French, English and Scotch Novelty Dress Goods.

We have replaced the early importations of dress goods, now sold, with the latest developments of Fashion—procured in Paris and London.

The display of these Novelties will be the chief feature this week.

Rough Hop-Sackings, of Scotch make, knotted with silk.

English Hop-Sackings, in plain and shaded colorings, differing from any previously shown.

French Dress Goods of light, airy make for the Summer—Rich Grenadines and open effects showing silk lining.

Changeable Melange. Fancy weaves, in plain goods, for those who prefer a solid color.

We desire all dressmakers and other purchasers in search of fine goods to examine this choice collection.

JAMES McCREERY & CO., Broadway and 11th St.

There's a tussle going on, dear public; both the combatants are after your favor, and, to be frank, each deserves it.

Our $3 Derby—five dollars at the fashionable hatters'—is one fighter; t'other is the soft hat—Tourist, Alpine, whatever you choose to call it—$2.75 and $3.50.

Really they are the best hats we know of for the money.

So are our overcoats.

Proposals.

PROPOSALS FOR SUPPLIES FOR THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT AND POSTAL SERVICE.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 24, 1893.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this Department until Saturday, April 22, 1893, at 12 o'clock noon, for furnishing wrapping paper, wrapping paper for facing slips, twine, letter scales, postmarking and rating stamps, rubber stamps, canceling ink, pads, paper, envelopes, rubber goods, pens, penholders, pencils, inks, mucilage, glass goods, rulers, folders, articles of steel, rubber erasers, books, typewriter supplies, and miscellaneous stationery, in such quantities as the different articles respectively, and at such times and from time to time, as they may be ordered, during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1893, and ending June 30, 1894, for the use of any branch of the departmental or postal service.

Blanks for proposals, with specifications giving detailed statement of the requirements to be met in respect to each article, and also the estimated quantities probably to be required of each, and giving full instructions as to the manner of bidding and conditions to be observed by bidders, will be furnished on application to the Superintendent of the Division of Post Office Supplies, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C.

The Postmaster-General reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive technical defects, and to accept any part of any bid, and reject the other part.
WILSON S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

NOTICE.—Estimates for preparing for and putting an iron awning shed on the pier front of West 34th st., North River, and for dredging from Pier (old) 5 to Pier (new) 7, on the East River, will be received by the Department of Docks, Pier "A," North River, until 1 o'clock P. M. of Thursday, April 13, 1893. For full particulars see the City Record. Copies for sale at 2 City Hall.
