Instruction.

TYPEWRITING
Taught in One Month
STENOGRAPHY
Taught in Three Months.
Pupils qualified as expert typewriters in one month, or money refunded. The finger movement taught. The extraordinary advantage offered of
FOUR HOURS' DAILY PRACTICE ON TYPEWRITING MACHINES WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.
Also, pupils instructed on more than one kind of machine without extra charge. Instruction given in manifolding, addressing of envelopes, and all forms of legal, commercial, architectural, theatrical, and miscellaneous typewriting work. Forms of business and social correspondence taught. Speed dictation given in typewriting.
Miss Lamb refers with pleasure to pupils in her school who, without any previous knowledge of typewriting whatever, can now write correctly at the close of their second week of instruction from sixty to seventy-five words per minute. Also, stenography taught at reduced rates. Pupils qualified for rapid stenographic dictation in from three to four months. Evening instruction half rates. The unusual advantage is offered of six to eight hours of stenographic instruction every week day and four hours every week day evening.
DICTATION WILL BE GIVEN IN ANY SYSTEM OF STENOGRAPHY BY THE HOUR, WEEK, OR MONTH.
Life scholarships, pupils recommended, and otherwise assisted to positions as soon as qualified. The demand for the services of stenographers has been greater than could be filled by Miss Lamb's school. Pupils instructed in stenography by mail. Twelve lesson sheets by mail, which will fully prepare students for dictation, one dollar.
Stenography Can be Taught by Mail with Perfect Success.
Separate Courses of Commercial Penmanship. A Good Business Hand Acquired in One Month.
School Open All Summer

SHORTHAND.
Script Phonography.
WHAT IS IT?
A new system of stenography radically different from all others. It is written entirely on the slope of longhand, and avoids the recognized defects of other systems. It has met with enormous success, and defies competition in legibility and speed. It is learned in a course of six weeks—not six months. Grammar school graduates will do well to learn this system during the summer.
