FIGURES OF TRADE

New York, Feb. 10.—Money on call easy, ranging from 2 to 4; last loan at 3, and closing offered at 2 per cent.

Prime paper, 4@6 for choice commercial bills, 6@7 for others.

The stock market was a waiting one, and as such, under such circumstances, was dull except where the operations of the bears caused a temporary activity. In the forenoon, the comparative smallness of the gold shipments stimulated a quick forecasting, which was manifested by decided shorts to move their positions, but later the enlarging demand of money and the reported prospect of a prominent bank premium, that within the next thirty days we would see a stiff money market, created further hesitation among buyers and stimulated the professional bears to further aggressiveness and they were followed by the trading element. The early strength suffered to advance prices, generally small fractions, but the pressure brought to bear, late in the day, wiped out these improvements with something in addition. Dealers and lead among the industrials and Richmond & West Point among the railroads, being exceptionally strong and closing with fractional gains.

Governments dull, southern state neglected.

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Wheat showed but little animation today, but still kept rather firm. Crop reports are still conflicting and keep the trade in a state of uncertainty, even those who feel bearish and are strongly inclined to sell, are held in check by the reports of damage which come from St. Louis, and the bulls are likewise restrained by the simplicity of claims which were sent in from numerous points in the whole belt. Cables were a shade lower, the receipts were very light and the weather pretty free covering by snow. St. Louis still was buying orders here freely and was apparently making every effort to convince the trade that the fear of crop damage was sincere and well founded. Cooling prices were higher. Corn was dull and easy, also featureless, the large opening by shorts during the last day or two left only a moderate demand with little offering, it was a little easier. Closing prices were the lower. Oats were slow, steady and featureless. Prices at the close were unchanged. There was a fleeting time in provisions today. Lard was advanced at a rapid rate by those in control of that product and closed six higher. Pork was strong in sympathy with lard and gained 5@7c. Ribs were also pushed in a lively manner and closed 2@c higher.
