FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Jan. 22.—Money on call was very easy, ranging from 2% to 2 per cent. The last loan at 2% per cent and closing offered at 2% per cent.

Prime paper 4@7 per cent.

Government bonds have been dull and easy.

Railroad bonds ruled dull and easy. Railroad shares opened the dealings in stocks today, with comparatively little irregularity of movement, and scarcely any changes on both sides of the line. A favorable bank statement was expected, but the overwhelming volume of the gain in cash deposited and surplus was more freely anticipated and had a marked effect upon the market. The sales of Morris today aggregated 10,000 shares.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, Jan. 22.—There was a little show of strength in the wheat market at the start this morning on the most specially strong cables, but this feeling was followed by a selling order which quickly sent prices off, and at one time the market had fallen to the corresponding time yesterday, the corn market with street and southern accounts a shade better, but feeling among local traders and the somewhat shaky wheat market. It closed fairly steady for the present month, but considerably lower for later delivery. Receipts were under the estimate. Oats averaged firm, closing without material change for the late deliveries, but for nearer for January. Provisions were firm, pork calling for lard 7½c and ribs 5c. Much of the strength was due to the high market at Liverpool, with the estimate 25,000,000 bushels of wheat, with the estimate 2,000,000 Monday, and but 1,000,000 for next week. The big operators did not attempt to make much of a market.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
