NEW AQUEDUCT.—NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPRAISAL.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that it is the intention of the Counsel to the Corporation of the City of New York to make application to the Supreme Court for the appointment of Commissioners of Appraisal under Chapter 490 of the Laws of 1883 and the laws amendatory thereof.

Such application will be made at a Special Term of said Court, to be held in the Second Judicial District, at the Court House in White Plains, Westchester County, on the second day of January, 1892, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard. The object of such application is to obtain an order of the Court appointing three disinterested and competent freeholders, one of whom shall reside in the County of New York, and the other two of whom shall reside in the County in which the real estate hereinafter described is situated, as Commissioners of Appraisal, to ascertain and appraise the compensation to be made to the owners, and all persons interested in the real estate hereinafter described, as proposed to be taken or affected for the purposes indicated in Chapter 490 of the Laws of 1883 and the laws amendatory thereof.

The real estate sought to be taken or affected as aforesaid is located in the towns of Yorktown and Cortlandt, county of Westchester, and is laid out and indicated on a certain map entitled "Property Map to Accompany the Construction of Croton Dam, &c." filed in Westchester county Register's Office at White Plains, in said county, on November seventeenth (17th), 1891, as Map Number 1,604.

The real estate proposed to be taken or affected is required for the construction and maintenance of the dam and reservoir known as "Cornell Dam," and the following is a statement of the boundaries of said dam and reservoir and of the real estate to be acquired therefor under this proceeding:

All those certain pieces or parcels of land in the towns of Cortlandt and Yorktown, county of Westchester, and State of New York, which taken together constitute a tract of land particularly described and shown on said map and divided into two parts by the Croton Aqueduct. That portion lying north of said aqueduct being described as follows:

All that tract of land situate, lying and being on the northerly side of the Croton Aqueduct, in the towns of Cortlandt and Yorktown, county of Westchester, and State of New York, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at monument marked A. C. on the northerly side of the Croton Aqueduct in the town of Cortlandt, at the corner of the lands of Ann Burt, known as Parcel No. 14, on said map, thence north 81 degrees 53 minutes west, 713 48-100 feet to the centre of the Croton River, thence along the centre of the said river south 41 degrees 20 minutes west 1,150 feet, thence leaving the said river and across the road from Croton Landing to Croton Dam, north 15 degrees 30 minutes west, 134 13-100 feet, thence north 20 degrees 38 minutes east, 1,530.0 feet, thence north 27 degrees 56 minutes west, 376 3-10 feet, thence north 50 degrees 4 minutes east, 258.0 feet to a fence and a creek, thence along the said fence and the said creek, south 22 degrees 14 minutes west, 106.0 feet to a corner on the land of Daniel Webber, thence on the said land and leaving the said fence and creek, south 63 degrees 41 minutes east, 518 7-10 feet to the land of Elvin W.
