FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Feb. 4.—Money on call has been easy with all comers at 1 and closed offered at 1. Prime paper 6@7 per cent.

Commercial government bonds have been dull and steady.

The stock market showed increased narrowness today and the industrial stocks again asserted their independence in the market, both in activity and width of fluctuations. The railroads felt the effect of the adverse movement a bit, and to add to the chaotic of the influences adverse from other centers showed that the amount of currency in New York was increasing, while the banks statement showed a loss in the reserve of over $1,000,000. The list as a rule was traded in throughout within fractional limits, and in no case, except that of Lackawanna, which shows an exceptional strength, could 1 per cent was the final change for more than a small fraction. Railway bonds were generally active and presented a strong tenor throughout. Chicago and Northern Pacific first rose from 77½ to 78, the Richmond and West Point trust from 69½ to 70, and the St. Louis and Southwestern first and second preferred were active and fractional amounts. The close was at the highest prices, sale of stocks aggregated 153,000 shares.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Wheat closed 5c higher; everything affecting the market, aside from the action of the pits, all and the vast amount of wheat in the visible supply, was bullish. Receipts from the northwest were very light and helped to hold the market firm. The cold snap which is said to have covered a large area of winter wheat is regarded as a very serious matter, as it is generally asserted that if it is not relieved very shortly great damage is certain. Corn was dull, almost to stagnation, for the first hour, but later, on the strength of wheat, and the reported destruction of the Argentine crop by locusts, prices went up a little. At the close the market was 1c higher. Oats closed at from ½c to ¾c higher. The provision market worried the shorts, who tried to follow its many nervous changes. The packers and heavier dealers are for the most part letting the market severe alone. The hog receipts today were only 22,000. For Monday the estimate is 40,000. Compared with Friday's closing prices the following declines have to be noted: In pork and ribs lib, lard wound up with the slight gain of 2½c.
