FUNERAL SERVICES OF MR. D. H. RUSSELL

HELD YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON AT CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

WERE BEAUTIFUL

Esteem in Which He Was Held Eloquenty Attested in Numerous Ways.

Flowers more exquisite in their silent beauty, friends more numerous and profound in their grief and respect, and services more impressive never characterized a funeral in Anderson when that which was mortal of David Hamilton Russell was tenderly returned to the earth.

The funeral services were held at 4 o'clock in the Central Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Russell was a consecrated and valued member, being conducted by the pastor, the Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge, assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Fraser, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Cora Ligon rendered a solo, "All is Quiet Along the Potomac," with great beauty and sympathy. After that a favorite hymn of Mr. Russell's, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung. The 90th Psalm was read by the Rev. Mr. Fraser, after which Mr. Dodge read from Second Corinthians, chapters 4, 5 and 10. The reading of the Scriptures was followed by prayer.

Another beautiful vocal selection, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," was rendered by Miss Ligon, after which Mr. Dodge, in a few remarks, paid a tribute to the deceased. The pastor spoke feelingly of that fact that it was largely through the influence of Mr. Russell that he became the pastor of the Central Presbyterian church. Mr. Dodge's remarks embodied reference to Mr. Russell's church and home life, his life as an educator and his life as a business man. But it was especially as a churchman that Mr. Russell was spoken of by the pastor. Mr. Russell had for years been an elder of the Central Presbyterian church, and the fact was mentioned that he was for 40 years superintendent of the Sunday school in a church of which he was affiliated in earlier life. The pastor's remarks were closed with a reference to Mr. Russell's career as a soldier. He was as gallant in the army of the Confederacy as he was in the army of the church, and fought as valiantly in the defense of the rights of his country as he did in defense of the principles of truth and righteousness.

The services were closed by the rendering of "Nearer My God to Thee" and the pronouncing of the benediction by the Rev. Dr. Fraser. Interment was in Silver Brook cemetery.

The active pallbearers were: Dr. B. A. Henry, Mr. W. S. Ramsay, Mr. G. N. C. Coleman, Mr. J. L. Shepard, Dr. M. A. Thompson and Mr. J. H. Anderson. The honorary pallbearers were: Mr. E. W. Taylor, Mr. J. E. Breasale, Mr. G. P. Browne, Mr. J. H. Godfrey, Dr. J. L. Gray, Dr. I. P. Divver, Mr. J. M. Giles, Mr. R. A. Mayfield, Mr. J. W. Thomson, Mr. E. E. Elmore, Mr. J. F. Clarkscales and Mr. John D. Cochran, Sr.

Col. Thos H. and Major Ted J. Russell arrived in the city from Staunton, Va., early Wednesday morning being met at Greenville by Mr. H. H. Russell, who brought them here in an automobile. Other out-of-town persons here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Russell of Greenville, Mr. G. W. Russell of Easley, Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Russell of Easley, Mr. B. F. Russell and Miss Mary Russell of Williamston, Dr. J. L. Bolt of Easley, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McDavid of Greenville, Mr. R. V. Acker of Williamston and others.

Vanishing Gold.

(Chicago Journal.)

What becomes of gold?

It is one of the oldest metals in human use—there are gold beads dating back to the stone age. It is an object of almost a universal desire. It is proof against almost all the influences which destroy other metals, and it has been mined in enormous quantities. Yet today more than two thirds of the gold in use has been dug since 1849.

What becomes of the rest? Where is the gold that set Jason wandering into the Black Sea; that filled the treasures of Croesus; that paid the terrific tribute which Persian kings assessed against the Punjab? What has happened to the yellow dust and "electrum"—an alloy of gold and silver—which negro traders brought down the Nile to Egypt for 4,000 or 5,000 years? Ancient gold, like that of modern times, was used for money and for ornaments; but both have disappeared. Where?

The most enduring of metals, and yet the most evanescent; perpetually coined and yet constantly escaping the hands of even the successful seeker—that is gold. What is the reason of its curious elusiveness?

West to the Hospital

C. E. Blanchard, postmaster at Blanchard, Cal., writes: "I had kidney trouble so bad I had to go to the hospital. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me and they completely cured me. I cannot speak too highly of them." Sufferers in every state have had similar benefit from this standard remedy for kidney and bladder ailments. It banishes backache, stiff joints, swollen muscles and all the various symptoms of weakened diseased kidneys. Sold everywhere.

THE EQUINOX MILL IS ERECTING BARRIER

Fence of Steel and Wire to Protect Mill and Warehouses.

An eight foot steel and wire fence is being erected around the property of the Equinox mill. This fence is one of the largest and biggest in the county and is built as a barrier to prevent trespassing. The posts are of iron and are set in concrete bases, with woven steel wire up a distance of about six feet, and at last several strands of strong barbed wire.

The fence encloses the mill, warehouses, etc., all of which is now under the care of a watchman. In the future, it is said, anyone passing through the gates into the mill, other than employees of the concern will be required to have passes from the mill office.

The top of this barrier slopes inward, making a hook of barbed wire which would be almost impossible to climb. All trespassers will take several good looks at the fence before they start over it for any purpose whatever.

AT THE THEATRES

"Twin Beds" Coming.

At the attraction at the Anderson on Thursday, November 13 Selwyn and company, the firm that gave the stage such notable successes as "Within the Law" and "Under Cover," will offer their latest production "Twin Beds" Salsbury Field and Margaret Mayo's screamingly funny farce of life among the apartment dwellers, which has proved the laughing sensation of the season in New York, where it recently concluded a run of one whole year.

"Twin Beds" has been unanimously declared by the newspaper critics to be the cleanest and funniest farce the American stage has known since "Baby Mine," which also came from Margaret Mayo's pen, and its presentation here is certain to prove one of the delights of the year. Selwyn and company are sending an excellent cast which includes: Nancy Fair, Louis Alberts, William L. Bolt.

MAYOR OF MEMPHIS OUSTED

Also Two Other Officials for Not Enforcing Liquor Laws.

(Memphis Dispatch.)

E. H. Crump, mayor; R. A. Ulley, commissioner of fire and police, and W. M. Stanton, judge of the municipal court, were removed from office by the chancery court today.

George C. Love, head of the city's department of streets, bridges and sewers, was elected mayor. T. C. Ashcroft was elected to succeed Mr. Love and W. T. McLean was made commissioner of fire and police. R. H. Stickley was elected presiding officer of the municipal court.

Charges under which the officials were ousted were filed at the instance of Attorney General Thompson. They involved allegations of wilful failure to enforce the liquor laws.

Rev. J. T. Mann's Announcements

Rev. J. T. Mann will preach at Lebanon church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at 2 o'clock that night he will preach at Six and Twenty.

EXPECT MUCH GOOD FROM COMING MEET

FIRE PREVENTION DELEGATES MEET HERE NEXT WEEK

EXPLAINS METHODS

Agents Assigned to Different Sections to Investigate Dangers From Fire.

A great deal of good is expected from the meeting of the South Carolina Fire Prevention association in Anderson next week. Just what they will do in Anderson has been explained by Mr. W. D. McLean, a prominent young insurance man of this city.

Generally speaking, when the association meets in a town, the agents are assigned to different sections of the city and are expected to investigate this section assigned them, and to report this at the meeting usually held at night. Three men are usually assigned to a block of buildings and they go over this territory very carefully and investigate places where fires would be likely to originate.

According to statistics, Anderson's fire average for the year is not so good as it might be, but on the other hand is for better than some other cities of the state. In 1912 the association met in Anderson and the city was carefully gone over by the inspectors, they making an inspection of all principle buildings and reporting the same at the meeting held in the afternoon. At this time, a Dutch supper was given the visitors by the Anderson association, and a general good time was enjoyed after the work of the day.

The plan for action this year is greatly similar to that of 1912. The men will be assigned to their parts of the city and they will carefully inspect them. They will report the matter at the meeting in the afternoon, and the remedy will be discussed. The association will inform the owners of the property in question of the danger of leaving certain conditions as they are, and will also make mention of the fact to the chief of the fire department, who will in turn see that the plans of the association are carried out.

Anderson property owners would do well to give the matter some thought before next week and to consider what places on their property are "fire-traps." Several small fires have started here that were caused by these bad places, and but for prompt action on the part of the fire department would have caused big fires.

DEPARTMENT REPORTS MADE BY OFFICIALS

The reports from city department were filed yesterday. They were the reports of the chief of police and chief of the fire department. The fire chief reports only two fires for the month of October, the first, a house on East Orr street owned by Mr. W. M. Walker which was insured for $1,200.25 and which was valued at $1,800. The second fire was the barn of Mrs. Barney O'Donnell at which the loss was very slight, being a little over $50. The total fire loss for the month was $1,850.46.

The report of the chief of police is somewhat longer who is as follows:

October, as follows:

Cases continued from Sept.	5
Cases brought in October	112
Cases continued to Nov.	13
Cases convicted	88
Cases dismissed	16
Amount fines imposed	$681
Back fines collected	$ 5
Amount fines worked	$105
Amount fines suspended	$ 40
Amount fines paid	$491
Amount fines appealed	$ 15
Amount fines uncollected	$ 85

TORNADO CREATES HAYOO

Many Lives Lost and Much Property Destroyed.

Kansas City, Nov. 10.—Between fifty and sixty it is reported died in a great tornado at Great Bend, Kansas, tonight. The town is in darkness and much property damaged.

The tornado path is reported sixteen miles wide. A tornado is also reported at Hartford, South Dakota; Fremont, Neb.; Chaffin, Kansas, with much damage at these points. Reports are meagre as many wires are down. Many buildings are reported demolished at Hoxington, Kansas.

A Cat or a Father.

In his "Life of Thomas B. Reed," Samuel W. McCall tells this story about the former speaker, who was an unusually large man.

When his daughter Katherine, or "Kitty," as he called her, was a little girl she had a cat to which she was much devoted. One day the kitten was sleeping in Reed's chair when he was about to sit down. His daughter in honor, gave the chair a sudden pull to save the cat from annihilation, and as a result Mr. Reed sat down heavily on the floor. It was a rather serious happening for a man of his size, and even a lesser man might easily have lost his temper. But the only reaction he took of the matter was to say "Kitty," after he had got on his feet. "Kitty" meaning that it is easier to get another cat than another father.

MR. SHERARD POISONED

But he carried one of our HEALTH & ACCIDENT policies and read what he says:

Iva, S. C., October 24, 1915.

Mr. W. D. McLean, Manager, Realty Trust Co., Anderson, S. C.

Dear Sir: I am just in receipt of a check of $50.00 through you from the United States Casualty Co. in payment of two weeks' disability recently suffered by me from poison oak. Although I was not confined to the house the entire time, your Company paid me full and total disability indemnity until I was able to resume my work. The settlement was prompt and entirely free from any red tape proceedings.

I believe everyone should protect himself with health and accident insurance and I heartily endorse your policy and Company.

Yours very truly,
 W. T. A. Sherard.
