EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack whenever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold in tins only (½ lb. and 1 lb.) by grocers, labelled thus:

CLOSE READING, BUT WORTH READING.

One of our competitors advertised in the Herald a large lot of Giraud's Black Silks.....Investigation showed the announcement untrue, whereupon Giraud's agents wrote and authorized us to publish the following:

"New York, Sept. 26, 1883.

"Messrs. —, — & —, City.

Gentlemen: We have read with great surprise in last Sunday's Herald that you have advertised for sale 225 pieces of Giraud's black silks.

"In order to test this matter, we have sent to your store and bought two qualities and got samples of two others, all of which were warranted to our representative to be positively GIRAUD's silks.

"We now beg to inform you that, as this advertisement of yours and your presenting samples to be Giraud's goods which are of an inferior, probably Swiss, quality, leads to mistakes and misrepresentations, we wish you to withdraw this advertisement from the papers for the future.

"We have informed our customers that you have not bought any of Alex. Giraud & Co.'s black silks of us for over a year, and if you persist in so advertising we shall inform the public that you have not bought from us, the sole agents for Alexandre Giraud & Co., any of their goods for over a year.

"Awaiting your reply, we are, gentlemen,
"Yours truly,
"FREDK. VIETOR & ACHELIS."

A CARD.

We are known as making a specialty of Giraud's Black Silks.....If any thought they could hurt us by false offerings, we trust that they will, on reading this advertisement, realize their mistake.....Parties referred to above acknowledged error in writing; any who attack us in the same manner must abide result.

JAMES A. HEARN & SON.

If you want to buy a silk that not only looks well when bought, but after it is worn, buy a "Giraud," but be sure you get a "Giraud."

Our great success has inspired some to sell inferior goods as his.....When a clerk offers a silk as Giraud's, if you doubt him, ask to see the name on the piece; if he cannot show it, draw your own conclusions.

We offer 53 qualities, all prices, 87 cents to $3.....We allow two weeks for examination, and will return the money if you think you can do as well.

We have sold thousands and thousands of yards, and have yet to hear the first complaint.....They are made of purer material and closer woven than any other silk, and so well satisfied are we with our experience with these celebrated goods that we have confined our sales exclusively to Giraud's and Bonnet's makes.....We prefer to deal in goods which we can recommend, and will not allow clerks to misrepresent in order to effect sales.

If you want a soft and lustrous silk, we have it; if you want a rich and heavy silk, we have it, and in qualities that will wear.
