NOT YET THE WORST

The Awful Sufferings of the Starving Russians

SHOWN IN AN OFFICIAL REPORT

Horrible Condition in Which Hunger, Cold and Disease Have Left 14,000,000 of the Czar's Subjects.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The horrors of the Russian famine were on Monday brought to the attention of the department of state in a report from Minister Smith at St. Petersburg. He says in part:

From Cold and Hunger.

"Cold as well as hunger causes terrible suffering. In some neighborhoods large numbers of persons huddle together in same houses most conducive to warmth. Barns have been torn down and the boards used for firewood; even thatched roofs are torn off and the straw made to feed the dying embers; clothing is given away for bread, bread and cattle are sacrificed at a tithe of their value; fodder is as scarce as human food, and in some cases horse flesh has been sacrificed for sustenance.

Disease Adds Its Horrors.

"During the winter there is no work, and frequently fathers have left their wives and children to fight the battle of want alone, because they could do nothing and their absence would leave fewer mouths to feed at home. The bread which many are eating is composed of wild sorrell, potatoes, chaff, and leaves, and these terrible conditions inevitably produce disease. Within a radius of 1 mile there are 120 cases of typhus fever. Pestilence and hunger are daily gaining ground, and pestilence is decimating the people.

Fourteen Million Sufferers.

"An official estimate of the number of those without food or means of support who require aid is given as 14,000,000 persons, and this is probably below the true number. The loss to Russia by the famine is estimated at $600,000,000. Up to the present time there have been few contributions from abroad, but the government and the people of Russia are deeply sensible of the spontaneous offers that have been made in various parts of the United States."

To Help Starving Russians.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—In response to an urgent appeal from the Russian famine relief committee of the United States, Gov. Pattison has issued a proclamation to the people of Pennsylvania in their behalf.

WORSE THAN REPORTED

Keener & Pike's Failure Involves Farmers Who Had Grain Stored with the Firm.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill., Feb. 2.—Another highly-exciting episode has occurred in the wretched failure of Keener & Pike, and what the end can be is hard to see. Some $25,000 additional claims are coming to light, and now a host of farmers who have stored wheat with the firm in hopes of a rise are threatened with the loss of their grain amounting to upwards of 50,000 bushels, which the creditors are trying to have reckoned as assets. Over 100 of the prospective sufferers are in town now trying to save themselves from the wreck. One man alone has 2,200 bushels there, and it will be severe on him and many others if they lose what they have trusted to the ruined concern.

MOURNING FOR SPURGEON.

All Christendom Sorrows Over the Great Preacher's Death.

MENTONE, Feb. 2.—The body of Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon was removed to the mortuary chapel in Mentone cemetery Monday night. The arrangements are in the hands of the official bureau of interments. The body is to be taken to England. It will be embalmed to-day. Telegraphic communication is completely blocked by the messages of condolence which arrive every minute from all parts of the civilized world.

"Sooner" Clause Sustained.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Feb. 2.—The supreme court has rendered a very important decision in reference to the clause of the law opening Oklahoma known as the "sooner" clause. It provides that any person who entered the land before the hour of opening set by the president should lose all rights to obtain title to any land whatever. The "sooner" clause was sustained, and all the "sooners" will lose their land. The case will be appealed to the United States supreme court.

Indemnity for Kiggin's Murder.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—W. W. Kerr, late assistant attorney general of the United States, has presented at the department of state a claim for indemnity from the Chilian government for the murder of Riggin, one of the Baltimore's sailors, at Valparaiso.

Peoria Revenue Collections.

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 2.—The revenue collections in Peoria for January amounted to $1,678,645. There were 1,179 packages taken out of bond for export and a total of 1,854,356 tax paid gallons.

The Color of Snakes.

From observations made it would seem that the color of snakes will always partake more or less of the natural tints around them. Thus when the soil is of a reddish color the diamond rattlesnake is reddish in his markings and of far lighter view generally than the snake found in the dark woods of Demerara. The puff adder gives us another example of the colors coinciding with local tints, for when this deadly creature finds its home upon the lower lands near the sea it is pale and dirty looking. Not so, however, when it comes from the higher ground among more brilliant surroundings, for here he appears in the brightest yellow and black which can be conceived. The pattern upon the skin of each species seems to be preserved, and it is the coloring only which varies with locality.
