FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Jan. 28.—Money opened easy at 1½ per cent. Exchange closed steady, posted rates firm, to keep actual rates, we for sixty days and sellg to sell actual rates, and for ninety days and sellg for demand.

Government stocks extended its rapid advance. Railway bonds continued to advance. Cotton fell a little.

The stock market could not, on the whole, only be called active today, although the total transactions were nearly 500,000 shares. Of this amount nearly 200,000 shares were contributed by the sugar refining industrials. The prominent feature was that there would be a more aggressive attitude on sugar trust, and during the first hour of business that stocks were called with small fractionals. Later, however, it became sudden, active and the prices was moved up from 1 to 3 points, while Mr. White was offering to loan it at 1½ per cent per day. The result is sure of the day was the sudden activity in American tobacco, though the trading of others in Indiana, to the tune of 1 to 2 per cent, and its final change was a gain of ½ per cent only, though it closed at its highest figure.

The activity, however, was largely not so great as indicated by the sales, which reached nearly 1,000 shares, as the par value of the stock is only $25. The list sold was 72,000 shares.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The wheat market was badly demoralized this morning. The whole course of business in the pit was changed by the remarkable trade action on the curb yesterday afternoon, when a lot of brokers, calling for some big operator or clique, offered May wheat down on the open board to 1c, and handle millions of "puts" for today from Chicago down to 70c at a late hour. There was quite a much nervousness at the opening today. Corn was affected to weakness early in the panic in wheat, and opened below yesterday's close, but the buying was active and the demand for cash corn sharp, with prices higher. The weather unfavorable and there was a gradual rally of 2c, the price going far above the high point of yesterday, but closed off some. Prices at the close were lower than last night. Oats were inclined to follow corn and but for the big break would undoubtedly have recorded an advance. Closing prices were the lowest. May pork touched $9 before noon today. This was not unexpected at the close yesterday; but the actual trade got through of the truck by an early market this morning. Although the bears at the pards felt short at $9.00 for the day prices were not marked up at the pards.

THE GARDEN SPOT OF COLORADO is the place for you to go. FARMERS FROM HOLLAND, EUROPE have already picked it out as the most desirable place for colonization in this country and during the month of November over 100 arrived and are now settled there. 50 more will arrive in January and several other colonies will come during the year. Now is the time to invest as the large number of Hollanders now settling there is sure to advance the values of lands. For descriptive pamphlets and particulars write
