Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The wheat market recovered a little from the effect of the baby blow that Dodge administered to it on Monday afternoon and from which it suffered so excoriatingly yesterday. At the close the market was ⅛c better than the corresponding time yesterday. Some talk of a supplementary report from Dodge, taking account of an alleged deficiency of 2 lbs. per bu. in the weight of measured bushels of wheat this year as compared with last was what helped the market. Such a deficient weight would take nearly 15,000,000 bushels of the estimates and reduce the weight of the crop to about 500,000,000 bushels of 60 pounds each. Corn was very weak early, and though first sales at about yesterday's close it weakened directly on free selling, the weather and prospects of heavy interior deliveries. Later, however, there was considerable rally, largely due to the free covering by shorts in the decline. Closing prices were ⅛c lower. Oats opened steady and declined ⅛ to ¼ under heavy offerings. Closing prices were ⅛c higher. The trade in provisions was largely of a professional character. There was pretty fair action in pork early, with very little business in other products at any time. Pork closed 5 to 7½c higher, lard 2½ to 12½c lower, and ribs unchanged.

Closing prices:
