There was very little trading on the stock market during the two hours of business this morning. Dealings were confined to about a dozen specialties. Outside of them the fluctuations were confined within the narrow limits. Chicago and Eastern Illinois led the advance. The other speculatives which figure conspicuously in the trading and recorded the widest changes were rubber trust, whisky trust, Chicago gas, Erie preferred, Burlington, Wheeling and Lake Erie and National Cordage. The first named displayed considerable weakness at the opening and declined 1¼ per cent, but later recovered the decline. The sales for the morning of all stocks amounted to 65,500 shares. Dealings were on much larger scale in the afternoon of the day than during the morning, but the business of the day on the whole was only moderate. The total sales amounted to 149,129 shares.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Wheat opened a shade higher this morning, influenced mildly by the decrease in amount on passage and the free exports from the seaboard.
