FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Nov. 18.—Money on call loaned today at 1½ to 4½ per cent. The highest rate was 4½ and the lowest 1½ per cent.

Exchange closed steady but first posted rates, 486½ to 487; actual rates, 486¼ for sixty days and 487 for demand.

Governments steady; currency, 4s, 107½ bid; extended 2s, registered, 100½ bid; 4s, coupons, 112½ bid. Pacific railway bonds closed as follows: Union first's, 109½ bid; sinking funds, 110 bid; Centrals 108 bid.

Stocks were excessively dull this morning, only 87,000 shares changing hands in the two hours of business to noon. The stocks that displayed any activity were New England, Wheeling, Lake Erie and Western, Union Pacific. Trading showed a slight increase during the afternoon, but prices continued irregular. There was no line to the market. The brokers for professional bears hammered the market in all directions after monday. Bear trade whearily sold the whisky crowd, but the certificates were well supported by insiders. Trading in Unites States Rubber com. ny certificates was commenced today, and in the last hour there were a large number of brokers active in the shares. The price was advanced four points. The general market closed irregularly and slightly changed. The sales for the day amounted to 209,267 shares.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Wheat opened firm and gained in strength as the session advanced, closing 1 to 1½c higher. The bullish feeling was based, to some extent, upon the 3 cents dispatches stating that Russia would put an export duty on wheat of about 1c per bushel in order to accumulate a fund for the building of other to accumulate a fund for the building of other government elevators in that country. New York was bullish dispatches for the most part and the shipments from the sea board were liberal. The south became alarmed at the smallness of the offerings and, as they always do, wanted it all the more when they found it difficult to buy. Foreign markets were firm and the impression prevailed that the storm throughout the west would break up the roads and cut off receipts. Corn was firm and closed ¼c higher. Operators in oats turned the market the dullest they had seen for some time. Closing prices were ⅛c higher. Hogs products were buoyant; the receipts of hogs were about 6,000 head less than estimated, and prices at the yards were 10 to 15c higher. Shorts at once started to cover, and their bids for light for sale, a quick jump in values was the result. Wright, Cudahy, Hatley and Robinson were all big buyers.

Closing prices:

Ribs—November, $7.30; January, $7.37½; May, $7.50.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago Union Stock Yards, Nov. 18.—The live stock markets were all stronger today. The more favorable weather and the disappointingly light receipts were the strengthening influences. Hogs were excited and sold readily at an advance on yesterday's prices of from 5 to 10c. There was no considerable advance in cattle, but they were stronger generally. The sheep and lamb markets were quiet, but prices were more firmly held.

Fifty Years Settles It.

CONSUMPTION

CAN BE CURED.

If Dr. Schenk's treatment and cure of Consumption were something new and untried, people might doubt; but what has proved itself through a record as old as our grandfathers, means just what it is and for all diseases of the Lungs. No treatment in the world can place as many permanent cures of Consumption to its credit as Dr. Schenk's. Nothing in nature acts so directly and effectively on the lung membranes and tissues, and so quickly disposes of tubercles, congestion, inflamation, colds, coughs and all the seeds of Consumption as

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.

When all else fails it comes to the rescue. Not until it fails, and only after a full fair trial, should any one despond. It has brought the hopeless to life and health. It has turned the despair of ten thousand homes into joy. It is doing it now. It will continue to do it throughout the ages. Dr. Schenck's Practical Treatise on Consumption, Liver and Stomach Diseases mailed free to all applicants. Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

WHEREAS, D. J. O'Connell did, on the 6th day of July, 1892, make his note for the sum of thirteen hundred and seventy-five dollars ($1,375), payable ninety days after said date, payable to his own order, and did pledge as collateral security for the payment of said note, two bonds of the Chattanooga Electric Light company, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, said bonds being numbered ninety-three (93) and ninety-four (94), respectively, and being each of the face value of one thousand dollars ($1,000) and being part of a series of two hundred bonds numbered consecutively from one (1) to two hundred (200) inclusive and bearing date October 1st, 1889 and secured by mortgage given by said Chattanooga Electric Light company on all its property rights and franchises, both present and future acquired, said mortgage having been executed by said company and delivered to the International Trust company, as trustee, for the holders of said bonds. And

Whereas, the said D. J. O'Connell did, by the terms of such note and agreement, give the holder full power and authority to collect at expense of said D. J. O'Connell and to sell said bonds numbered 93 and 94 at any place at public or private sale, at the holder's option, on the non performance of the above promise contained in said note. And

Whereas, said note and said bonds so pledged were transferred by D. J. O'Connell to C. D. Beebe, and by said C. D. Beebe to the Grand Rapids Savings Bank, which is by virtue of said transfer, the present holder and owner thereof. And

Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said note and by said bonds so pledged;

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that on the 30th day of November, 1892, at two o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front entrance of the Grand Rapids Savings Bank, in the city of Grand Rapids, Kent county, Michigan, in order to secure the payment of the amount of said note, with interest and protest fees thereon and the costs and expenses of sale, the said Grand Rapids Savings Bank will sell at public vendue to the highest bidder, said bonds numbered 93 and 94, with all interest coupons thereon.

Dated, Grand Rapids, Michigan, November 18, 1892.

THE GRAND RAPIDS SAVINGS BANK. By F. A. Hall, Cashier.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—Default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage dated September, 28th, 1891, made by Isaac Vander Hill to Percy T. Cook and recorded September 28th, 1891, in the office of the register of deeds for Kent county, Michigan, in liber 168 of mortgages on pages 444 and 445 and by said Percy T. Cook assigned to Florence E. Cook, by assignment dated March 17th, 1892 and recorded in said register's office March 17th, 1892 in liber 180 of mortgages, on page 98, and further assigned by said Florence E. Cook to said Percy T. Cook by assignment dated November 9th, 1892, and recorded in said register's office November 11th, 1892, in liber 186 of mortgages, on page 421, by the non-payment of an installment of interest amounting to thirty-three dollars and twenty-five cents ($33.25) due upon said mortgage upon the 26th day of September, 1892. Said mortgage contained the express condition, that in case of non payment of the interest, at the time limited and specified in said mortgage for the payment thereof, then within ten (10) days after said interest should become due the whole amount of said mortgage both principal and interest should become due and payable at the option of said mortgagee and his assigns, notice of said option being by the terms of said mortgage expressly waived. Said interest has remained due and unpaid more than ten (10) days since the same became due and no part of the same has been paid. Said mortgagee and assignee of said mortgage has elected to consider and declare the whole amount of said mortgage, both principal and interest, due and payable immediately, by reason of said default in the payment of said interest, by virtue of which said default and said election there is claimed to be due at the time of this notice the entire of said principal sum, with all arrearage of interest thereon, amounting to five hundred and twelve dollars and forty-one cents ($512.41) together with an attorney's fee of twenty dollars ($20) provided in said mortgage to be paid in case of foreclosure. No suit or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover the amount remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Notice is therefore hereby given that on Monday, February 13th, 1893 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, there will be sold at the east outer door of the court house, in the city of Grand Rapids, Kent county, Michigan, (that being the place where the circuit court for the county of Kent is held) at public vendue, to the highest bidder, the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount due thereon, as above set forth, with the interest, costs, charges and expenses allowed by law and provided for in said mortgage, together with said attorney's fee, said premises being situated in the township of Wyoming, in the county of Kent and state of Michigan and described as follows, to wit: Lot eighteen (18) of block three (3) of Clyde Park addition to the village of South Grand Rapids; also lots thirty-eight (38) thirty-nine (39) fifty-four (54) fifty-five (55) sixty-two (62) and sixty-four (64) all of Tinkotch addition to the village of South Grand Rapids.

Dated November 18th, 1892.
