This word is to the early birds—late ones by and by.

Spring overcoats are ready. Come in and look at them; bring your note book if you like, and get all the information you can; try on a few—they slip on so easily and feel so good you'll enjoy the experience. Then go to your tailor and tell him how to make them just as good as ours.

Let us be perfectly frank with you, though—that tailor's chances will be mighty small.

You will find also the best of winter wearables for men and boys, hats, shoes, and furnishings among the rest.
