HOUSEFURNISHING GOODS, CHINA & GLASSWARE.

Such suits as we sell at $6, $7, and $8 are the sort most parents want. We have lower and higher priced, but none cheaper. These are cheap because they are thoroughly good, and combine the elements of durability and style at the least possible cost for their value.

An extra suit for "roughing," $3, $4, or $5. These answer for all purposes with many; wonderfully good—price considered.

The finest sort, $9, $10, and upward. Our best may not seem as fine as other stores sell, judging by the price; but compare the quality. Bring ours back if the test proves adverse.

DELURY'S ADVICE.

Gentlemen who cannot afford to patronize a first-class moderate-priced tailor had better purchase from a reliable ready made clothing house rather than be duped by those cheap John tailors who advertise that they can furnish a $50 or $60 suit of clothes for $15, $18, &c.

This House avoids the two outrageous extremes practised among the tailoring trade in this country—viz., deceptive cheapness and fancy high prices. "Delury says" his principle is to produce first-class, reliable-made garments, commanding character and style, at strictly moderate charges.

The immense stock of Scotch Cheviots, Homespuns, Serges, &c., which we are making up in the popular Lounge Jacket, and Shooting Coat Suitings for $25 and $30, are in great demand for stylish and rough-and-ready wear.

The New Album of Fashions published by the UPPER TRADE SOCIETY of ENGLISH TAILORS for this House contains lithographic illustrations and gives a description of all the latest styles of Garments, Materials, &c., that will find the most favour during the Spring and Summer seasons for Gentlemen's and Ladies' Tailoring. This book, containing references from all the leading families, can be obtained on application.

No deposit required on orders placed with this house from reliable persons.
