FIGURES OF TRADE

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Money on call easy during the two hours of this morning closing offering at 1 per cent.

Exchange closed quiet; posted rates, $[illegible] and $[illegible] for sixty days and $[illegible] for demand.

Governments closed quiet; currency 4s, [illegible] bid. 4s coupon [illegible] bid. 2s registered 100 bid. Pacific railway bonds closed: Union 1st's, [illegible]; sinking funds, [illegible] bid; Centrals, [illegible] bid.

The stock market was dull this morning only 17,000 shares changing hands during the two hours of business. Trading was almost lifeless. The publication of bank statements showed small increase in the reserve, had little or no effect. The closing prices were irregularly and slightly changed from those of last night.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—Wheat opened dull today and for a time was a shade lower, but there was a slow and gradual hardening of the market and an improvement in basis which left prices 1@½c higher at the close. The tradewas influenced at the beginning by pronounced weakness which ruled at the close at night and some of the heavy longs sought to get out of the market, but the selling was soon over. There was some evidence of fresh buying at cash wheat in this market, an order having been received from Baden-Baden, Hamburg. Closing cables are reported higher prices from all the leading foreign markets. Corn, like wheat, had a weak opening and improved as the session progressed. A report that a cold wave was probable, woke up the shorts and started them into covering, which resulted in an advance for the day of ½@½c. Traders in the oats crowd were largely responsible for offering changes from near by to more remote deliveries. Aside from this the market was a dull affair. Closing prices were ⅛@¼c higher. The deal in October dominated. The opposition to the advance was purely of a passive character. The January future in ribs and other articles of the hog products did not for some time sympathize with the big advance in October ribs, but when the strength in wheat and corn had developed, pork, lard and ribs for January delivery likewise became strong. Pork gained 12½c for January delivery and 2c for September and October; lard 7½c for January and 22½c for near by delivery, and ribs 5c for January delivery. Closing prices:

Wheat—September, 73¾@¾c; October, 74c; December, 75¾@¾c; May, 81¾@¾c.

Corn—September, 45½@¾c; October, 45¾@¾c; December, 46½@¾c; May, [illegible].

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO UNION STOCK YARDS, Sept. 24.—Cattle was inactive and very weak. Fresh receipts made an unusually heavy supply for the last day of the week and buyers had things their own way.
