson Blackberry. 6. Two Kittatinny Blackberry. 7. One Davidson's Thornless Raspberry. 8. One Seneca Black Raspberry. 9. One Mammoth Cluster Raspberry. 10.
