S. WHITEHEAD, Secretary.

In a recent ad. we remarked that "a new necktie and a fresh pair of trousers will carry a man through until Easter," but we never expected to be taken literally, as the artist assumes.

We are much pleased with a line of domestic underwear that was made specially for our spring sales. Camel's hair, natural wool, and two dainty shades of silk finished Balbriggans, at the uniform price of $1 per garment for all sizes. They look and feel like two dollar goods.

The new 5-ply solid linen Collars, with all buttonholes hand made and barred, are the best value in the market at 25 cents each. Each full dozen packed in a leather box and sold for $2.75, box included. No boxes with less than a dozen collars or cuffs, but boxes alone are sold for 75c. and $1 each, according to size.
