SUICIDE OF A BROADWAY STRIKER.

The Strike Cost him a Job that had Lasted 18 Years—A Widow and Orphan.

James Mulligan, 46 years of age, formerly employed by the Broadway and Seventh Avenue Railroad and discharged in the recent strike, committed suicide yesterday by throwing himself from the window in his apartments in the fifth floor of 791 Seventh avenue to the sidewalk. At the time of the car strike Mulligan had been for eighteen years a night watchman at the stables of the Broadway and Seventh Avenue Railroad. After the strike Mulligan was restored to his place, but he remained only two days, when he was discharged because the officers of the railroad had learned that he had been a man looked up to among the strikers.

Mulligan became despondent. While sitting in the front room of his home yesterday with his wife, he said he wanted to die. A knock at the door caused his wife to turn to answer the call, and when Mrs. Mulligan returned her husband had disappeared. At this moment two young men, who lived on the floor below, ran up stairs and told Mrs. Mulligan that some one in falling had put his foot through their window. Mulligan was found dead on the sidewalk. He leaves a small bank account for his wife and one child.

Constable Redmond Accused by Miss Devine.

Constable John Redmond of West New Brighton was arrested yesterday. Mary Ann Devine, 18 years old, told Justice Butler that on Tuesday morning while she was walking along the Terrace she met Redmond standing in front of an unoccupied stable. He induced her to enter the stable under the pretense that he wanted to give her a package to take to her mother. She alleges that he took improper liberties with her. Her screams attracted the attention of two men who were passing the stable. Redmond then released her and she returned to her home. The Constable denied the charge. He was required to give bail to await examination to-morrow.

THE CHIMNEY CORNER IN COMING YEAR WILL DISTRIBUTE

$79,366

AMONG ITS SUBSCRIBERS.

CO-OPERATION ON A PRACTICAL BASIS.

Determined to increase our subscription list to 150,000 within the next 90 days, we shall distribute among our subscribers all subscription profits for 1889. A certain pint measure has been filled even full with ordinary corn, and the corn poured into a pint for and sealed. No one knows the number of kernels in the jar contains. This jar has been deposited with the Commercial Safe Deposit Co. and can not be opened until the exact close, when the enormous sum of $79,366 will be distributed from among 15,509 subscribers who make the best guesses as to the number of kernels in the jar contains.

15,509 CASH PRESENTS TO BE GIVEN FREE! The following amounts in CASH will be distributed as follows, the closing guess nearest the number of kernels over the pint jar contains:

1	Present to the 1st Subscriber Guessing Nearest Number				$5,000
1	"	"	Subscriber Making Next Best Guess		1,000
1	"	"	" " " "		500
5	"	"	5 " making next best guess,	$300 each	1,500
10	"	"	10 " " "	200 "	2,000
25	"	"	25 " " "	100 "	2,500
50	"	"	50 " " "	75 "	3,750
100	"	"	100 " " "	50 "	5,000
200	"	"	200 " " "	25 "	5,000
500	"	"	500 " " "	15 "	7,500
1000	"	"	1000 " " "	10 "	10,000
3000	"	"	3000 " " "	5 "	15,000
5000	"	"	5000 " " "	3 "	15,000
5616	"	"	5616 " " "	1 "	5,616
15,509 Presents, amounting to					$79,366

All who guess must send 50 cents to pay for six months' subscription to Chimney Corner, or $2.00 for a year's subscription, and 3 guesses. Numerous and liberal prizes will be entered on your subscription blanks, such as received together with any guess or guesses you may make. When our subscription books show 150,000 subscribers the distribution of cash presents will take place. We think it reasonable to believe that we will be able to distribute a profit on a subscription list of 150,000 subscribers, and in fairness to those who may be interested in the publication, with a paid up subscription list of 150,000 will receive at least $2.00 a year from advertisers who wish to use its columns. As we shall distribute among subscribers the profits from subscriptions only, the advertising revenue will be our profit. As we expect to expend $100,000 in plant this advertisement infers the public, therefore it will be only a short time before the 150,000 subscribers will be received and the cash prizes distributed. Names and addresses of winners will be published in the paper, with photos of pictures of the parties making the three best guesses received before going to press. If there be two guesses received alike, then the one whose guess is first received will be awarded the $5,000, the next $1,000, and so on. No matter how many guesses have been received before yours, if you are just as likely to guess the correct number as those who guessed before you. Everybody has an equal chance to secure one of the big presents, and as there are thousands of smaller ones all right, ONE of them can hardly fail to find its way into YOUR pocket.

THE CHIMNEY CORNER has well known, that the cash presents offered in connection therewith are actually distributed among its subscribers, and that the publication is conducted on the square. Its circulation is rapidly increasing, and its contents are highly interesting and instructive.

MAKE A GUESS and subscribe at once. Who knows? That guess may make you the happy possessor of $5,000. If you don't get the largest award, there are 15,508 chances for other sums ranging from $1.00 to $1,000 each.

NO CHARGE is made for your guess as only the regular subscription rates are charged. Our subscribers place us in a position to obtain high advertising rates, and we can return to them all profits on subscriptions, so that subscribers may feel that they have an interest in CHIMNEY CORNER as well as its publishers. Any Bernardin Agency will kindly take your subscription.

ONLY 50 CENTS secures our beautiful illustrated paper six months on trial. Stamps (1's or 2's) taken the same as cash; postal orders preferred. Send in immediately with your guess which may bring you $5,000. Remember the guess is simply—"Subscribe to Chimney Corner and guess how many kernels of corn it takes to fill a pint jar." Write your guess on the subscription blank and secure one of the 15,509 awards. Don't hesitate or you may lose the greatest opportunity of your life.

SPECIAL! We have set aside a reserve fund of $1,000 cash, independent of the other cash presents announced, to be distributed among the first 274 persons replying to this advertisement, as follows: To the first person, $100; to the second, $50; to the third, $25; to the fourth, $15; to the next 10, $10 each; the next 40, $5 each; the next 50, $3 each; the next 160, $2 each; the next 60, $1 each. Do not delay! Try for a present out of this reserve fund.

Having been in the publishing business many years, we would not make a false statement or fail in an undertaking, which would jeopardize a business reputation, representing years of toil.

White & Co. and Jordan, Marsh & Co. of Boston, and accepted in writing an offer from Jordan, Marsh & Co. of $76,000.....The facts being brought to the notice of the Court, a resale was ordered.....March 19 bids were received the second time, when R. H. White & Co. bid $70,000, and James A. Hearn & Son bid $62,600.....The next day R. H. White & Co. telegraphed that if their bid was not accepted by 5 o'clock it would be withdrawn, and later, formally, by letter withdrew on account of delay.....March 23 the receiver made a motion that R. H. White & Co. should be compelled to take the stock, and that the bid of James A. Hearn & Son should be rejected as inadequate.....The Court denied both motions, and ordered delivery to us on payment of $62,600—the amount of our bid.....The price at which we own the stock is about Ten Thousand Dollars less than our original offer.....All can figure for themselves, and it is easy to see that we own it FOR LESS THAN FORTY-FOUR CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.....We can and will sell it for less than half price.....Some of the stock is Winter Goods—Such will be sold at quarter value.....The ladies of New York and surrounding cities will get some pretty cheap Dry Goods.
