SUNBEAMS.

—Edwin Booth is said to have acted the part of Hamlet 1,200 times.

—A druggist in his advertisement claims to be "one of the pillers of society."

—Hamburg recovered from the great conflagration of 1842 in less than two years.

—Many Swedes are coming from the West to settle among their countrymen in Maine.

—A faro bank for females has been established in San Francisco, with a capital of $100,000.

—A South Carolina paper disrespectfully calls its paragraphs of North Carolina news, "tar drops."

—All sorts of fall produce, except apples, are abundant in market, and cheaper than for several years.

—The Crown Prince of Prussia declined, last year, the dedication of ninety-two books and fifteen works of art.

—The sham military campaign in England appears to have developed a decided weakness in the staff departments.

—An opponent of the public school system insists that if you teach a boy to write, he is much less likely to make his mark in after life.

—Among the largest quantities of single articles imported into this country at the present time, are railroad iron, furs, sugar, human hair, and wine.

—A Tennessee girl broke an arm on the eve of her wedding day, but went through the ceremony with her arm in a sling at the appointed hour.

—A few hours after the Ville de Paris left France, on one of her late trips, a child was born in the cabin. Very appropriately, the captain left mother and child at Brest.

—The head porter of the Parker House, Boston, is erecting a handsome granite block intended for a hotel with restaurants on the European plan. "Jerry," the boot-black of the Parker House, will soon have a residence on Beacon street.

—A guild of ladies is proposed in England, under the leadership of Miss Harrison Swange, Dorsetshire, "to promote modesty of dress, to do away with extravagance, and substitute the neatness and sobriety suitable to Christian women."

—"Indian Joe," a Piute medicine man, well known among the whites, was stoned to death by his tribe, having failed to restore to health two sick Indians. The practice of medicine among Indians evidently has its unpleasant features.

—"The first bird I shot in Ameriky," said an Irish sportsman, "was a fork-spine-pork-up so. I tread him under a hay stack, and shot him with a barn shovel. The first time I hit him I missed him, and the second time I hit him I hit him in the same place where I missed him the first time."

—A Rochester, N. H., man was the victim of a funny act of absent-mindedness the other day. He was on his way to leave town, and when he got to the station he happened to think that he had left his watch behind. He instantly took his watch from his pocket to see if he had time to return and get it.

—Christ Church, Boston, is the oldest church edifice in that city, its corner-stone having been laid in 1728. When George II was King, he manifested his interest in Christ Church by giving it a communion service, a pulpit Bible, and prayer books, all of which are still used. It had an organ in 1736, and the oldest chime of bells in the country, which are still musical and serviceable, was placed in its tower in 1744. It was the fashionable church of Boston 125 years ago.

—The London Lancet calls attention to the enormous manufacture of the new sedative drug, chloral. It states that it is sold by tons a week, and quotes a letter from Baron Liebig, affirming that one German chemist manufactures and sells half a ton every week. Of course, no such quantity is used in medicine. Taking chloral is the new and popular vice, particularly among women, and is doing at least as much harm as alcohol. Those who begin its use often grow so addicted to it that they pass their lives in a sort of continuous intoxication. Chloral drunkards will soon be an admitted variety of the species.

—The people of San Joaquin Valley, California are in a state of great destitution. Most of the settlers have been unable to pay for their land, and while they may find little difficulty in getting an extension of time, they cannot mortgage land to which they have no clear title, as a basis of credit. Not less than 2,500 people are so destitute that they cannot procure seed for sowing their fields. While contributing liberally to the relief of Chicago, San Francisco seems to have overlooked misery nearer home.

—Some Yankee painters were employed in a frontier Canadian town to decorate the walls of a ball-room in a tavern. As no designs were given them, they followed their own patriotic instincts and style, and painted in a sort of rough fresco the American shield, with eagle, arrows, and all, and the motto, "E Pluribus Unum." The publican returned just as the painters had finished their work and were eating their supper. After surveying their design, he made short work of it. He kicked them out of the house without a shilling of pay, and telling them he'd teach them better than to insult him and the Queen by painting "that cussed great Pluribus Unum over his fireplace."

—Wilson was not the first convict in the Connecticut State Prison to take a bloody revenge for the cruelty of his keepers. About ten years ago a young Irishman of New Haven named Gerald Toole was sentenced to imprisonment for life for incendiarism. He had never made a shoe in his life, and was put to work in the shoe shop. Not being able to perform his allotted task to the satisfaction of the overseer, he was flogged day after day with leather thongs. One evening as the overseer Doolittle, and his assistant were stripping their victim, the Warden entered the room. Toole begged him to interfere, but the Warden told Doolittle to go on with the flogging. As the lash descended, the victim turned upon his tormentors with a small shoe knife he had concealed in his waistband, and inflicted a mortal wound on the Warden. Toole was hung, and three years after the owner of the house Toole had been charged with burning, confessed on his dying bed that he had himself committed the crime.

Real Estate.

FLUSHING LOTS FOR $200 TO $350.—A beautiful tract of land in the most improving part of the village of Flushing, for nearly 40 years the property of a gentleman deceased, on long the present year, is now being graded and subdivided into building lots, which for accessibility, cheapness, and desirability are unequalled by any offering or that have ever been put upon the market in the vicinity of New York. Discriminating persons of moderate means too slim to secure a home at a low price and yet away from nuisances and shanties, are especially invited to examine this property, which is on high ground and surrounded by elegant improvements. Some of the lots front on the main street of the town, a broad avenue whose lofty trees shade in summer the finished walks leading from the adjacent depot. The prices at which these lots are being sold offer an opportunity for investment seldom equalled. The completion of Mr. Stewart's great railroad, now rapidly progressing, will doubtless double the value of this property within six months, as the depot has been located a few steps to the south, leaving the property between the new depot and the present centre of the village. Prices $200 to $350. Terms easy. For maps and full information apply to the undersigned (the owner), where an agent will be in attendance each morning from 10 to 11 o'clock to accompany applicants to view the property without expense to them; or he will call at your residence for the purpose at any hour which requested.

Helmbold's Bucku.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED,

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable.

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING, OR HAVE SUFFERED, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, DEBILITATED, EASILY TIRED?

Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does YOUR LIVER, or URINARY ORGANS, or YOUR KIDNEYS, FREQUENTLY GET OUT OF ORDER?

IS YOUR URINE sometimes thick, milky, or ropy, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood a while? Do you have spells of SHORT BREATHING or DYSPEPSIA? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of FAINTING, OR RUSHES OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD? IS YOUR MEMORY IMPAIRED? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? IS YOUR SLEEP BROKEN OR RESTLESS? IS THE LUSTRE OF YOUR EYE AS BRILLIANT? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? ARE YOUR SPIRITS DULL and flagging, GIVEN TO FITS OF MELANCHOLY? If so, do not lay it to your LIVER OR DYSPEPSIA. HAVE YOU RESTLESS NIGHTS? Your BACK WEAK, your KNEES WEAK, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to DYSPEPSIA or LIVER COMPLAINT?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complaining of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart.

How many men, from the effects of excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in sexual organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—IDIOCY, LUNACY, PARALYSIS, SPINAL AFFECTIONS, SUICIDE, AND ALMOST EVERY OTHER FORM OF DISEASE which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have used remedies for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FDUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, DROPSY, ORGANIC WEAKNESS, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, GENERAL DEBILITY, and all diseases of the SEXUAL ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU and IMPROVED ROSE WASH cures secret and delicate disorders in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, free from all injurious properties, supe sedes copaiba and all other nauseous compounds.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU.

There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the physician and patient. This is the testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Beware of counterfeits and those cheap decoctions called Buchu, most of which are prepared by self-styled doctors, from deleterious ingredients, and offered for sale at "less price" and "larger bottles," &c. They are unreliable and frequently injurious. Ask for Helmbold's. Take no other.

Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS. Established upward of twenty years. Prepared by

THE GUARDIAN, 37 PARK ROW—A WEEKLY JOURNAL. Its first number will appear on Saturday, Nov. 11. It will eschew partisan politics and sectarian controversies, and while treating of all other subjects of public interest, will give special attention to the solution of the great problem, What are the just relations between Labor and Capital? This question will be so treated, THE GUARDIAN trusts, as to attract the attentive consideration of both capital and labor.
