FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Jan. 12.—Money on call easy, ranging from 2½ to 4; last at 2½ and closing offered at 3.

Prime paper, 4@5 per cent.

Government bonds dull and steady. Sales of stocks being arranged in lots of shares. The market was unusually active today, the total transactions for the first time in months running up to and half a million shares.

The street bought the coal stocks, believing that the withdrawal of the New Jersey Central was simply to stop public clamor and press expenses, while the roads are working together under a secret arrangement. The street argues that with all the companies with a large surplus of coal on hand, some of them would have resulted on their books, if such were not the case. Whereas, the price of coal has not been reduced, all the roads are doing their part in the maintenance of prices, which could not be the case of no understanding existed between them. Reading was active, but the rest were quiet as usual. Hocking coal continues to advance also. The belief that Manhattan is to enjoy more extended privileges led to a continuation of late buying in that stock and from 69½ it rose to 16½, the highest point since the famous Field corner. It closed the day with a gain of 3¾ per cent. One of the surprises of the day was the sudden revival of the activity and strength in the Richmond terminal shares, and the common was lifted 1 per cent and the preferred 3¾ per cent. The general market remained rather quiet. The whole list responded and there were no declines among the stocks at the close. Railroad bonds were again larger dealt in and shared fully in the strength displayed in stocks, though among the more active issues the advances were more modest.

Chicago Live Stock.

CHICAGO UNION STOCK YARDS, Jan. 12.—Cattle—Receipts, 10,000; firm; common to extra steers, $3.[illegible]@5.15; cows, heifers and bulls, $1.[illegible]@4.75.

Sheep—Receipts 6,000; firm; common to extra, $3.25@5.60; lambs, $4.50@6.25.

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Wheat opened this morning nervous and excited. The strong bullish tendency which it displayed yesterday brought in a volume of buying orders and for the first few minutes the market was the scene of wild excitement and prices were at one time 1c above last night's prices.

Corn was strong and higher early in sympathy with wheat, but later when that market broke corn followed. Closing were ⅛c lower. There was a firm feeling in the oats market. Business was moderately active, but there were no individual transactions of sufficient significance to call especial remarks. The closing price was ¼c lower. In provisions pork was weak, while lard and ribs in comparison were strong. The principal interest centered in lard. Pork declined 7½c, while lard gained 17½c and ribs 10c.
