FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Sept. 30.—Money stringent today, the ruling rates being 4 to 6 per cent. The closing rate was 6 per cent.

Exchange closed steady; posted rates, 486¼@487; actual rates, 485@485¾ for sixty days and 487@488 for demand.

Governments steady; currency, 6s, 117 bid; 4s coupon 112¾ bid; extended 3s registered 100 bid. Pacific railway bonds closed: Union Sixes, 108¾ bid; sinking funds, 109¾; Centrals, 106 bid.

The dealings on the stock exchange this morning were active, 164,000 shares having been sold to noon against a little over 90,000 sold during the same hours of yesterday. The chief trading was confined to Reading, New England, Chicago gas, sugar trust and Northern Pacific preferred. The remainder of the stocks fluctuated very slightly, but the tendency was upward under the lead of New England, which was very strong on a moderate buying. Nearly all the stocks were ½ to 1% per cent higher at noon than they closed yesterday. Chicago gas however, especially weak and on a heavy selling declined 1% per cent. Sugar trust and some other stocks were slightly weaker in sympathy. Stock was a little more active during the last half of the day. New England, sugar certificates, whisky trust and Chicago gas continued to monopolize the trading. Chicago gas and sugar trust recovered part of their early decline toward the close, and final figures of stocks were only slightly below those of last night. New England concluded the strong feature and closed 2% per cent higher. The weakness in the early dealings was due to the announcement that an application had been made for a receiver for the company. New England was heavily bought on a report that an alliance, including a lease of the New England railway, had been formed between the Boston and Maine and Reading roads. The changes in the remainder of the list were slight and the closing figures were irregular. Total sales, 905,000 shares.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—The wheat trade had a stupid session today. There was but one little incident and this lasted but a short time to vary the dullness of the market. When it was found that the leader was easily satisfied the followers sold out again and the price went back to the opening figure. On the early trading the December price was a round 70¾ and 70⅞c. This was better than was expected considering the heavy closing at 70c yesterday. The bulge put the price to 70⅞c and it dropped back to 70⅝c before 1 o'clock. The trade had little news. The early cables were ⅛c lower on spot and ⅛c lower on futures at Liverpool. Perhaps said spot wheat cheaper to sell. The talk of 4,000,000 bushels as the probable increase in the visible supply for next Monday was a bearish feature. Export clearances of wheat and flour were over half a million bushels, but the fresh export business appeared to be flat. Altogether the market had little to support it, and became very heavy under New York selling the last half hour. Corn closed ⅛ to ¼c higher. Everything was against it. The receipts were 1,099 cars. The contract corn for the day was 400 cars. The Saturday estimate was 560 cars. The out inspection was light at 170,000 bushels. The weather was most perfect for the last of September. There was nothing but the relatively lower prices to tempt buyers. A preponderance of selling orders broke the oats market, some of them coming from supposed longs. Clear cut prices were ⅜c lower. Provisions was fairly easy at easier prices. The bull clique in October pork and lard loosened their grip and pork dropped in sympathy.

Pork closed lower for January and 27½c for October. Ribs declined 5½c for October delivery and 12½c for January. Lard closed 2½ to 2½c lower. Closing prices:
