IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS.

THE COUNTRY ENTERING AN ERA OF HEALTHFUL PROSPERITY.

Iron Workers Throughout the Land all Busy —A Genuine Revival of Business—Predictions as to the Probable Course of Prices.

"The revival of the iron trade," said the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt yesterday, sitting in his office at 17 Burling slip, "is the legitimate result of the revival of business generally. In February I said in Congress that as soon as we came down to a basis of solid values—that is, values measured by gold—we should have prosperity. The trouble was not that there was no money. There was plenty of capital, but there was a lack of confidence. Capitalists were afraid to invest their money when we had a depreciated and fluctuating currency. Now that values are fixed, an era of prosperity begins. Railroads are being constructed, factories built. Western settlements are rapidly springing up, and long hoarded capital is again in circulation. In short, there is a general increase of prosperity. A revival of the iron trade never precedes, but follows a revival of general business. Iron is needed to carry out the revival. When an era of prosperity begins, when trade revives, and great enterprises are planned, iron is needed to carry on the work. Hence the revival of the iron trade is proof positive of a genuine revival of business generally. The evidence is this: Every iron works that kept at work during the period of depression is now overrun with orders; is working at its full capacity and unable to fill its orders. Others that had to stop operations are now going to work again. The raw material for making iron ores, pig and scrap iron has advanced from ten to twenty-five per cent. Coal alone has not advanced. The reason is unusual. It is because the producers have a capacity for putting coal on the market far in advance of the demand, and not warranted by the condition of things. Hence coal can't go up.

"Gray forge pig iron, the standard pig iron, has advanced from $14 to $17 a ton, and there is a demand for all that can be made. But the price will not go up much higher, for the reason that, if the price goes up, then foreign iron will be placed on the market. We are now importing iron, in the form of steel and iron rails and old rails. The great demand for iron has stripped the country of the immense stock of old rails that had accumulated in the era of depression. Old rails are used, you know, for working over, and are made into new iron. Most of the material used on the elevated roads is made from old rails.

"The only question is whether the prosperity will continue. It is bound to continue, I think, but we shall have no era of high prices; simply a healthy remunerative business, with moderate prices, that will enable consumers to go on with their enterprises. This is true prosperity. High prices check progress. We have got to that stage when everything will go on without an era of high prices. I said that many iron works were again beginning operations. This relates primarily to blast furnaces. But the furnaces that are again going into blast are those that can make iron cheaply. Those that from their situation or any other causes cannot make iron for less than $15 a ton cannot go into blast. This country can now produce about 4,000,000 tons of pig iron; 2,000,000 of this can be made under $15 a ton; the other 2,000,000 cannot be made for less than $20. Now, pig iron can't go above $20; when it does the importer steps in. Why, I can import first grade gray forge iron for $19, paying a duty of $7. So you see gray forge iron can't go above $19.

"Now, a word about the duties on iron. On pig and scrap iron, steel rails, and many kinds of manufactured iron they are excessive; $7 is too much to pay on pig iron. But they have conferred one great benefit. It is, that in this era of depression they have prevented this country from being the sink into which the iron of other countries could be flung. Had the duties been low enough, the importations of iron would have destroyed our business and closed those establishments that have just been able to keep above water, and are now ready to reap the advantages of this renewed prosperity. Duties, in my opinion, ought only to take effect in periods of extreme depression. Then they protect our home industries. But there should be a sliding scale, and with the return of prosperity the duties ought to decrease, and when iron is worth $20, then they should be taken off entirely. Thus the consumer will be protected, and will be able to buy his iron at a reasonable price.

"But, as I said, there is no doubt that we are beginning an era of healthful prosperity. Nothing can check it. We are the granary for the world. Our crop this year is enormous. Industries thrive. Last year we put down over 3,000 miles of railroad. This year it will be 4,000. Many iron manufacturers that were able took advantage of the period of depression and rebuilt their furnaces. Under the most improved plans iron can be made as low as $13 a ton. The profit of $4 on a ton is not great, but it is remunerative, and so the outlook is encouraging."

Reports from all parts of north New Jersey indicate a most pronounced revival in the iron trade. Mines, furnaces, and forges which have been idle since the panic of 1873 are reopened and work pushed, the forces being kept on in many of them night and day. New mines are opening and furnaces built, notably at Chester and Port Oram. Boonton is the only town in this region largely interested in iron which seems permanently crippled. Its furnaces, forges, and rolling mills, in which millions are invested, have been idle for four years, and are likely to remain so; but at all other places from Phillipsburg eastward to Dover there is a demand for ores such as has not existed since 1873.

THAT RECEPTION HOSPITAL.

Eighteenth Warders Before Judge Van Brunt Against the Health Board.

The proceedings to restrain the Board of Health from completing the proposed reception hospital, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, for persons afflicted with small-pox and other contagious diseases, were continued yesterday before Judge Van Brunt. The plaintiffs are six owners of dwellings near the site of the proposed hospital.

The plaintiffs aver that their tenants are threatening to vacate their houses if the hospital is completed, and that a hospital there would jeopardize the health of all who dwell near by.

The Health Board put in affidavits that this is the most eligible site that can be found; that some years ago a similar hospital was opened near Bellevue Hospital, and that during a period within which 2,800 small-pox patients were received there was no instance of contagion in the neighborhood.

Mr. Dyett, for the complainants, said that the city does not desire the proposed hospital, and that, on the contrary, the Common Council has protested against it.

Judge Van Brunt reserved his decision.

MERE MENTION.

A Reader.—The Minnesota lies in the North River, off Twenty-fourth street. Inquire on board.

The ball game on the Union Grounds, Brooklyn, yesterday, between the Mutuals and the Polytechnics, amateurs of the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, resulted in favor of the Polytechnics by a score of 10 to 5. Waldron of the Yale University nine, who played in the Poly ranks of nine, beat off the palm in fielding on his side.

In the suit of Max Rice, to recover from his wife, Katherine Rice, three of their six children, who now that their parents are separated, remain with their mother, the counsel or Mrs. Rice appeared before Justice McGue yesterday, in Brooklyn, and said that she had consented to part with her daughter Rosa, and that this would end the proceedings for the present.

James Johnson of 16 James slip bought five tons of rope of James Dunn or 10 Sixth street, and was to pay cash on delivery. He had the rope hauled on his cart, and offered a check in payment, which Mr. Dunn would not accept. Dunn's son, Michael, took the rope off the cart and struck Johnson in the face, knocking him down. Johnson appeared against him yesterday, in the Jefferson Market Police Court. His right eye was blackened. He exhibited a portrait of his face taken immediately after the assault, and also a physician's certificate. Justice Morgan ruled them out, and Dunn was held to bail.

A GOLDEN WEDDING INDEED.

A Millionaire who was a Poor Shoemaker a Year and a Half Ago.

From the Chicago Times.

A wedding occurred last evening in this city which recalls some of the incidents in the Arabian Nights. It was between two favorites of fortune, whose sudden removal from poverty to opulence has few parallels in fiction, and far fewer in real life. The bridegroom is Mr. August Rische, who was a year and a half ago a poor man, obtaining a meagre living by working at his trade as a shoemaker. He was one of the pioneers of Leadville, and had the good fortune to "strike it rich." He was the discoverer of the Little Pittsburgh mine. He is now the partner of Gov. Tabor, and the owner of fourteen or fifteen mines, some of which are among the best silver mines in the country. Among them are the Saxon, Nevada, Hard Cash, Penfield, Red Rogers, and Alaska. He is 45 years old. The bride was Miss Minnie Lunghuhn, 24 years old. Till a few weeks ago she supported herself by sewing in the establishment of Glauz & Periolat, furriers.

The engagement occurred a few weeks ago. Mr. Rische met Miss Lunghuhn at Glauz & Periolat's, and proposed at once. The time of the wedding was not decided on, however, till Monday, when it was determined to have it the following evening. The wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Periolat, 14 Park avenue. The ceremony was solemnized at 7½ o'clock by the Rev. T. N. Morrison, Jr., of the Church of the Epiphany. Mr. and Mrs. Lunghuhn, the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Periolat stood up with the bridal couple. The bride was attired in a pearl colored silk and brocaded satin, cut à la princesse, with a long square train, trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore diamond solitaire earrings and diamond pin and bracelets.

After the ceremony a supper of the most sumptuous character was served. The bridal pair go to New York, Washington, and Baltimore, and then return by way of this city to Denver, where they will reside. Mr. Rische has just paid $42,000 for a furnished house in Denver, to which he will take his bride.

Mr. Rische's present to the bride consisted of a watch and chain and diamond jewelry to the value of $7,800 and $100,000 in Government bonds. Some of the finest presents were sent by Mr. Rische's Denver friends, and did not arrive in time for the wedding.

The Sanitarium at Rockaway.

The Seaside Sanitarium has been very full thus far this season, as many as 125 to 175 children and their mothers having been accommodated one week, or longer if the exigencies have required. These have been given three meals a day and crackers and milk at night. The number who visit the Sanitarium on the daily excursions varies from 150 to 500 a day. Transportation to and from the beach is given free of any expense whatever. Bathing suits and bathing facilities are also free. Mrs. King takes charge of the little ones and their mothers immediately on their arrival and looks after their comfort and requirements during their stay, and there is a resident physician as well as a corps of visiting physicians, all of whom have volunteered their services. Medicines and medical attendance are free to all. As the Sanitarium is a free offering from wealthy New Yorkers to their less fortunate fellow creatures, Mr. King tries to administer it in the broadest sense. It is to be kept open until the close of September.

Weston and the Betting Men.

Edward Payson Weston is expected to arrive in this city early next week, and again to compete for the Astley championship belt for long distance walking. Professional betting men will not greet him with enthusiasm, for he never had any association with them, and when he they desire to see the belt remain in this country, they would rather have it won by any one else than Weston.
