The public is cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

THE SOCIETY KIRMESS PROGRESSING NICELY

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING MANIFESTED BY LOCAL PEOPLE

GREAT SUCCESS

In Other Cities and Anderson People Hope to Surpass Them in Production.

All Anderson is very much interested over the Grand Society Kirmess which is to be presented here the latter part of this month. The very best of Anderson's amateur theatrical talent in the way of singers, dancers, etc., will be seen in the mammoth production and the success with which the Kirmess has met in nearby cities, such as Columbia (where Governor and Mrs. Manning took part) Charlotte, Asheville, Macon, and Augusta, puts it right up to our city to put forth her very best to equal if not surpass work done in these cities.

The past week has seen scores of Anderson's little folks, young boys and girls, and also numbers from the older set earnestly working to master the beautiful songs and dances, which make the Kirmess such a magnificent as well as artistic spectacle. The success with which these young people have met points to the fact that Anderson is to do herself proud in keeping up with if not surpassing the successes which have been met with in other cities.

The ladies of the Civic Association, under whose auspices the Kirmess is to be presented, have been working with untiring energy to make this production a grand success as well as a credit to Anderson and everyone should back them up and lend all possible aid.

The coming week will be a very busy one and considerable time will be used in rehearsing especially the numbers in the grown-ups are to take part. Rehearsals are being held over the Anderson theatre and large crowds have been attending regularly.

"WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH"

Attraction at Anderson Theatre, Matinee and Night, November 3.

Harold Bell Wright's great story, "The Winning of Barbara Worth," dramatized by Mark E. Swan and presented by a powerful New York company with a wealth of scenery and mechanical contrivances, will be played at the Anderson theatre, matinee and night, Wednesday, November 3rd. Three years ago the book was the "best seller." Time does not seem to effect its popularity. The two million mark was passed some time ago, still the demand continues. The remarkable success of the play may be but the reflected glory of the book, for wherever the play is produced, the public flock to see it. A poor house is unknown. There is the uniform excellence of play and company to be considered, also the fine scenic environment. All this sets abroad. News by telephone travels fast and the reputation of a traveling company must be a "or it doesn't travel long. Get ready to see "The Winning of Barbara Worth," with the familiar characters of "Barbara," "Jefferson Worth," "William Holmes," "Abe Lee," "Tex," "Pat Mooney," "Greenfield," "Fable," and treat yourself to a fine entertainment.

YOU cannot get away from the fact that public opinion of your personal worth is largely a matter of your appearance. Furthermore, public opinion assumes the right to reverse its decision at any time you fail to keep pace with progress.

The next few weeks will witness the forming of many opinions; Fall is here and it's time to change from the worn and wearied garb of Summer to the bright and breezy styles of Autumn.

This store offers in "Society" Brand and "Alco" Clothes for Men and Young Men a logical, economical line of evidence as to your personal worth. It only remains for you to visit us and measure these Suits and Overcoats by your personality—we're sure they'll meet the possibilities of your purse at some point between

DEATHS

J. M. TOWNSEND Former Resident Anderson Died Saturday Morning.

J. M. Townsend, age 78 years, died Saturday morning, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Ben Hinton. One son, John Andrew Townsend lives below Orr mills. Four other children survive. Funeral services will be held at ten o'clock this morning at Silver Brook cemetery.

Mr. Townsend was formerly a resident of this city. Besides his children he has many other relatives in Anderson county.

Death of Mrs. Herbert H. Pearson. Mrs. Mamie Cobb Pearson, wife of Mr. Herbert H. Pearson, died at her home at Belton Tuesday, October 12, after an illness of only a few hours duration. She united with the Baptist church early in life, and was a consecrated member. For a number of years she was a faithful Sunday school teacher at Riverside and Texaway churches, teaching, in one in the morning, and the other in the afternoon. Her church also chose her church clerk, which position she filled most acceptably.

Possessing a lovable disposition, the deceased numbered her friends by her acquaintances, and though these friends will miss her, they are assured that for her the change is better. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the late residence, conducted by Revs. I. S. Graham and H. Haydock. In the presence of a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends, and interment was made in the Belton cemetery.

Mrs. Pearson is survived by her husband and one child, an infant, together with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Cobb of Neal's Creek, two brothers and three sisters.

"She has passed away like a gentle breath, And her eyes are closed with the clasp of death, The leaves of the trees will flutter and fall, And the drifting snows will cover all, But she will peacefully, calmly rest, Forever happy by angels blest."

Let us rejoice when such a life Gives up the battle of earthly strife, Better to know that her tasks are done, Trials ended, and glory won, Tears are vain, when a soul so bright, Wings its way to the gates of light. Her Sister, Never. Mr. Willis—But why don't you take your bank book in to have it balanced? Mrs. Willis—I don't want that snooty looking cashier to know how much money I've got in there.—Pittsburgh Press.
