BOTH BIT THE DUST

An Outlaw Shot by a Pursuing Officer

RETURNS IT WITH SAD EFFECT

The Ball Passing Through His Heart Killing Him Instantly—The Outlaw is Dying.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 26.—Monday in Claiborne county, near Cumberland Gap, Deputies Thompson and Williams attempted to arrest two outlaws and horsethieves. A desperate running fight occurred and one of the outlaws was shot from his horse. After he fell he took deliberate aim and shot Deputy Thompson through the heart. The other outlaw was then captured, along with the fellow who had been wounded. The body of the dead deputy and the two prisoners were taken to Cumberland Gap. The wounded outlaw is said to be dying. The name of neither is known. It was reported here about midnight that a mob was about to lynch the men under arrest. No particulars have as yet been received.

IRON COMPANIES UNITE.

Consolidation Alleged to Be Necessary—Depression in Steel and Iron.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 26.—Final steps were taken Monday in the consolidation of the Forward, Riverside and Top mills, thus constituting the largest iron and steel manufacturing company west of the Alleghenies. The necessity for the consolidation, the firms state, arises from the depression in the iron and steel business. The combination is believed to be the first step toward uniting all the iron and steel plants in this vicinity. The combined capital will be nearly $10,000,000.

A Favorite with the Students.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 26.—"Aunt" Clara Voorhees, the oldest colored woman in this part of the state, died Monday at the age of 97. She was known to every scholar at Princeton college for the past sixty years. She had lived all her lifetime with President Carnahan, had always cooked the big dinners on all the big days of the college. Her name was known far and wide, and at the present time few graduates living will remember the delicacies for the composition of which she was famous.

Chasing a Gang of Thieves.

LIMA, O., Jan. 26.—The southeastern part of this county which has been terrorized for several months by an organized gang of robbers, was visited again Sunday night and several hundred dollars' worth of meal, grain, etc., was stolen from the vicinity of South Warsaw. A large body of armed men is scouring the country in search of the thieves. They will be spared the delay of a trial if they are overtaken, as the people are determined to put them out of the way.

Stock Dying of Hydrophobia.

CORINTH, Ia., Jan. 26.—A mad dog ran through this section some weeks ago, biting and snapping on all sides. Up to this time a dozen head of horses, cattle and hogs have died of a disease resembling hydrophobia. State Veterinarian Stalker pronounces it the genuine malady, and, as there is no knowing to what extent the stock of the community has been inoculated, there is much uneasiness.
