Kearney Threatens Retaliation Against the Vigilance Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Denis Kearney was interviewed to-night on the subject of the Vigilance Committee and kindred matters. He is defiant and evidently looks upon the present excitement as furnishing him with fresh weapons. He says the workingmen are peaceable and law abiding, that the city is entirely safe in their hands, and that it is only Chinese employers and stock gamblers who threaten to make any trouble. He affects to treat the formation of the vigilance committee with contempt, and to believe they will not dare molest him, but it is noticeable that he has made a perfect arsenal of his residence. This morning he bought a Manchester repeating rifle, which he keeps in his sleeping room, and both of his brothers who live with him are provided with revolvers and guns. Kearney declares his intention of keeping up the agitation, and swears that if violence is used to stop him, a speedy and terrible vengeance will be taken as a counter to the action of the vigilants. He proposes to hold all employers of Chinese labor responsible for their action, and declares his intention of making a list of two hundred names of whoever he has reason to suspect of being concerned in it, and reading it at the sand lots. Every one of these men who do not clear themselves of the suspicion that they are the prime movers will be denounced as assassins and marked for retribution.
