Stocks were less active this morning and the course of prices was irregular, some stocks recording sharp fluctuations. At the opening prices were strong, and in the early dealings under the lead of New England advanced ½ to ¾ per cent by the Reading. A subsequent selling of Richmond and West Point, however, caused the market to weaken, and the whole list went off to about last night's figures. There was another rally later, but it did not hold. Reading at noon was down ¾ per cent, Colorado Coal 2 and the rest of the list fractionally in most cases. The sales for the morning amounted to 122,613 shares. Just before midday American Cotton Oil and Trust was a feature, advancing from 1¼ to 1½, but retired to 1¼ later. The market continued irregular after midday on a moderate volume of business. Late in the day the money market was hot up, and at one time the rate for call loans was up to 10 per cent. The tightness of money caused some selling and closed generally fractionally lower. The sales for the day amounted to 237,451.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—A strong feeling pervaded the wheat market today. The principal factor of strength was the dry weather in the winter wheat sections and the confirmatory reports of damage to the crop. There seems no longer reason to doubt that the outlook is generally quite unpromising, and this was supplemented by strong and higher cables and some improvement in the sea board markets, the local feeling quite bullish. Shorts were good buyer for the purpose of covering their outstanding contracts and their was also a fair investment demand, while the selling was rather limited and cautious. Closing prices were ¼ to ½c higher. Corn was quiet but stronger, influenced chiefly by the firmness in wheat and provisions. There was nothing of especial interest in the market and the bullish sentiment was not very general. Cooler prices were ¼ to ½c higher. Oats were firmer in sympathy with wheat and corn and closed ¼ to ⅛c higher. Hog products started higher on good buying by the local bulls and some advance in live hogs at the yards, but on the advance a good many loads began to realize and the early advance in housebing lost there was a considerable drop in product. The January deliveries closed 7½c lower for pork, 2½c for lard and 5c for ribs. Closing prices:
