FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Oct. 15.—Money on call loaned at 4½ to 5 per cent. The closing price was 4½ per cent.

Exchange closed steady; posted rates 486½ for actual sterling, for sixty days and 488½ for demand.

Governments steady; currency, 4s, 109¼ bid; coupons 4s, registered, 109¼ bid; 4s, coupons, 110½ bid. Pacific railway bonds closed as follows: Union first's, 109½ bid; sinking funds, 108 bid; Centrals 105½.

Stocks were only moderately active during the two hours of business this forenoon. The sales amounted to 100,000 shares. Prices were strong during the most part, except for general electric, which was weak and at one time showed a decline of 1 per cent. The other conspicuous specialties were New England, Chicago gas, Reading, Burlington, whiskey trust, Louisville, New Albany and Chicago. Under the lead of these stocks values advanced from ½ to 1 per cent by 11:30 o'clock, but about that time the bank statement showing a loss in the reserve made its appearance and the list sold off fractionally.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Within increased receipts locally add in the Northwest and the enthusiasm evaporated for the Liverpool market, there was little ground for the bulls in the wheat trade to stand upon. The exports from both coasts showed the expected decrease over last week and the predicted precipitation of rain was general, extending along and west of the Mississippi and including Illinois and Michigan. As a rule trade was slow and narrow, and the fluctuations slight. Closing prices were ⅛ to ¼c lower. There was a little flurry in the corn trade, caused chiefly by a little scare among the shorts in November, but there was more for sale at the advance than the market could take without breaking; consequently cluttered out. November closed ⅛c higher, but more distant options closed at ¼ to ⅜c lower. The oats market had a better tone to it at the start, but the longs took advantage of this feeling to realize on their purchases and the result was a decline of ⅛ to ¼c at the close. The provision market was firm but very dull and no interest was taken in it by outsiders. It was described as a packers' and scalpers' market and dull without any other observable feature. January pork was higher and was easily advanced 17½c over last night's prices, but on an attempt to realize on the advance, all but 5c of the early gain was lost. November ribs were advanced 12½c and January ribs 12½c.
