WON IN SIX HEATS

Mollie B Won the 2:30 Trotting Purse

AFTER HARD-FOUGHT CONTEST

Magna Sphinx Won the 2-Year-Old Stake, and Gift O'Neer Had a Walk Away With the 3-Year-Olds.

Yesterday's races were marked by the poor attendance which has occurred daily since the opening day. If Michigan colts are to gain their courage from large and enthusiastic audiences, the brave little nags that trotted and paced before an almost empty grand stand during the week just passed will have little with which to feed their ambition. The persons who are interested in horse racing from love of the sport stand away, and only the horse owners, each with a friend or two on a complimentary ticket, went out to the park. All the races were good—better than many a program which has drawn a paying audience—and the light patronage is to be deplored.

In the first race—stake No. 3, trotting—Dancourt, the black stallion by Ambassador, was drawn, as was also Baronmure, a bay stallion by Baron Wilkes. There were three entries—Magna Sphinx, Hazel and Napoleon Wilkes—and the race was won in one-two-three style in the order named in two heats. The summary is added:

Gift O'Neer Won.

The second race, open to all 3-year-olds owned in Michigan was also decided in two heats, Gift O'Neer taking two straights. Kitchell's Red Wilkes, a local favorite, won second place in each heat, taking second money. Siva was awarded third money. The summary is briefly told.

Mollie B's Game Struggle.

In the 2:30 trot Captain Wilkes took the first heat very easily, but there was a pretty struggle in the second between Captain Wilkes' Mollie B, Arbutus and Vendetta. The heat was given to Vendetta, the third horse, Captain Wilkes and Mollie B being set back for running. No time was given, but a stopwatch on the grandstand caught it at 2:27¼. When the third heat was about to be trotted Mr. Leathers announced that the judges had become satisfied that they had made a mistake in giving the heat to Vendetta and that Arbutus was the winner. Mollie B won the third heat and Arbutus slipped back to third.

The third heat was a spirited contest between Captain Wilkes and Mollie B. Arbutus created a little divertisement by slipping up from fifth to third in the third quarter. Mollie B. crowded the Captain pretty closely down the stretch, and he went off his feet twice, but recovered himself so quickly that no harm was done. When he spied the wire he settled down to the business of winning and passed under it in 2:26¼, with Mollie at his collar. In the fifth heat Mollie had blood in her eye for the Captain. She let him keep the lead to the stretch, when she came up on him. When he saw the speedy little mare at his collar he gave a big jump and went loping down the track at a gait never intended for a trotter. Mollie passed him, trotting as steadily as clock work, winning the heat. The sixth heat was a horse race from start to finish. Only three horses came out—Mollie, the Captain, and Arbutus, the pretty little mare from Traverse City. Mollie had the pole and was never headed during the heat, though Captain Wilkes made a desperate effort to overtake her. She passed under the wire a full length ahead in a strong finish. Just as she reached the wire the rain began to fall and the old time-honored belle broke. She won first money, Capt. Wilkes second money, Arbutus third money, and Vendetta fourth money. The summary is appended:

After Nancy's Record.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 9.—Another good day of record smashing has passed into the history of bicycle racing. Zimmerman again distinguished himself, but he shared his laurels with Windle, the fast Middlebury rider. Zimmerman first started for Nancy Hanks' mile record with a flying start. He did not succeed, but established a bicycle record of 2:08 4-5. Windle next tried a flying start for a half, making it in 1:00 4-5. George F. Taylor now entered Zimmerman's flying mile to 2:08 1-5. The New Jersey rider was then after Nancy a second time and eclipsed her record made on a regulation track by one-fifth of a second, his time being 2:06 4-5. About 200 spectators witnessed the feat and nearly went wild when the result was announced.

FOR FLOGGING A REBEL.

An English Officer Who Was Hanged for Causing a Mutineer's Death.

Once upon a time, about a hundred years ago, there was a colonel in the English army whose name was Wall; and Open Court says it was his unlucky destiny to be governor and military commandant of one of the British West India islands. During his administration a mutiny broke out, which he vigorously suppressed. Having conquered the rebellion he arrested one of the mutineers on the parade ground in front of the barracks and ordered him to be tried immediately by a drum head court martial. The court met, the prisoner being within sight of it but not near enough to hear the testimony. He was found guilty and sentenced to be flogged. Gov. Wall approved the sentence and the man died under the flogging. When the news reached England Gov. Wall was indicted for murder. He evaded arrest and made his way to France, where he lived for about twenty years, and then thinking that the affair was forgotten he returned to England. He was at once arrested and brought to trial, where his fate rested on the following critical issue: Was or was not the mutineer present before the court martial? On this point the judges instructed the jury that if the prisoner was not near enough to hear the testimony of the witnesses against him so that he might cross examine them, he was not present within the meaning of the law; and in that case his trial and punishment were illegal. Thereupon the jury found Governor Wall guilty of murder; and, in spite of his rank and his influential friends, he was hanged.

A Long-Neglected Grave.

That lonely speck in Behring sea where Commander Behring, of the Russian navy, the first efficient explorer of those waters, lies buried beneath a rude cairn, will presently have a monument to the navigator's memory. The Russian man of war Alecot recently visited the spot and will return with a metal cross inscribed to the memory of Behring and his followers and proclaimed as the tribute of the Alecot. Behring was wrecked on the island in 1741.

Mothers and Daughters.

Over twelve years I was afflicted with a very serious female difficulty and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the very best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse, until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullam's Great German Uterine Tonic, and after taking three bottles, I can say I am in better health than I have been for twenty years, and am now 60 years old, but feel as young as at 30.

Don't Get Imposed Upon.

Is a good motto to follow in buying a medicine as well as in everything else. By the universal satisfaction it has given and by the many remarkable cures it has accomplished, Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure has proven itself unequalled for building up and cleansing your system and for all diseases arising from impure blood. Do not experiment with an unheard of or untried article which you are told is as good, but be sure and get Dullam's. All druggists keep it.

I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.

That cough, slight fever and weakness, shortness of breath, palpitation of heart, my means sure and quick consumption.

If you are nervous, restless, irritable, sleepless or wake after horrid dreams, tired mornings, with a dull headache, bad taste in the mouth, sometimes discharges, and fit about your employment without life, energy or ambition, desire to be alone, gloomy forebodings, a disposition to worry and fret about trouble ahead that never comes, spells of feeling afraid or uncertain, sometimes low spirits, you are suffering from nervous debility and exhaustion of nerve power, which may end in utter prostration, insanity and death.

If you have a great sense of weakness and weariness, with tired limbs, numbness, trembling, prickly sensations, cold feet and legs, you are advancing to that most serious disease—Paralysis.

If your head aches, feel numb and tired, with strange sensations, loss of memory, and you think with difficulty or you are sleepless at night, with drowsiness and dullness during the day, the nerve and brain fatigue may soon run into insanity or death.

If you have any of these feelings do not neglect them, or they will end in paralysis, insanity, prostration or death.
