FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Sept. 20.—Money on call loaned today at 1 to per cent, the closing rate.

Exchange closed steady, posted rates, 486½ to 487, actual rates, 486½ to 486¾ for sixty days and 487½ to 487 for demand.

Trading on the stock exchange during the morning hours was exceedingly dull, and outside of Northern Pacific preferred, Atchison, Whisky Trust and Sugar, there was very little speculative interest. Northern Pacific preferred continued weak and whisky trusts declined a fraction. The general list moved within a very narrow range, and at noon prices were not little changed from closing figures of yesterday. The sales to noon amounted to 156,000 shares. There was no increase in volume of business during the afternoon, and prices were weaker and lagged almost without interruption to the close, when the lower quotations were current in some instances. There was considerable realizing in the trusts, which continued weak. Closing prices for the general list were ½ to ⅞ per cent lower than those of yesterday. The sales amounted to 226,[illegible] shares.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—Wheat opened a shade lower and weak, cables did not improve the market any. There were reports of much damage in the west and buying was quite sharp. The strength in provisions and especially the excitement in ribs, was also a material help to wheat. Closing prices were ⅝ to ¾c higher.

Corn was fairly active, but lower on the fair weather and renewed assurances that the crop had not suffered any damage from frost. All the news received showed that crops were favorable, and the marketing of long stuff and short selling was on a generous scale. Closing prices were ¼ to ⅜c lower. Heavy receipts and low prices in corn had a bearish effect on oats; selling orders were numerous and rather difficult of execution. Closing prices were about ⅛c lower than on Monday. Closing prices on provisions was somewhat higher; there was a sharp bulge in the early trading. Closing prices.
