FIGURES OF TRADE

Chicago Grain.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—There was no serious loss in the wheat trade most of the session. The report of a cold wave and consequent damage to many portions of the winter wheat belt had a bullish influence in the early trading and put prices up far above the closing quotations of Saturday night, but the unexpected showing of the visible supply statement, lower closing cables and other weakening influences set in in the session caused the early buyers to unload their holdings.

Corn was decidedly strong early with good short buying.

The oats market was quiet and dull, and closed weak and lower. There was another upward movement in prices of provisions. The volume of the advance was in the same line as on previous days.

Hogs at the yards were 5,000 short, at 35@50c, and the estimate was very light for Tuesday at 35,000. Prices at the yards were advanced. Those with best breeding on packing stations were buyers. Shippers and shorts were buyers and again the country hog got it on the long side. Pork gained 15c, lard 12½c and ribs 10c.

Closing prices:
