A NEW NATIONAL SONG, FOUNDED ON THE HISTORY OF AMERICA. WRITTEN AND COMPOSED IN NEW YORK, NOVEMBER, 1879. Believing the history of America to be an inspiring theme for a grand national song that shall embody the memorable epochs through which the country has passed, and continually keep before the eyes of the present and coming generations the price paid for "Liberty and Union," and thus inculcate love of country and love of God in every American heart, I have undertaken the task of weaving into verse the momentous events that have left their mark on the pages of American history since the discovery of the continent. This verse I have wedded to original music, and both united will be presented for the first time at the ACADEMY OF MUSIC, CHRISTMAS NIGHT, DECEMBER 25, 1879, and submitted for adoption as the NATIONAL ANTHEM OF AMERICA, DEDICATED TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, by their fellow citizen, P. S. GILMORE. Through the kindness of the musical profession a grand chorus, full orchestra, and Gilmore's Band will unite in presenting the anthem in its most effective form, while an eloquent orator and charming reader will add interest to the occasion with suitable subjects. The hymns will be presented to the public under the auspices of white-handed charity, the proceeds of the evening to be equally divided between the St. John's Guild and St. Vincent de Paul's societies. General admission 50 cents; Reserved Seats $1. For sale at the Academy and usual places on and after Wednesday next.
